MISTRIAL LOOMS IN MASSIE-FORTESCUE CASE AS JURY FAILS TO AGREE AFTER MANY HOURS

NEW POOLE TRIAL ORDERED TO START WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Old Charges Dismissed and New Accusations Filed by Beavers To Permit Alderman Coleman To Vote on Verdict.

DEFENSE HINTS FIGHT IN COURT

Effort To Keep Hearing From Being Held May Be Launched After Conference With Poole Today.

Trial of A. Lamar Poole, suspended first assistant chief of police and chief of detectives, after dragging on for weary weeks, will begin all over at 7:30 o'clock next Wednesday night so that Alderman Guy Coleman, disqualified because he missed one session of the police committee last week, may regain his right to vote on disposition of the charges of insubordination and neglect of duty.

In a closed session, the committeemen Thursday by a four-to-one vote reversed their former position and allowed Chief James L. Beavers to withdraw the charges against Poole and refile them. Members of the committee previously had said that Beavers did not have the right to withdraw the charges once they were filed.

The new charges were served on Poole a few minutes after adjournment of the police committee meeting. Oscar H. Pendley, secretary of the department, handing the papers to Poole. Chief Beavers again suspended Poole pending the result of the trial, and it was learned that Poole will be paid his salary for the length of time he has been under suspension up to Thursday.

Plan Conference Today.

Poole said that he had no comment to make on the committee's action, but that he probably will have a statement after a conference today with his attorneys, William Schley Howard, James A. Branch, W. Paul Carpenter and H. A. Allen.

The charges Poole now faces are exactly the same as the charges on which he was tried, the original accusation and the amendment having been joined so as to make one paper instead of two. Beavers was allowed to withdraw the former charges and file the new paper, by Councilman G. Dan Bridges, chairman; Alderman Ed A. Gilliam, Councilman Homer C. Foster and Alderman Guy Coleman. The negative vote was cast by Alderman Frank H. Reynolds.

Under the police committee's action of Thursday, the trial will go into day and night sessions after the opening meeting Wednesday night. Meanwhile, the pension application of Chief Beavers will be held up until the regular meeting of the pension board on May 11. Beavers' pension was to have come up at a special meeting Saturday, it was said. Although Beavers is anxious to "get out of all this fussing and retire," he will not retire until the Poole matter is disposed of by the committee, he said. Chief Beavers insists, jokingly, that he wants to retire "so that I can get to work."

200 Witnesses Summoned.

Nearly 200 witnesses were heard by the police committee during the trial which was voided Thursday. Most of the witnesses gave testimony as to Poole's good character, the defense calling between 40 and 50 witnesses a session for several nights.

The committee Thursday morning went into executive session with Beavers and Pendley.

Candidates for Beavers' post are numerous, but political gossip seems to center around Detective Lieutenant T. O. Sturdivant, Beavers' choice; Police Recorder John L. Cone and a few others. Among the prominently mentioned possible chiefs are Captain A. J. Holcombe and Captain Jack Malcom.

Election Approved

SENATOR BANKHEAD.

SENATE UPHOLDS BANKHEAD VICTORY

Body Votes 64 to 18 To Declare Southerner Duly Elected.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—While former Senator J. Thomas Heflin sat leaning intently forward today, the senate in two ringing roll calls blasted his hopes of unseating his successor, John H. Bankhead, Alabama democrat.

By the first vote it rejected, 63 to 19, a motion by Senator Hastings, republican, Delaware, to declare void the 1930 election in which Bankhead defeated Heflin. By the second, it approved, 64 to 18, the resolution of Senators George, democrat, Georgia, and Bratton, democrat, New Mexico, declaring Bankhead duly elected senator and entitled to his seat.

Slowly rising, as if stunned by the overwhelming rejection of his long-standing contest, Heflin, cheeks flushed and broad shoulders stooped, walked from the chamber, pausing momentarily at the door to look back.

Head sagging just a bit, his white waistcoat's broad expanse turned toward the vice president's chair, he stood for just an instant before going on into the hallway outside while friends gathered about Bankhead to congratulate him.

The senate, meanwhile, amid some confusion turned to other business, ending, after nearly a week's debate in Heflin's fight against the man he claimed won the democratic nomination in an allegal primary and whom he accused of stealing the subsequent general election.

Barred from the democratic primary of 1930 because he refused to support Governor Alfred E. Smith in 1928, Heflin ran as an independent. He took the floor in his own behalf during the contest, pleading for five hours for recognition as the victor.

Bankhead, in an hour and a half speech, defended his right to the seat, while Senators George and Bratton carried on the democratic side the fight for him, along with Senator Black, democrat, his Alabama colleague.

Immediately after the two roll calls, which came with startling swiftness in midafternoon, Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, issued a formal statement which commended George, Bratton and Black and said:

"It is most gratifying to democrats that the senate has repudiated

Irish Labor To Back De Valera's Oath Bill

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, April 28.—(AP)—The last barrier in the path of President Eamon de Valera's bill abolishing the oath to the British crown was cleared away tonight when William Norton, labor party leader, announced at a tumultuous session of the dail eireann that his followers would vote for the measure.

With the backing of labor's nine members, the government should be able to put the bill through with at least 81 votes against a combined maximum opposition of 72 members of former President William T. Cosgrave's party and the independents.

Debate on the measure on second reading, which opened yesterday, was resumed by oppositionists, who made blistering attacks on it, and by vehement defenders.

HOUSE VOTES BILL GIVING CONGRESS TARIFF CONTROL

Republicans Predict Hoover Will Veto Measure Taking Rate Power From Administration.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—That ever-blossoming political issue—the tariff—today took a sudden spurt with democrats sending to the White House for an almost certain veto the bill which they expect to make a talking point in the presidential campaign.

On a party vote of 202 to 171 the house accepted senate amendments to the democratic measure intended to shear the president of power to change duties without congressional approval. Thirteen republicans, however, deserted their party leaders while two democrats jumped the fence.

Final passage of the measure followed an hour's debate in which the republican leader, Representative Snell, of New York, accused democrats of having taken it up "under the worst gag rule" he had ever seen.

Representative Crisp, Georgia, democrat, did not object to that charge, simply answering that since the democrats were going to have to accept the responsibility for his bill they should be allowed to pass it as they saw fit.

The prediction that the bill would be killed by a presidential veto came from several republicans, among them Representative Treadway, of Massachusetts. He said:

"It'll be dead when it reaches the White House at the other end of Pennsylvania avenue, anyway."

And he accepted the campaign issue in this fashion:

"The bill is without merit, and after the Chicago political conventions we'll take it up with you."

Representative Ragon, an Arkansas democrat, remarked that republicans had called the White House a "bulwark" against the bill.

"They should have had one against the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill," he said. "Where is all that prosperity that bill was going to bring this country?"

In their measure the democrats propose that the president "initiate a movement for an international conference with a view to lowering excessive tariff duties and eliminating discriminatory and unfair trade practices . . . preventing retaliatory tariff measures and economic wars and promoting fair, equal and friendly trade and commercial relations between nations."

They attacked another provision creating the position of a counsel to represent consumers at all hearings

46 STATES WET IN DIGEST POLL

Final Report Shows Georgia for Repeal by More Than 10,000.

Seventy-three voters out of every hundred favor a repeal of the eighteenth amendment as evidenced by the final figures in The Literary Digest's nationwide prohibition poll, which will be published in the magazine tomorrow.

A total of 4,668,537 ballots were returned and counted in this "straw" referendum. The division of the final figures shows 1,236,660, or 26.49 per cent, voting for continuance of the prohibition amendment and 3,431,877, or 73.51 per cent, favoring repeal.

Kansas and North Carolina are the only two states giving a clear majority for prohibition, Kansas voting dry by a majority of 397 votes out of a total of 84,121 ballots received and North Carolina voting dry by a majority of 68 votes out of a total of 64,790 ballots returned.

The wettest section of the United States as evidenced by the returns in this poll is the group of states from the Mississippi river east to the Atlantic ocean and approximately north of the Mason-Dixon line, with the dampest concentration in the seaboard states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Rhode Island.

The dryest section of the country includes the belt of states extending from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas to the Atlantic with the exception of Missouri, Louisiana, and Florida.

House Again Strikes At Economy Program

Militant Insurgents Sweep More Administration Proposals Aside and Reject Pay-Cut Plan.

BY CECIL B. DICKSON.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Swinging behind its leaders, a weary and hard-driven house tonight approved sections in the economy bill designed to save $25,000,000.

Earlier it voted down the Hoover payless furlough plan and adopted an 11 per cent wage cut on all employes receiving more than $2,500.

After a hectic day session, the members returned tonight to rally against efforts of insurgents to wipe out the remains of the 11 per cent cut by a vote of 183 to 84. This assured a saving of about $12,000,000 for the bill.

The legislators then turned to provisions restricting allowances and extra compensation for federal employes, estimated to save about $13,700,000, but only after the insurgent coalition had been beaten down on numerous amendments.

The Hoover five-day week and furlough without pay plan, estimated to save about $82,000,000, was offered as a substitute to the emasculated McDuffie flat 11 per cent proposal, exempting $1,000, by Representative Ramseyer, of Iowa, republican member of the economy committee. But it was defeated, 179 to 156.

Before the house finished with the wage-cut provision the bi-partisan opponents struck out the provision eliminating the Saturday half holiday for federal employes, estimated to save $9,000,000, by a vote of 141 to 118. Limitation of salaries of Reconstruction Finance Corporation employes to a maximum of $10,000 also was approved.

With $55,000,000 eliminated from the expected savings of $67,000,000 from the McDuffie wage-cut plan and the $9,000,000 through the defeat of the Saturday half holiday provision, the insurgents knocked $64,000,000 from the omnibus measure.

Numerous efforts to increase the cuts in wages of federal employes receiving more than $2,500 and members of congress more than 11 per cent were defeated.

A last-minute effort by Representative Connery, democrat, Massachusetts, to strike from the controversial bill all salary cuts was voted down, 183 to 84.

With this decisive action ending consideration of the first of the ten titles of the bill, party leaders apparently regained control of the situation.

An attempt by Representative Goss, republican, Connecticut, to slash the $10,000 salaries of members of congress to $7,500 a year was overwhelmingly defeated.

The house also approved tonight sections of the economy bill eliminating extra pay for overtime work; reducing travel allowances, including a 25 per cent cut in the mileage allowance of congressmen; requiring compulsory retirement for age; preventing automatic promotions and filling of vacancies during the next fiscal year, and limiting the amount of retired pay.

Married women working for the government were hit in a provision of the bill approved tonight. It provides that in any reduction of personnel, a married woman whose husband also is working for the government shall be dismissed before any other persons in the same branch are let out.

A valiant but futile attempt to destroy the widely criticized practice of "nepotism," whereby congressmen

CLAIMS CONFLICT IN QUAKER STATE

Roosevelt Forces Assert New Yorker Has Won 58 Pennsylvania Votes.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 28.—(UP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, was leading former Governor Alfred E. Smith by more than 25,000 votes in the democratic presidential preference contest tonight.

It is believed Roosevelt gained 55 of the delegates to the national convention, although an accurate figure is impossible in view of the slowness in the count from the rural counties. Numerous republican contests in the congressional and legislative districts of the commonwealth retarded the count in the democratic presidential preferential contest.

Smith will receive 12 of the entire 14 delegates elected in Philadelphia, it was believed in view of his two-to-one victory in the city.

In the republican senatorial election, Senator James J. Davis, running as a wet with organization support, continued to pile up his lead over Major General Smedley D. Butler, dry Pinchot-backed candidate. It seemed possible that Davis' majority over the fiery marine would mount to 400,000 when complete returns are tabulated.

Roosevelt supporters were convinced that the developments had sustained their pre-election predictions. They cited Roosevelt's margin of 20,434 in the preferential vote and claimed the entire eight votes to be cast by 16 delegates-at-large as well as more than 50 of the 68 district delegate votes.

On the other hand, John R. Collins, state chairman, who has advocated an uninstructed delegation and was prominent in the Smith campaign, declared Pennsylvania's 76 votes in the national convention would be "almost evenly divided" between Roosevelt and Smith.

The flexible nature of the delegates' promises and the possibility of pre-

HARDWICK HINTED AS FOE OF GEORGE

Former Governor May Seek Seat in Senate on Wet Platform.

The thunder of big guns on Georgia's political battle front was temporarily silenced Thursday and the small cannon took advantage of a lull in major engagements to get ready for the big drive on September 14.

In contrast with the first three days of the week, when there were successive announcements of candidacy for the United States senate and the governorship, Thursday was without a single definite entry. However, there was a new crop of rumors which brought former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick rather prominently into speculation.

Newspapers generally throughout the state, dailies and weeklies, were prompt to make a declaration of choice as between Representative Charles R. Crisp and Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. for the United States senate seat now being filled by Major John S. Cohen, democratic national committeeman. In the gubernatorial contest, which Wednesday found Eugene Talmadge far out front with his announcement, the tendency was to wait for other entries.

Talmadge's entrance fee reached Miss Stella Akin, state committee secretary, at Savannah Thursday. It had been forwarded Wednesday by a group of the commissioner's Telfair county friends who came here to urge him to get in the race. H. B. Edwards, of Valdosta, had previously qualified and Dr. John R. Lewis, of Louisville, had stated his intention to make the race.

Indications were that John I. Kelley, assistant attorney general and a member of the state executive committee, would post his fee and get in the race before the end of the week. The Kiwanis Club of Newnan offered Judge Alvan H. Freeman, one of the better known Georgia lawyers, as a candidate, and friends of Arthur Lucas, well known figure in the southeastern motion picture field, suggested that he might enter the race to succeed Governor Russell. Lucas was among a group of friends who went to Washington to see Major Cohen sworn in as senator.

Reports were rife at the statehouse that a surprise candidate may be brought into the race at any time now and General Walter A. Harris, of Macon, was being linked with this gossip. Harris is a son of former Governor Nat Harris.

Former Governor Hardwick is understood to be entertaining, more or less seriously, the idea of entering the present political picture as a candidate against United States Senator Walter F. George on a wet platform. Outside of reports about the candidacy of Mayor James L. Key, this is the first time the prohibition question has figured in the speculation over the senatorships.

Somewhat more definite were the

SENATE REJECTS TARIFF SECTIONS IN REVENUE BILL

Tax on Automobiles Is Retained Over Protest of Senator Couzens, of Michigan.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Tariff advocates on the senate finance committee had a family row today with the result that duties on oil, coal and copper were booted entirely out of the revenue bill.

The committee was meeting behind closed doors. Just an intimation crept out, however, that bad feeling arose because the lumber tariff did not get in the tax measure and that caused the crash of the coalition which had protected the levies previously. It was a reversal of previous stands by the committee.

Predictions were freely made that the import duties would be restored on the senate floor, or perhaps even in the committee. There were signs tonight of a recoalescing of the tariff group. In that event, lumber will probably be taken into the fold.

In a jesting mood, Senator Watson, of Indiana, the republican leader, observed during the lull from the committee room: "We put the tariffs out today—we'll put them back tomorrow."

Since the committee began its deliberations, oil and coal have been carefully shielded and the committee reached out and took copper inside.

The sudden reversal today followed a heated argument in executive session over the oil import tax. Out it went and then came counter-attacks on coal and copper. They followed oil.

Turning to the excise levies after the tariff exchange, the committee accepted the house automobile tax rates, including 3 per cent on passenger cars. A motion by Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, to eliminate the automobile taxes was overwhelmed, 12 to 5.

Details of the committee tariff tilt were not made public.

The vote of Senator Connally, democrat, Texas, with the republican majority had made possible the previous decisions favoring import duties on coal, oil and copper. He was joined by Senator Gore, democrat, Oklahoma, on the oil and coal duties. The democrats, however, voted solidly against the lumber tax.

Word came down the line from some of the republican tariff advocates that their support might be lacking for oil, coal and copper if the lum-

STIMSON RESUMES GENEVA PARLEYS

Secretary of State Continues Talks With Bruening, MacDonald.

BY P. I. LIPSEY JR.

GENEVA, April 28.—(AP)—Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, who had intended to leave Geneva for home tomorrow because his plans for a "Big Five" conference had collapsed, announced today he would postpone his departure until Saturday or later.

Colonel Stimson decided to stay in Geneva a little longer in order that he might have an opportunity to continue his disarmament discussions with Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain and Chancellor Heinrich Bruening, of Germany.

He talked with Mr. MacDonald and Dr. Bruening during the morning and met both of them again this evening at a dinner given by Norman H. Davis, a member of the American delegation to the disarmament conference.

Although Mr. Stimson changed his mind about the day of his departure from Geneva, there was no indication he would alter his arrangements to sail from Cannes next Wednesday on the liner Vulcania. He announced his sailing date yesterday after having been informed an attack of laryngitis would make it impossible for Premier Tardieu of France to meet here tomorrow at the Stimson villa with the British, German and Italian ministers.

At a press conference today, Chancellor Bruening reiterated Germany's demands for equality in armaments and urged the necessity of haste in arriving at measures to deal with the financial crisis.

On Mystery Trip

JOHN HUGHES CURTIS.

CURTIS AND PASTOR ON SECRET TRIPS

Norfolk Intermediaries for Lindbergh Believed Engaged in Final Effort

NORFOLK, Va., April 28.—(AP)—The air of mystery and expectancy accompanying the work of three Norfolk negotiators in the Lindbergh kidnaping case was intensified tonight by prolonged absences of two of the intermediaries.

During the day John Hughes Curtis slipped away on another of his many secret missions. This afternoon the Very Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock, serving with Mr. Curtis and Rear Admiral Guy H. Burrage, retired, in the Norfolk negotiations, left his home and up to a late hour tonight was reported to be still absent. Mrs. Dobson-Peacock and her daughter, Miss Marjorie, said they did not know whether he had left the city or where he had gone.

Evidently encouraged by the definite progress reported for the negotiations in the last few days, Mr. Curtis made a secret departure for some unannounced destination. He did not go to his office during the morning. Lieutenant George L. Richard, pilot for the negotiators on many of their trips by air, left the naval base today in a plane.

It could not be learned definitely whether he had Mr. Curtis as a passenger.

Admiral Burrage said he had talked by telephone tonight with Colonel Lindbergh.

"I had a long distance telephone

Shanghai Bomb Hurts Four Jap Officials

SHANGHAI, April 29.—(Friday) (AP)—Four of the highest Japanese officials in Shanghai, including General Yoshinori Shirakawa, commander of the army here and leader of the Japanese forces in the Shanghai fighting, were seriously injured by a bomb explosion here today.

The two most seriously injured were Mamoru Shigemitsu, Japanese minister to China and director of the recent peace parleys here, and Consul General Kuramatsu Murai. Their lives were despaired of.

Also among the injured was Major General Kenkichi Uyeda, who began the Shanghai battle as commander, but was replaced by General Yoshikawa.

The bomb was tossed by an unidentified man, believed to be a Korean, into the speakers' stand at a big military review in Hongkew park in honor of the birthday of Emperor Hirohito, of Japan.

Cohen Is Appointed To Three Committees

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Senator Cohen, of Georgia, was given assignments today by the senate on the naval, appropriations and immigrations committee. Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, gave the new Georgia member his own place on the naval committee. The other assignments were held by the late Senator Harris, to whose place Cohen was appointed.

DEFENSE OFFERS TO ACCEPT VERDICT SPLIT 10-2 OR 11-1

Prosecution Rejects Proposal and Darrow Associate Declares Jury Is Overwhelmingly Favorable for Acquittal.

CROWDS ABSENT AROUND COURT

Disagreement Expected When Jurors Fail To Reach Agreement After More Than 24 Hours.

BY WILLIAM H. EWING.

HONOLULU, April 28.—(AP)—Public Prosecutor John C. Kelley tonight rejected a suggestion of defense counsel that an agreement be made whereby a verdict reached by either 10 or 11 of the jurors in the Joseph Kahahawai lynching case would be acceptable to both sides.

Expressing confidence that the jury was inclined toward the defense, Montgomery Winn, local associate of Clarence Darrow in the case, made the proposal. Winn asserted under the laws of the territory it was possible to waive the usual requirement of a unanimous verdict. Kelley, however, flatly denied this could be done.

Defense Is Confident.

"We are confident," said Winn, "that the jury is standing preponderantly in our favor. We believe they are at least 10 to 2 or 11 to 1."

After being out 25 hours, the jury went to dinner at 5:30 p. m. today (10 p. m. Atlanta time). It was ordered to return two hours later and to deliberate until 10 p. m. (2:30 a. m. Friday, Atlanta time.)

A break in the inscrutable silence about the room in which 12 men labored to reach a verdict came late today when the seven jurors of Nordic blood left their five colleagues to come out on a balcony and stand in a light rain.

Except for the racial makeup of those who emerged the act was not significant to watchers below. Those remaining in the jury room were three Chinese, a Hawaiian and a Portuguese.

The Caucasians stood in a little knot and conversed a few moments. Their words could not be distinguished.

Racial Factor Seen.

The incident occurred near the end of the first 24 hours to elapse since the "melting pot" jury took into its hands the fate of Lieutenant Thomas H. Massie and three others charged with slaying the young native to avenge his asserted participation in an attack upon Mrs. Thalia Massie, wife of the naval officer.

Whether the racial factor was entering the deliberations could only be surmised. It was recalled that defense and prosecution took diametrically opposed positions in building the jury—the defense holding to the Caucasians and the prosecution trying to keep orientals or Polynesians in the jury box.

Clarence Darrow, aged defense leader, still was holding out hopes for acquittal, but a general belief that a jury disagreement would result was growing among the watchers. The jury room is isolated from view and

Survey Shows Advertising Is Vital Even in 'Bad Times'

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., April 28.—(AP)—Gilbert T. Hodges has facts and figures to prove that it pays to advertise even in times of economic distress.

Hodges is president of the Advertising Federation of America, which has completed a study of the 17-year records of 120 corporations. Sixty of these corporations failed to maintain their advertising programs. The other 60 corporations annually increased their advertising expenditures in spite of depressions at an average rate of 16 per cent over the previous year.

Hodges first took up the cases of the 60 concerns which enlarged their advertising:

"Seventeen years ago many of these 60 companies were small. Today every one of them is numbered among the foremost business houses of America. They have multiplied their net assets to four times what they were 17 years ago.

"Last year their combined net profits were three times greater than in the comparatively good year of 1915. This dramatic testimony to the value of an unbroken advertising policy should bring confidence and inspiration to executives who want tangible proof that a courageous program, even in these difficult times, will pay.

"Now, let us look at the other side of the picture—the dark side. Let us see what happened to the other 60 companies, the ones that pursued an erratic and uncharted course.

"When times were good they plunged heavily. When the going became difficult they tightened their purse strings.

"But this policy didn't work. Seventeen years ago every one of the 60 firms in this erratic group was an important national business. Today more than half of them have lost that position of importance. Many have perished."

Killer Woman Is Slain by Officers In Effort to Shoot Way to Liberty

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 28.—(AP)—Maddened because a neighbor mowed a lawn, Ella May Thompson, 26-year-old mental case, today shot and killed Policeman Paul Donath, maintained a siege against 50 officers at her home, and, driven out with tear gas, was slain by blasts from police shotguns and revolvers.

She came from the house with pistol cracking. As she fell she clasped to her breast a photograph of J. V. Baldwin, automobile man, who was sued last October for $125,000 for alienation of affections by Luther Alger, Mrs. Thompson's former husband. She formerly was Baldwin's secretary.

Mrs. Thompson had been under the care of a nurse at the house. Patrolmen Donath and Percy D. Gunby went there in response to a complaint that Mrs. Thompson, objecting to the sound of a lawn mower, had fired a shot at her neighbor, Mrs. Pauline Phol.

"I'll teach you to come to my house without a warrant," Mrs. Thompson screamed as Donath mounted the porch. She fired through the door

Hoover Fetes Aspiring Foes At Luncheon for Governors

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—The governors of half the nation's states, some of whom now are seeking a more permanent residence in the White House, tonight dined with its present occupants, President and Mrs. Hoover.

Sprinkled among the gubernatorial figures entering a mansion brilliantly illuminated in their honor were Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, leading democratic presidential aspirant; Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland, also a democratic candidate; George White, of Ohio, a democratic favorite son candidate, and Gifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, an opponent of the president within the republican party.

It was in an atmosphere of political truce, however, that Mr. Hoover entertained the state executives and their wives and hostesses. They came as members of the annual conference of governors just concluded at Richmond, Va.

There after his address yesterday, Mr. Hoover had shaken hands with Roosevelt and Ritchie, drawing from the former the comment, a "very good speech, Mr. President."

As the guests moved tonight from under the great chandeliers of the east room into the dark panelled oblong of the state dining room, they found place cards somewhat altered from the seating schedule first drawn up by White House social arbiters.

Under the first list, Roosevelt was placed but one seat away from the president. Tonight Pinchot occupied that place, while Mrs. Pinchot, defeated in Tuesday's primary in Pennsylvania by Representative McFadden, sat upon Mr. Hoover's right.

The New York governor was given

BUS LINE APPEAL IS DENIED BY BOARD

A petition of the Georgia Highway Transport Company, a subsidiary of the Georgia railroad, to inaugurate a new bus service between Atlanta and Augusta when the railroad discontinues one train now operating each way was denied Thursday afternoon by the Georgia public service commission.

Motor lines now holding certificates to operate between Atlanta and Augusta, including the Georgia Motor Lines, intervened and opposed the petition. The trains will be discontinued May 1.

Man Found Dead.

The body of a negro found stabbed to death in a servant's house in the rear of 67 Prado, in Ansley Park, Thursday morning had not been identified Thursday by police. The body was turned over to the Hanley Company.

EXPERT TO DISCUSS TABLE ETIQUETTE

Miss Helen Jordan, authority on table manners at home and abroad, will give a practical talk on the finer points of table etiquet in the Sterchi clubroom on the fifth floor of Sterchi's, 116, 118 and 120 Whitehall street, S. W., Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Mae Caruthers, who will demonstrate the correct use of table silver. The public is invited. There will be no admission charge.

Horse Traders Meet For Last Rites Here

Coming from far and distant places, hundreds of Irish Horse Traders gathered for their annual spring reunion and to attend the impressive requiem and final rites for one of their deceased members, Thomas Carroll, 68, who died at Ashburn, Ga., July 12, 1931. Services were held in the Immaculate Conception church Thursday morning. Father Joseph A. Moylan conducted the services and spoke briefly to the relatives and friends of Carroll before they proceeded to his burial in West View cemetery, one of the traditional burying grounds of the Irish traders.

Members of the clan will journey to Nashville Saturday to be present Monday at the funerals in their other graveyard of two of their kin who died during the year, Matt F. Sherlock, 52, who died in Atlanta, May 18, 1931, and Mrs. Mary Riley, 86, who died in Durham, N. C., January 4, 1932.

PHI BETAS TO GIVE 10 AWARDS ON MAY 7

Phi Beta Kappa awards will be given four prominent alumni and six students of Emory University at an initiation ceremony May 7, when Dr. David A. Robertson, president of Goucher College, will deliver an annual Phi Beta Kappa address. The fraternity is a national honorary society.

The alumni are: Charles Howard Candler, '98, president of the Emory board of trustees; Eugene Barnett, '07, founder of the Y. M. C. A. in Hanchow, China; Lester Rumble, '15, and George Hugh Boyd, '17.

Students elected are: Lynwood M. Holland, Bronwood, Ga.; J. Max Little, Commerce, Ga., and Robert E. Vogel, Atlanta, all of class of 1932. Class of 1933, Hugh M. Dorsey Jr., Atlanta; E. Martin McGehee, Talbotton, Ga., and Judson C. Ward Jr., Marietta.

Private initiation ceremonies will be held but the public is invited to hear Dr. Robertson's address at 8:15 o'clock on May 7 at the university auditorium.

TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE WILL HEAR DR. COX

Dr. Harvey W. Cox, president of Emory University, will be the principal speaker when the eleventh ward branch of the Taxpayers' League is organized at a meeting in John B. Gordon school at 8 o'clock tonight. There also will be an address by Robert C. Mizell, president of the league.

Mr. Mizell spoke Thursday night at the twelfth ward organization meeting held in Kirkwood school, outlining the history of the league and its objectives. The call for volunteer workers and for new members brought an almost unanimous response. The meeting tonight will be the third ward organization meeting of the week.

Tourist Tax Beaten.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, April 28.—(AP)—The legislative council today defeated a proposal to impose a tax of $2.50 on each tourist visiting the island. The opposition argued that such a tax would injure the tourist trade.

★ VALUES ★

You Can't Afford to Overlook!

Most of us would travel a long way these days to find outstanding values! But there is no need of searching any further than the nearest A&P Food Store! Prices are low at A&P. Quality is high! And the values in fine foods are greater than ever before!

THE LITTLE GIRL WHO FOUND HER APPETITE

YESTERDAY at both breakfast and lunch, she only toyed with her food — so no wonder Mother was just a little concerned. But today, it's another story. Mother has found just the treat to tempt a young appetite. It's a big bowl of Kellogg's Rice Krispies and milk. And just see her dip right in with her spoon and enjoy every mouthful of that good, nourishing cereal.

It gives you a lot of satisfaction, doesn't it, to see your children enjoying their food? Well, just give them Kellogg's Rice Krispies. This different cereal fascinates youngsters. Crisp, delicious rice bubbles that actually snap, crackle and pop in milk or cream!

And Rice Krispies are one of the best of cereals for children. So tempting, nourishing, and easy to digest. Splendid for the evening meal — they do not overtax like many heavy foods, and so they encourage restful sleep.

You'll enjoy Rice Krispies for your own lunch — perhaps with fruits or honey added. Great for brightening breakfast.

Kellogg's Rice Krispies are made with scrupulous care. Spotless ovens. Gleaming machinery. Sunlit kitchens. No hands ever touch this cereal. And Rice Krispies are sealed in a protective WAXTITE bag which is placed inside the red-and-green package, and keeps every morsel oven-fresh. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Quality guaranteed.

FOR THE CHILDREN: Tune in Kellogg's SINGING LADY every afternoon except Saturdays and Sundays at 5.30 Eastern Time, over WJZ, WLW, WBAL, KDKA, WBZ, WBZA, WGAR, WJR. At 5.15 Central Time, KOIL, WREN, KWK; at 6.00, WGN. Songs and stories children love.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

FOOD AT 1913 PRICES

The United States Department of Labor reports retail food prices in Atlanta at 2.3% higher than in 1913.

Costs of food are lower, but we believe our customers will agree that Piggly Wiggly is one of the main causes of Atlanta getting more than the full benefit of low prices for quality merchandise.

TAMPAN NAMED HEAD OF FLORIDA PYTHIANS

ORLANDO, Fla., April 28.—(AP)—W. Raleigh Petteway, Tampa, was elected chancellor commander of Florida Pythians at a business meeting of the grand lodge here today, succeeding Frank Kellow, Fort Myers, and Lakeland was chosen as meeting place for the grand lodge in 1933.

Sentence Affirmed.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 28.—(AP)—The supreme court today affirmed the death sentence of Vertus Frost, Walker county youth convicted of slaying Sam Waldrop, automobile salesman, on February 10, 1931, and fixed his execution date at July 8.

KITCHEN TESTED RECEIPES

by Sally Saver

I am just in receipt of a letter from one of my readers who asks for a suggested menu. This lady says, "Next week my son will celebrate his sixteenth birthday and I would like to make some recognition of it. He doesn't care for parties so I thought I would have an informal dinner and invite some of his closest friends. Will you please suggest a menu and if it should be served in courses.

Right in line with this letter, is a thought of Jessie Marie DeBoth, who has become famous for her novel and different culinary ideas. The party or small group dinner parties described below may cause some happy hours in Atlanta homes.

The last one I am sure will be the means of delighting the 16-year-old whose mother wishes to entertain him.

Incidentally have you any ideas for small dinner parties? If so send them in and I will be glad to publish them.

One of the most interesting of dinner parties for the groups of from eight to twelve people was a hobby dinner. The invitations included instructions for each guest to come dressed to represent his particular hobby. Needless to say, the crowd presented a motley appearance!

A good share of the conversation at the dinner table naturally revolved around talking about and guessing the different fads and fancies. A bookworm appeared dressed in leaves of printers' ink, a radio fan adorned himself with suspended names of radio stations he had tuned in, and one who had a flare for aviation came adorned in a pair of wings! A prize was awarded for the most clever, yet correctly disguised, costume, thus rewarding ingenuity.

After the dinner was over, the couples repaired to the living room, and played various stunts. A large blackboard was provided, and each person directed to draw a picture of his hobby. The others tried to guess what it was, and whoever guessed correctly had their tally cards punched. Whoever guessed the most hobbies successfully received a prize.

Favors at the dinner table were individual ones, at the end of a long ribbon coming from an appropriate centerpiece, such as a small cardboard hobby horse. If the guest was a dog fancier, the favor might be a small dog. The golfer could receive a caddy bag, in miniature of course. The automobilist, a small red auto. The variety of favors is endless.

After the hobbies were correctly identified, and prizes awarded, the partners were paired off, and each one instructed to perform his hobby for the benefit of the rest of the crowd. This part of the entertainment may be quite good, especially if any really talented people are present. The dancer may perform a solo dance; the monologuist may render a monologue; the traveler a travel talk, and so on.

A South Sea Island Dinner.

There is a fascination about Hawaii for most people, and a dinner party given a la Hawaiian is sure to be successful. The decorations may be slightly suggestive of the island atmosphere, with a mirror as a placid sea for the centerpiece, surrounded by white sand, and an outboard rider or two. This should not be overdone.

The dinner should be authentic. Here is the menu:

Papaya Cocktail
Avocado Soup
Kumu
Chicken Luau with Breadfruit
Boiled Taro
Mango Pie
Pineapple and Coconut
Hawaiian Coffee

The cocktail is made from papayas, or pawpaws, cut in dice and served in cocktail glasses with a cocktail sauce made of China orange, lime juice and sugar. Serve very cold.

The avocado soup is a clear chicken stock soup, with the pulp of the avocado, scooped from its shell, dropped into the soup just before serving.

Kumu are small fish, thoroughly cleaned and salted, tied in taro leaves and boiled.

Chicken luau is made by cutting the chicken in small pieces, salting the pieces, and placing them in an agate bowl lined with taro leaves which have been stripped of their stems. Place the bowl in a steamer for fully five hours, covered with the taro leaves, then closely covered so that no steam can escape. It is served with a coconut sauce, made of grated coconuts, egg, butter and sugar, well beaten together and heated to the temperature of the chicken. A side dish of taro, boiled, and breadfruit is served with the chicken.

Mango pie, a delicious native dish, a simply stewed mangoes, baked within two crusts as an apple pie would be prepared. A little cinnamon is added to the mango before baking. No sugar is needed, if fruit is ripe.

The pineapple and coconut dish is made by cutting pineapple in small dice, covering with grated coconut, then with sugar, or surrounded with sugar. Serve cold.

A Happy Recollection Dinner.

A couple with whom a group of eight had been camping the previous summer entertained the whole group at a really unique dinner in the spring months of the following year. The invitations were issued in the usual manner, no mention being made of any novelty about the arrangements.

When the guests arrived, they were charmed to meet all the members of their previous summer's camping trip. Much rejoicing was heard, and the ice was immediately broken by remembering about such and such stories.

The hostess, without formality, summoned the guests to dinner, and they trooped into the dining room as usual, finding the room quite dimly lighted. They anticipated dinner by candlelight, but were amazed to find only small candle lanterns! One of them

MRS. ARMER AWARDED NEWBERRY BOOK PRIZE

NEW ORLEANS, April 28.—(AP) Mrs. Laura Adams Armer, of San Francisco, a recognized authority on the Navajo Indian legends, today was awarded the Newberry medal by the American Library Association here for the most distinguished contribution to children's literature in 1931.

The medal was awarded for "Waterless Mountain," her book dealing with the life of a Navajo Indian boy.

The Newberry medal award was established in 1922 by Frederick G. Melcher, of New York, and is awarded annually for the best book in honor of John Newberry, a pioneer publisher of books for children.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Governor Russell En Route to Atlanta

WASHINGTON, April 28—(Special.)—After attending the formal state dinner given at the White House tonight by President and Mrs. Hoover to members of the governors' conference, Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., of Georgia, returned to Atlanta shortly before midnight.

Governor Russell, accompanied by Adjutant General Charles H. Cox, of Georgia, arrived in Washington late today from Richmond, Va., where the annual conference of state executives was held this week. He is scheduled to be back at his office at the state capitol tomorrow afternoon.

Accident Victim Dies.

WEST PALM BEACH, April 28.—(AP)—Harley Pearce, 28, state road department employe of Lake Worth, died at a hospital here today from injuries received yesterday when the automobile he was driving on the cross-state highway about 17 miles west of here turned over.

Two Die in Derailing Of Train, House Struck

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 28.—(AP)—Engineer James Groves and Fireman Sthinning, both of Battle Creek, Mich., were scalded to death and two other persons were injured when the Maple Leaf passenger train of the Grand Trunk railroad, en route from Montreal to Chicago, was derailed here today and one of its baggage cars plunged off a high elevation embankment on a house.

Apparently none of the train's passengers was injured and none of the coaches was overturned. Police and volunteer workers, however, searched the ruins of the house for other possible victims. The two injured, neither seriously, were 5-year-old Marshall Bradburn and his father, who were asleep in the house.

HOOVER WILL VISIT RAPIDAN THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—President Hoover decided today to journey next Saturday to his Rapidan fishing camp in the Virginia mountains.

Accompanying the president will be Mrs. Hoover and members of his medicine ball cabinet who gather daily on the south lawn of the White House for early morning exercise.

The party probably will leave here early Saturday morning and return late Sunday.

that was used at the camp hung from the center chandelier and provided the only illumination for the dinner.

Instead of the well laid dinner table and the lustrous linen and sparkling glassware which usually greeted the guests of this particular hostess, a cloth of heavy wrapping paper, dishes of tin and cardboard and tin cups made the guests gasp. The butter reposed in the pasteboard carton in which it was purchased, opened up camp style; the bread was stacked on a lard pail tin; the cream was served from an evaporated milk can, and the silverware from the dime store reposed in a pile in the middle of the repast. What a sight! But the guests took their seats on boxes, grabbed their paper napkins and fell to with gusto! Even the sight of the suggested camp table made appetites keen, banished formality, and caused general hilariousness. Never did ham and eggs taste so good. Never were fried potatoes greeted with such relish. And baked beans and cole slaw were consumed with a vengeance. The host made himself useful by tramping around the table, filling the tin coffee cups from a large lard pail! And after the dinner was over, lots were drawn, as of old, to see who would wash the dishes and police up the kitchen. Never was there a more charming dinner, nor one more appreciated in the spring of the year. An automobile trip had been made into the woods, and the pine boughs that were brought back, placed as centerpiece, served to remind the guests of the happy times had by all, on their camping trip. Needless to say, the dinner will probably be repeated more times than one!

Atlanta To Accept Kress Gift To High Museum of Art Sunday

Officials of the city and state and prominent Atlanta private citizens will gather at the High Museum of Art Sunday afternoon to formally receive and accept an eighteenth century painting by Tiepolo, ultimate master of the Venetian school of painting, presented on behalf of Samuel Henry Kress, of New York, 10-cent store magnate.

The picture, an original executed in the first third of the eighteenth century, is entitled, "The Offering of the Matronalia to Juno Lucina, at Her Temple in the Esquiline Grove Near Rome," and is regarded as one of the best examples of the vivid Venetian masters. It will be received by the museum in the hope that around it will be assembled in the future many other works of old masters, Lewis P. Skidmore, director, said.

Presentation and unveiling of the painting will take place at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at which time Hugh Richardson, representing Mr. Kress, will turn the picture over to the city and the museum. Justice S. Price Gilbert, of the Georgia supreme court, will accept the gift on behalf of the Atlanta Art Association, and Mayor James L. Key will make the speech of acceptance in behalf of Atlanta. Mrs. John K. Ottley will express the appreciation of the museum, and Mrs. Skidmore will relate a brief history of the noted Venetian artist. Miss Laura Ratcliffe Hill, daughter of Walter C. Hill, president of the Retail Credit Company, will unveil the painting.

Giovanni Battista Tiepolo was born in Venice in 1696, the son of a rich sea captain and merchant. For 30 years he worked in his native city, creating many ceiling and wall frescoes in allegory and religious style, as well as canvases which have ranked with the most noted painting of that era. In 1762 Tiepolo journeyed to Spain, where he spent the remainder of his life with his brush and palette and turning out numerous examples of the Venetian art of which he was the leader. He died in 1770 and was buried in the church of St. Martin, in Madrid.

The Tiepolo presented to Atlanta by Mr. Kress is the only work of that artist in the south, so far as Mr. Skidmore is aware, he said Thursday night. The museum director expressed himself as highly gratified with the gift, and said that it is in a wonderful state of repair.

"I believe it can be impartially said," Director Skidmore asserted, "that the Tiepolo given by Mr. Kress outranks gifts he made to Memphis, New Orleans and Houston."

Mr. Kress, it was explained, made his gifts in recognition of his early career in the chain store business in Tennessee, Texas, Louisiana and Georgia. A native of Pennsylvania, where he launched his business on a small scale, the multi-millionaire merchant moved his interests to Tennessee, beginning a chain of 10-cent stores in Memphis many years ago.

PROF. G. H. LE BARRE WILL BEGIN SERIES OF LECTURES HERE

Professor G. H. LeBarre, international psychologist and character analyst, will explain to audiences at the Georgian ballroom of the Henry Grady hotel this week rudiments of psychoanalysis in a series of lectures on the general topic, "Self Knowledge—the Secret of Success." He will give his first address at 8:15 o'clock Monday night and follow it with lectures Tuesday afternoon and night at 3 and 8:15 o'clock and Thursday at the same hours.

PROF. G. H. LE BARRE.

Professor LeBarre has traveled three times around the world in scientific research and is the author of several books. A graduate of Harvard University, he has devoted his life to his study of human characteristics. While this is his first appearance in Atlanta, the psychologist has appeared in many of the largest cities in the nation.

One point which Professor LeBarre will stress is that the present business depression is largely psychological and that a corrected mental attitude could bring about a definite change in conditions.

The lectures this week will be free to the public and all persons interested in character analysis and practical psychology are invited to attend.

STUDENTS ON STRIKE AT WILLIAM AND MARY

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., April 28.—(AP)—The male student body of the College of William and Mary voted a strike today and agreed not to attend classes until further notice in protest against the dismissal of four freshmen charged with breaking into the dining hall after a rally last night.

The strike was voted after Dean K. J. Hoke had rejected a petition for a rehearing for the four students. The petitioners asserted that the four were members of a group of approximately 250 men and that there was discrimination in ordering their dismissal.

CHURCH GROUP VOTES TO CHANGE ITS NAME

BURLINGTON, N. C., April 28.—(AP)—The southeastern convention of Christian and Congregational churches voted today to change the official name of the convention from the Southern Christian Convention, Inc., to the Southern Convention of Congregationalist and Christian Churches, Inc.

A resolution authorizing the change was adopted after a heated discussion.

FIRST HERO MEDAL FOR MAIL FLIERS TO GO TO FREEBURG

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—The first air mail pilot's medal for heroism will go to Mal B. Freeburg, who flies between Chicago and St. Paul.

The presentation will be by President Hoover at a date to be selected later.

On April 12, 1931, shortly after leaving Minneapolis, a motor of Freeburg's tri-motored plane shook loose and tangled with the landing gear.

Freeburg kept the plane aloft with the two remaining motors, flew to the Mississippi river and by maneuvering shook the third motor into the river and then landed with eight passengers and mail.

Later, while flying the night mail between Minneapolis and Chicago, Freeburg discovered a railroad bridge on fire and having passed a passenger train only a few miles back turned his plane and went back.

By circling low over the engine and signalling with his landing lights, Freeburg caused the engineer to stop the train.

Among the passengers on the train that night was Bobby Jones, who just a few hours before had won the national open golf championship.

Paralytic Takes Chance Of 1,000-to-1 for Health

NEW YORK, April 28.—(UP) John Kennedy, a policeman who was shot while on duty two years ago, and who has been paralyzed ever since, took a 1,000-to-1 chance today in an operation which will either permit him to live in comparative bodily comfort the rest of his life—or else, failing that, will bring him death.

Physicians found it necessary to amputate one leg and sever the nerves of the other. But they advised against the operation.

"Go ahead." Kennedy urged them. "I'd rather be dead than this way."

"He has come out of the operation well, but it will be 48 hours before we know anything," the doctors said this afternoon.

George Wins Post On Forestry Group

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(Special.)—Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, has been named by Vice President Curtis as a member of the national forest reservation commission to take the place left vacant by the recent death of Senator W. J. Harris, of Georgia, who had served for a number of years.

The commission has jurisdiction over the acquisition of additional tracts of land for the various forest reservations, including those in north Georgia. It is composed of a small group of senators and cabinet officers.

We'll Take The Chance That You'll Stay Sold on this WATER HEATER

DURING this campaign, we are making a most unusual offer in connection with the installation of natural gas automatic hot water service. We'll install an automatic natural gas water heater (your selection), let you try it out in your own home for three months—and if at the end of that time you aren't convinced that it is superior to any other kind of automatic hot water service—cheaper than any other kind of automatic hot water service—more satisfactory than any other kind of automatic hot water service . . . if you aren't thoroughly satisfied with it in every way, we'll remove it and refund to you the purchase price, or any payments on the purchase price you may have made.

So, if you've been thinking of installing an automatic water heater in your home, here's a wonderful opportunity to do so, with a money-back guarantee if you don't like it.

Remember, this offer is only for the duration of this water heater campaign. Our usual convenient terms apply.

Manually Controlled Tank Heaters . . .

We also have on sale highly efficient heaters of the non-automatic type (not illustrated), offered at a price which makes them attractive. They carry our usual quality guarantee, only. They are sturdily and strongly built, attractively finished, have unusually long double seamless copper coils, asbestos insulation and baffling, which makes for efficiency and quick heating, rustless brass fittings, and are in every respect high-class heaters of their type.

Price (uninstalled) as low as $8.95

ATLANTA, GA., APRIL 29, 1932.

COLD COMFORT.

The real significance of the presidential primaries in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, Roosevelt winning in one and Al Smith in the other, lies in a comparison of the votes received by the two candidates.

The results emphasize the strength of Roosevelt with the rank and file of the party, and the extent to which his opposition is confined to territory in which there exists rigidly controlled municipal machines.

In the Pennsylvania primary Smith was given a majority by the machine-controlled voters of Philadelphia, but when the ballots of the independent voters in the smaller cities and the rural sections were reported Roosevelt soon assumed a commanding lead which gives him at least three-fourths of the state's 76 delegates.

The most significant feature of the vote in Pennsylvania, however, lies in the fact that of the 16 delegates elected from the state at large, Roosevelt gets 15 to Smith's one, indicating the strength of his popular sweep of the state.

The Smith victory in Massachusetts was not unexpected. The closely knit machine in that state is completely controlled by such experienced politicians as Senator Walsh, Governor Ely and former Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, who have been leading spirits in the "stop Roosevelt" movement from its inception.

Notwithstanding the fact that the democratic machines in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts are among the strongest in the country and were being counted upon to deal a crushing blow to the candidacy of the New York governor, he came through with an approximately even break in the combined convention delegates from the two states.

While Roosevelt's progressiveness has alienated those who know he will not be dominated by machine politics, it has made him the choice of an overwhelming majority of the independent democratic voters and of thousands of the progressive republicans.

Especially is this true in the western states. The democrats in these states know that in the nomination of Roosevelt lies their best chance to capture many states normally republican, hence there is little prospect that those opposing him will be able to rally greater strength in the states still to act than they did in Minnesota and Iowa, which voted overwhelmingly for Roosevelt.

Massachusetts and Pennsylvania have been listed among the chief strongholds of the Roosevelt opposition and the inability to gain better than a dog fall in Tuesday's primaries can be but cold comfort to those who have demonstrated their willingness to go to any lengths to stop the steady sweep of the New York governor to the nomination.

George Washington could broad jump 23 feet, a record in those days. But we have statesmen now who can straddle farther than that.

It is certainly surprising to us to learn that Mussolini takes only a glass of milk for breakfast. We had always assumed that he started the day off with a couple of large hunks of raw meat.

It is only natural that a certain symbolic elephant which has been whitewashed so many times should finally turn out to be a white elephant.

OUR GREATEST PROBLEM.

Succeeding ballots taken by the National Economic League on the paramount problems presented by the depression show a significant change of public opinion as to the relative importance of these problems.

The league consists of approximately 5,000 of the country's most representative citizens and its purpose is to create "an informed and disinterested leadership for public opinion."

On its executive council are such men as former Vice President Dawes, John Hays Hammond, former Governor Lowden, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and Silas H. Strawn. Georgia has a membership of about 100, drawn from the leaders in financial, business, industrial and professional groups. The members are selected as men in their localities best informed on public questions and are elected separately in each state.

The combined opinion of such men, representing each section of the country, and expressed through the balloting carried on by the league, undoubtedly gives a reliable cross section of the thoughts of the entire people. In submitting its questionnaires the league lists groups of questions so that every shade of public opinion may be ascertained.

A ballot conducted some months ago among a group of business experts and political economists resulted in the designation of reparations and international debts as the most vital of the problems facing the world.

Now the shift in public opinion is indicated by the vote of the league's 5,000 members, which puts economy and efficiency in government, national, state and local, in first place among the problems which have the most important bearing on present conditions, and relegates reparations and international debts to third place.

The importance placed on governmental affairs is emphasized by the fact that taxation is placed second.

The awakening of the people to the folly of present governmental policies, as indicated by such expressions as the Economic League poll, furnishes the brightest hope for such increases in economy in the public service, and decreases in taxation, that a revivifying effect will be exercised on finance, business and industry alike.

The westerner who shot himself in the head six times in an unsuccessful attempt to end his life should try shooting some vital part of his anatomy.

THE NEW BRITISH TARIFF.

The federal department of commerce announces that the new British tariff schedules will affect at least $98,000,000 of American trade, based on the figures of our export trade to that country during 1930.

This estimate takes into consideration only the principal items of our exports to England, so that the total business which will be affected by the new 20 per cent tariff will undoubtedly amount to more than a hundred million dollars.

While our total exports to Great Britain were approximately $700,000,000 in 1930, it must be borne in mind in considering the effects of the tariff that our principal item of export is cotton, which is not covered by the new duties.

Practically all the manufactured and semi-manufactured commodities which we send to England are covered by the new rates which are so set as to make successful competition with British-manufactured goods almost impossible.

Fortunately for the manufacturers of America, the British government has not permanently abandoned the principle of free trade, but has adopted the new rates only as an emergency measure to aid the industry of the country to extricate itself from the troubles with which it is now beset.

I am not intoxicated with grandeur; I should like to be intoxicated with humility.—Mussolini. In our opinion, it would take very little humility to intoxicate him.

A successful modern writer says that Americans have an average mental age of 12. And if this wasn't true, he probably wouldn't be such a successful writer.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Milky Way Is Merry-Go Round.

All in all, the astro-physicists are giving us very discouraging news of late. One learned gentleman, Dr. Gustav Stromberg, of the Mount Wilson observatory, has just published a leaflet in which he says that the Milky Way is a monstrous wheel, and that it takes about 250,000,000 years for it to make one rotation. That's a long time to turn around in once, and yet the revolving process goes at the speed of a Schneider cup race. We have a long way to go before we can equal that speed.

Since we have geological records in the earth for about 1,000,000,000,000 years, it follows that the Milky Way has made about four revolutions since the earth was formed. Maybe more, but four is certain. A lot happened in that space of time.

Just before the last turnover there was an ice-crust mountain high on this little terrestrial ball of ours. Human life was impossible. Some day there will be another ice age. Then human life will again be impossible, and the story will thereafter start once more from the beginning—Cro-Magnon man, man-apes and finally intelligence in the shape of soothsayers, mesmerizers and the like, up to another Hitler or Mussolini.

It's all very discouraging. For what after all is the use if that is to be our fate for ever and ever, world without end?

Oldest American Immigrants.

They came from Asia. Somehow they knew enough about navigation to cross the foggy Behring straits there on top of the world. Then they settled in Alaska, but more of them traveled in southerly direction to Mexico and Central America. There they produced the Maya and Antzec civilizations. This is in substance the announcement of Dr. Ales Hrdlicka, curator of physical anthropology at the Smithsonian Institution. The savant's research seems to indicate that former theories that the earliest migrants into America have come from central Asia were erroneous. They were Siberians, ancestors of the present-day bolsheviks.

Curious how these people never left anything in the north but totem poles and never reached a degree of civilization comparable to that reached by the Mayas and Incas, their kinsmen. With them the pilgrim fathers, their pilgrim fathers that is, were a poor benighted lot, who stayed up there in the frozen tundras of Alaska with loads of gold under their feet which they never touched. Were they any unhappier for that reason? Hardly.

Gold has brought our civilization nothing wonderful except some fine specimens of earrings and bracelets. For the rest it has been a curse.

St. John Philby.

That enigmatic figure who rules the Arabian desert since Lawrence withdrew in disgust over Britain's failure to carry out her promises to the Arab tribes, St. John Philby, has recently completed a voyage through an unchartered section of the Arabian hinterland where no white man had ever set foot, as far as we know from the records.

That Mr. St. John Philby came through unscathed he owes no doubt to the fact that he is a fluent Arabic scholar, speaking the dialects of half a dozen tribes and—that he is a full-blown Hedjah, faithful Mohammedan believer, who can quote, if so required, sura upon sura from the Koran. All this would make him but mildly interesting. The main fact about St. John Philby is that he is a first-rate writer. His two recent volumes "Arabia" are a masterpiece, a standard work for all time. Strange how Great Britain can always count on the devotion and tact of such men as Lawrence and Philby, young men who go out beyond the furthest outpost of that empire and hold high in the most diversified circumstances the prestige of England.

Georgia Heroes Of the World War

By Sergeant L. E. Jaeckel
(All Rights Reserved.)

CLAUDE E. CHERRY (Army Serial No. 559081), sergeant, Company B, eleventh machine gun battalion, fourth division, American Expeditionary forces, awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in action with the enemy near St. Thibaut, France, August 7, 1918.

Sergeant Cherry commanded the third platoon of his company during the engagement near St. Thibaut. On August 7 he crossed the Vesle river and took up a position in front of his own infantry on terrain constantly swept by heavy artillery, machine gun and rifle fire and directed his guns so skilfully as to silence a machine gun nest and make possible the infantry advance. His conspicuous courage and heroism was an inspiration to his men.

This gallant soldier was killed on August 9 by a fragment from an aerial bomb.

Residence at enlistment, Savannah, Ga. Posthumously awarded. Medal presented to mother, Mrs. Sarah Demarest.

Children Never Use Bad Grammar If They Never Hear It

By Robert Quillen

The worth of teaching depends on the learning. That sounds banal, but it is a truism frequently overlooked.

No amount of teaching can force an idea into an unwilling skull. The learner is the one who decides whether he shall learn. And he is by nature resentful of all efforts to force knowledge upon him.

The cave man was free of restraints. Anything that attempted to hinder or impede or direct or control him was an enemy. His natural and necessary reaction was instantaneous resentment. His life depended on fighting back. Hard necessity made resentment of all interference a race habit.

And the habit remains. Our reaction to anything that would coerce or direct us is an instinctive antagonism.

We resent the sign that tells us to keep out. We hate the things that are "good for us." A boy loses all interest in a book when told that it will improve his mind. "Thou shalt" or "you should" are words that arouse instinctive resentment because they threaten our liberties.

And thus it is that any effort to teach us seems a threat. It is an effort to put on harness. And instinctively we close the portals of our mind to defend ourselves against invading ideas.

Reason overcomes this instinct and a thirst for knowledge makes us receptive of ideas, but the young and the ignorant seldom are guided by reason.

Recently a popular writer said that most of the criminals in a certain prison had been given religious training in youth. The statement was untrue. Is a dog trained because its master once gave it an hour of verbal instruction?

A boy isn't trained until he learns. You can't teach him religion or honor by mouthing platitudes at him. He must absorb these things as he absorbs good manners and good grammar.

And the only way he can absorb them is in an environment that affords him constant example.

As we instinctively resent force, so by instinct we imitate; for we have a natural desire for the good opinion of the herd and this desire makes us conformists. Children mimic their elders as naturally as wild creatures do.

Imitation is the natural way to learn. By this method the young learn well, for they learn willingly. It does no violence to nature.

Teaching by precept is a foolish waste of energy unless fortified by example. A little showing is worth a great deal of telling.

If you would have ideal children, keep your tongue still and provide an ideal example for them to absorb.

held by the tariff commission to determine whether production costs at home and abroad made a tariff necessary. At present only the importers and domestic manufacturers or producers appear.

Senate democrats, with the aid of insurgent republicans, passed the bill by a vote of 42 to 30 after it had been unfavorably reported by a senate committee.

Under the law now the tariff commission can recommend to the president as much as 50 per cent increase or decrease in duties. If the president approves the recommendations the new levies become effective. The democratic bill, however, requires congressional approval.

HOUSE STRIKES AT ECONOMY BILL

keep members of their family on the office pay roll and thus increase their salaries, was made by Representative Grant E. Mouser, republican, Ohio.

Mouser offered an amendment which would prevent the employment of any members of the family who do not actually perform the work for which they are listed on the pay roll. It was defeated, 88 to 44.

The Ohioan referred to the United Press dispatch today by Raymond Clapper revealing that Senator Joseph T. Robinson, senate democratic floor leader, has three members of his family on the pay roll, "including an aged mother-in-law who doesn't do anything for this money."

"There are members of congress who have attached to their pay rolls men who are looking after their political affairs in their states," Mouser said.

The house also defeated an amendment by Representative Loring Black, democrat, New York, to eliminate the franking privilege whereby congressmen have free use of the mails.

Instead of a $1,000 reduction, the bill as it stands reduces congressmen's salaries by $825. Very few congressional clerks get more than $2,500, and therefore are not affected under the bill as it stands.

Earlier, the house responded to the plea of Chairman Byrns, of the appropriations committee, not to approve the Darrow amendment to the $326,000,000 naval supply bill calling for $1,000,000 for a hospital at Philadelphia. The vote was 122 to 111.

The bill was passed and sent to the senate without a record vote after the house had approved committee reductions of $14,000,000 in the budget estimates.

By a vote of 198 to 20 the house rejected a motion by Representative Schafer, republican, Wisconsin, to send the navy bill back to the appropriations committee for a general 10 per cent reduction.

During the day the house approved the economy committee's proposals to reduce permanently to $10,000 each the annual salaries of members of the shipping board, the federal reserve board, interstate commerce committee, tariff commission, farm board and board of mediation.

It also accepted a proposal to permit President Hoover, the cabinet officers and members of the supreme court, whose salaries are fixed by the constitution, to return any portion of their compensation to the federal treasury.

A provision to cut salaries of all federal judges to $10,000, unless fixed by the constitution, was approved.

Salaries of members of the international joint commission (United States and Canada) were reduced to $5,000 each from $10,000.

PRESIDENT FETES RIVALS AT DINNER

a seat at the oblong table nearer the doorway of the dining room, five or six places removed from the chief executive. Ritchie's seat was nearby.

The seating schedule originally drawn by the authorities upon rank and precedented at White House functions was based upon a list obtained at the governors' conference, but one of the president's secretaries explained during the day that the date of each state's entrance into the union was decisive in the final seating. This followed "the customary White House policy of the past 100 years."

White-haired Governor Pollard, of Virginia, occupied the seat of honor upon Mrs. Hoover's right by virtue of having been host to the conference just concluded. Governor Buck, of Delaware, sat at the First Lady's left, his state being the first to enter the union.

Governor Pollard was accompanied by Mrs. Herbert L. Boatwright, his daughter; Governor Russell, of Georgia, by Miss Ina Russell; Governor Ritchie by his aunt, Mrs. Henry L. Cabell.

Other guests at the dinner included the governor of South Carolina and Mrs. Blackwood, the governor of North Carolina and Mrs. Gardner, the governor of Louisiana and Mrs. King, and the governor of Florida and Mrs. Carlton.

SENATE REJECTS TARIFF SECTIONS IN REVENUE BILL

ber duties did not get some democratic support.

The showdown came late today when the committee took up the oil rate.

Earlier the commitee had definitely decided on the house rate of $2 a ton on coal and by a vote of 10 to 8 rejected a motion to eliminate the duty entirely.

On the excise schedule, the committee voted to exclude toothpaste and soaps from the 10 per cent levy on cosmetics and toilet articles. It kept the tax.

Flat tableware, both sterling and plate, was exempted from the 10 per cent levy on jewelry.

The finance committee passed over the tobacco schedules without changing the present law, but reserved the right to reconsider if more revenue is needed when the excise taxes are concluded.

HARDWICK HINTED AS FOE OF GEORGE

developments in the campaign over the lesser offices.

R. F. Burch, state purchasing agent, indicated that he would make the race for commissioner of agriculture to succeed Talmadge.

"I am being pressed by a great many friends in all sections of the state to offer for commissioner of agriculture," Burch said, "and at the moment I am seriously inclined to become a candidate. I shall reach a definite decision within a few days and, if I enter the race, I will issue a statement outlining my reasons for doing so and the platform upon which I expect to be elected."

Hamilton Ralls, of Hogansville, the first candidate to announce when it was uncertain whether Talmadge would make the race for governor or not, paid his entrance fee Thursday and said that he would open campaign headquarters, probably in Atlanta, at an early date. J. O. Wall, of Eatonton, announced some time ago he would run and J. W. Whiteley, of Warrenton, got into the race Wednesday.

Although invited to make the speech before he announced for governor, Talmadge's first appearance before an audience after his declaration of candidacy was Thursday when he addressed the Atlanta Junior Chamber of Commerce. He talked about the plight of the farmer, a tariff on raw products and a reduction in the cost of operating government.

"The national government, the state government and all governments," Talmadge told the Jaycees, "must cut expenses. It is not a question of being able to balance the budget but one of cutting the budget down. What we need is to put men in office who know how to run things and to help the farmer."

Talmadge indicated Thursday that it would be several days before he made an extended platform pronouncement. He will make a commencement address at Subligna, in Chattooga county, tonight.

Except for the possible entry of former Governor Hardwick, as a candidate against Senator George, no developments are expected in the senatorial situation. Governor Russell will return to the state Saturday from Richmond and attend the opening of Presshaven for the season. Representative Crisp will make a more definite statement of his views on national questions from Washington within the next week or 10 days.

talk with Colonel Lindbergh at Hopewell tonight," Admiral Burrage said.

Asked if he thought the famous flyer seemed encouraged, the intermediary replied, "I think so."

The yacht Marcon, which has served as a means of travel on two trips made by Mr. Curtis, was docked during the day at the naval base. A guard was thrown about the pier and it could not be determined late this afternoon if the craft had left its berth. Lieutenant George L. Richard, navy officer serving as pilot on flights made in connection with the negotiations, was at his office during the morning but later could not be located.

The Ledger-Dispatch today said it learned from "an apparently reliable authority" that a part of the ransom agreed upon for the return of the baby had been deposited subject to the order of one of the three Norfolk intermediaries. The paper stated the very Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock is thought to be the member of the trio in whose name the money has been deposited. The paper added that it was understood that the money or its equivalent is available at a Norfolk bank.

The trip engaging Mr. Curtis tonight followed an announcement by the negotiators that they had overcome a number of obstacles in their effort to bring about the return of the kidnaped child. The statement was made after Mr. Curtis returned from a boat trip of two days and three nights.

Captain F. H. Lackmann, skipper of the Marcon, said today the boat was ready to sail "at any time." He refused to give more definite information.

Mr. Curtis is believed to have left early today. It was reported that he communicated yesterday with Colonel Lindbergh by telephone. At one time during the day he requested newspapermen to leave his office while he answered a telephone call.

The destination and details of his latest trip assumed a more mysterious air than the two previous missions regarding which it was learned, at the time, that he was traveling by water. On one of these trips the Marcon was sighted coming into Chesapeake bay from the sea, while it was indicated that the boat had gone out to sea again on the second trip.

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY

IT IS NOT IN THE BREATH.

Our Michigan reader sends in a copy of a handsome bulletin on "Colds" published by the American Education Association. It cites the opinion of Benjamin Franklin as given in a letter he wrote to Dr. Rush: "I have long been satisfied from observation that people often catch cold from one another when sitting near and conversing so as to breathe one another's transpirations. It is the air which we breathe which is contaminated by other persons suffering from colds, and not from cold and dampness."

Franklin was pretty warm, at that. But we know now it isn't the air we breathe that carries the disease. It is the mouth spray given off when one with the disease coughs, sneezes or talks. The breath does not carry germs. The expired air of even a patient with diphtheria or other highly infectious disease is not dangerous f another person, unless the air contains the spray of moisture droplets from coughing, sneezing or talking. Franklin was indeed very warm when he observed that people caught cold from conversing with one another.

This official bulletin of the education association goes on to explain how the moisture spray is given off when a person coughs or sneezes, but it is curiously silent about conversational spray. The only difference between open face coughing and sneezing and ordinary polite conversation is that the cough or sneeze spray carries farther, up to 10 or 12 feet, whereas conversational spray carries less than five feet. I suggest that you keep this in mind when you are striving to avoid catching an alleged "cold" some friend or business associate offers to share with you. Often it is quite possible to keep beyond the five-foot conversational spray range and avoid infection.

'Pro' Stock Traders Flayed by Senator

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Professional stock traders were compared with "racketeers, gangsters and pickpockets" by Senator Blaine, republican, Wisconsin, today in the first senate echo of its investigation of the stock market.

"Professional traders never lose to the public," Blaine said. "They may lose among themselves, but their main purpose is to gouge, cheat and defraud the public."

"The stock exchange, with the practices that have already been disclosed before the committee," Blaine shouted, "can be justly charged with having the leprosy of crime spotted all over it."

President Whitney, of the exchange, Blaine said, "undertook to place the characteristics of angels about the operators on the exchange, and yet they are similar in character to the racketeer and the gangster."

Adams and Moffett On Akron Test Flight

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Aboard the navy airship Akron when she left her base at Lakehurst, N. J., tonight were Secretary Adams and Rear Admiral William A. Moffett.

Eighty-nine other persons were aboard the big silver vessel. Commander H. V. Wiley, the ship's executive officer, was in command.

It was the first time the Akron had been in the air since it cracked up February 22, as members of a special congressional committee waited to board it. It will conclude the cruise Friday afternoon.

Former President Of Argentina Dies

PARIS, April 29.—(Friday)—(AP)—Former President Jose Francisco Uriburu, of Argentina, died early today at a hospital where he underwent an operation for stomach ulcers last Saturday.

AMERICAN PEN WOMEN PICK MRS. HEFLEBOWER

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Mrs. Clara Keck Heflebower, of Cincinnati, today was elected president of the National League of American Pen Women.

Mrs. Heflebower succeeds Mrs. Grace Seton Thompson. She was opposed by Mrs. Phyllis Fergus Hoyt, of Chicago, a composer.

Other officers named included Mrs. Kate S. Penney, of Birmingham, as one of the vice presidents. Mrs. Nancy F. Munce, of Richmond, was chosen librarian.

29 COUNTRIES ARE LISTED IN SEARCH FOR KIDNAPERS

HOPEWELL, N. J., April 28.—(AP)—The official search for the kidnapers of Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr. has extended to 29 countries in Europe and South America, it was disclosed on this, the 58th day of the crime.

Preceding this revelation by Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, of the New Jersey state police, came an announcement that Salvatore Spitale and Irving Bitz, underworld intermediaries in the case, had withdrawn from the quest because of the payment of $50,000 in ransom by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

In his daily bulletin Colonel Schwarzkopf said authorities in Geneva, Switzerland, had been asked to confirm a report that part of the ransom money had turned up in that country, adding that "Switzerland is included in the 29 countries contacted."

MESSAGE TO FLEISCHER BROADCAST BY RADIO

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—A mysterious message, apparently intended for Harry Fleischer, Detroit "purple gangster" wanted for questioning in the kidnaping of Charles August Lindbergh Jr., was broadcast from a radio station here at 11 p. m.

The message said:

"Harry Fleischer—Dear Harry, connect with me immediately through my attorney, Henry A. Uterhart, 36 West 44th street. Do it through a third party. No danger of tipoff. I am the party who was the main mug of the Ohio joint where you and Big Mike grifted. Remember the souper you and the Turk gave me?"

The message bore no signature and officials of WOR, the station sending the message, said they could not disclose its source or any information concerning it.

Henry Uterhart, the lawyer named, [illegible] since 1903 except for a period during the World War, when he was a captain in the A. E. F.

Address by Senator to Feature Atlanta U. Ceremony Saturday

The first step in what is probably the most ambitious programs of expansion ever undertaken by a negro university in the south will reach its climax at Atlanta University Saturday afternoon when the new library building on the campus is dedicated amid impressive exercises led by prominent educators.

Exercises will be held on the campus beginning at 2:30 o'clock, preceded by an academic procession beginning at Rockefeller hall, on Spelman College campus and ending in an assemblage on the university campus immediately adjacent to the new library facing Chestnut street. John Hope, of Atlanta, president of the university, will preside.

United States Senator Frederic C. Walcott, of Connecticut, will deliver the dedicatory address for the new library, which was erected and equipped at a cost of $300,000 under a grant from the general education board, and the building will be accepted formally by Dean Sage, of New York, president of the university's board of trustees. Dr. James Weldon Johnson, noted negro poet and professor of English at Fisk University, will deliver an address in behalf of the alumni of Atlanta University.

At a special convocation celebrating the dedication of the library, to be held at the university tonight, Dr. George Barton Cutten, president of Colgate University, will be principal speaker. Representatives of many of the leading educational foundations and religious societies that are engaged in negro education will respond to the address of welcome to be delivered by Dr. Will W. Alexander, director of the commission on interracial cooperation. Negro spirituals and folk songs will be presented by a chorus under direction of Professor Kemper Herreld.

At Saturday's dedication exercises, in addition to Senator Walcott and Dean Sage, educators attending the dedication will include Dr. Harvey W. Cox, president of Emory University, and Dr. James Ross McCain, president of Agnes Scott. The Morehouse glee club and the Morehouse-Spelman chorus will render an elaborate program of music.

The eight leading contestants for that number of delegate-at-large berths included only one man who declined to be bound by the preferential vote. He is Judge Henry C. Niles, York, in eighth place with a scant 1,000 lead over a Roosevelt supporter.

The personnel of the delegate-at-large group, as indicated by incomplete totals, was: Eight women and four men, indorsed by both factions and ready to support the popular candidate; three pro-Roosevelt entries, and Judge Niles.

Chairman Collins and Sedwick Kistler, national committeeman active in Smith's interest, were running in tenth and eleventh position in the 14-candidate contest for the eight places.

SMITH GAINS LEAD IN CONNECTICUT VOTE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 28.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith piled up a lead over Franklin D. Roosevelt tonight for instructed delegates to the state democratic convention, on the basis of returns from nearly half the town caucuses and primaries.

Smith received the pledges of 239 delegates to 12 for Roosevelt, although the latter's supporters claimed a large number of the uninstructed groups and asserted their forces would control the convention.

Virtually all the large cities went on record for the 1928 standard bearer. Hartford and New Haven, each with 61 delegates, pledged support to him, along with New Britain, Meriden, Norwalk, Danbury, and Torrington.

Bridgeport withheld pledging its delegation of 49 until another city convention May 13, almost on the eve of the state gathering.

Roosevelt's backers expected to win many of the smaller communities, however. Delegates were pledged to the New York governor in Clinton, Hebron, Willington and Columbia.

The state convention May 16 and 17 will have 968 members. A candidate will need 485 votes to receive the support of the 16 Connecticut delegates.

THREE-CORNERED FIGHT LOOMS IN CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—(AP)—A bitter, three-cornered fight for control of the delegation to the national convention and internal dissension over party control embroiled California democrats today as each faction appealed for support in next Tuesday's presidential primary.

Goaded by a record democratic registration republican leaders, with an uncontested Hoover slate of delegates on the ballot, urged a heavy vote to "encourage" President Hoover and to show there has not been a marked defection to the democratic party.

Lively campaigns, characterized by charges of political treachery and "whispering," have been conducted in behalf of John N. Garner, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Alfred E. Smith for the democratic preference. Under the law, California delegates are bound to support the candidate for whom they are pledged until he releases them.

A block of 44 votes is at stake in the democratic contest, as the state's allotment was increased by the recent congressional reapportionment. The state will have 47 votes at the republican convention, however, having drawn a bonus of three because it voted republican in 1928.

WEBB AGAIN NOMINATED BY FARMER-LABOR PARTY

OMAHA, Neb., April 28.—(AP)—For the second straight campaign, Frank Elbridge Webb, of San Francisco, will carry the presidential banner of the farmer-labor party. His running mate this year will be Mayor Jacob S. Coxey, of Massilon, Ohio. Webb headed the party ticket in 1928.

Webb was given the nomination last night by the party's convention after a fight to have himself accredited as the delegate from California.

Others proposed for the nomination were Mayor Coxey, Thomas Mooney, labor leader, now serving a prison sentence in California on a bombing charge, and Roy Harrop, of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

The convention adopted a national platform blaming the gold standard for present economic conditions and calling for the placing of the banking and currency system in the hands of the federal, state and local governments instead of under private ownership.

HURLEY SINGS PRAISE OF HOOVER "PROGRAM"

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Secretary Hurley said tonight he was convinced that "President Hoover is the only man in the world who has inaugurated any constructive program to overcome the depression."

The secretary of war told the American Newspaper Publishers' Association Mr. Hoover's program "has gone far toward stopping the ravages of depression and inspiring confidence in the people."

"That program," he added, "is the only worth-while plan advanced by anyone in or out of public life."

He said many people had criticized Mr. Hoover for being over optimistic.

"What would they have the president do?" he asked.

"Throw up the sponge and announce that the American people had been defeated . . . Can you imagine Lincoln uttering pessimism to the American people after the battle of Bull Run. Can you see Wilson painting a picture of the allied failure to resist the German drive in the spring of 1918 and suggesting the fall of Paris?"

DAKOTA DEMOCRATS ASK REFERENDUM

NEW ROCKFORD, N. D., April 28.—(AP)—A plank calling for a referendum on the eighteenth amendment was adopted by the North Dakota democratic convention late today after debate.

P. W. Lanier, of Jamestown, former Tennesseean, was indorsed as a candidate for United States senator.

OFFICERS SLAY KILLER WOMAN

window, and Donath fell backward down the steps, mortally wounded.

Gunby shouted to a woman across the street to call police headquarters. A general radio message sent every police automobile in the district to the house. Within a few minutes the street was packed with cars and a throng of excited spectators so large that lines were strung to hold it back.

Maniacal yells came from the house. Every few minutes, as police shouted to her to come out, she fired through the closed windows. A policeman ran from the cordon and tossed the first tear gas bomb through a broken pane.

Once Mrs. Thompson emerged from the back door. Officers called on her to surrender. She sent a bullet over their heads as she retreated.

More tear gas bombs were hurled into the dwelling.

Suddenly, in full view of a throng that numbered thousands, the front door swung wide and Mrs. Thompson ran out. She was screaming, and her red hair was blowing wildly. One hand held the picture to her breast, in the other a pistol spoke, but without aim.

Lead and steel slugs from sawed-off shotguns and automatics struck her in a single roar. Her body whirled about and pitched to the ground.

MISTRIAL LOOMS IN MASSIE CASE

there has been no hint of what has transpired therein.

The faces of the jurors were set straight ahead and did not turn to right or left as they marched past newspapermen and into the courthouse to resume their deliberations this morning.

In reply to questions, Circuit Judge Charles S. Davis said he would keep the jury deliberating "a reasonable length of time under the circumstances of this particular case" but declined to say exactly how long that would be.

Return to Town.

Massie and the other three accused, Mrs. Granville Fortescue, his mother-in-law, and Albert O. Jones and E. J. Lord, navy enlisted men, who went to Pearl Harbor late last night after the jury had retired, returned to a downtown hotel this morning to await the jury's report.

While the jurors argued, speculation regarding the retrial of the four remaining men accused of attacking Mrs. Thalia Massie, wife of the naval officer, began among those awaiting the outcome of the present trial.

Kahahawai was among the five men accused by Mrs. Massie and she identified him as the one who broke her jaw while she prayed for mercy. He was abducted and slain while awaiting retrial with the other four men after a jury once had disagreed as to their guilt.

The interlocking aspects of the lynching and the attack case have served to complicate the position of Public Prosecutor John C. Kelley. In the lynching case Mrs. Massie appeared as a defense witness and figured in an angry clash with the prosecutor. Should Kelley have charge of the prosecution in the retrial of the attack case Mrs. Massie would be his chief witness.

Innocence Maintained.

Closing the prosecution's argument before the jury yesterday Kelley contended Kahahawai, who admittedly was killed by Massie after the native supposedly had admitted the attack, went to his death an innocent man in the eyes of the law because of the presumption of innocence in favor of a man not yet convicted.

Kelley contended that even though the four remaining attack suspects were convicted later, the name of the slain athlete remained clear.

Navy circles expressed some feeling against Kelley because of his clash with Mrs. Massie. During cross-examination Kelley handed her a paper, supposedly written by herself, containing an alleged admission of differences with her husband, a few months prior to the attack.

The four Americans face 20 years to life imprisonment, the penalty for second degree murder, on the charge that they killed Kahahawai.

He is a Roosevelt delegate to the national convention.

ROOSEVELT REFUSES TO TALK POLITICS

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, leading candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, held political conferences at his hotel here today, but declined to discuss the Massachusetts or Pennsylvania primary results for publication.

"The governors' conference is still on," he told newspapermen.

He had referred to the governors' meeting in Richmond which he attended and where personal politics had no place on the calendar, although many spoke on political subjects.

With democratic delegate-picking over for the week, republicans tomorrow and Saturday will select 54 in conventions in Minnesota, Mississippi, Arizona and Nevada.

President Hoover's total pledged and claimed convention strength is now 641 or well over the 578 majority needed to renominate. His supporters claim he will pick up most, if not all of these.

KENTUCKY VOTE ASSURES HOOVER OF NOMINATION

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 28.—(AP)—Enough votes to renominate Herbert Hoover at Chicago in June appeared certain today as a result of Kentucky's 25 being pledged to him at the republican state convention here yesterday. Counting instructed, pledged and claimed votes, he will have 22 more than the necessary majority.

The state's delegation was instructed to work and vote for Hoover and Vice President Charles Curtis. Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the republican national committee, was chosen by the delegation as its chairman.

COTTON SALE PLAN MAY BE CURTAILED

Policy of Restricted Selling Expected as Result of Committee Meet.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—A policy of restricted and orderly selling of farm board stabilization cotton in the new crop year, beginning August 1, probably will be recommended by the cotton advisory committee now meeting at the board's offices.

With no word coming from today's session, it is not certain whether such a policy will be confined to foreign markets. A definite announcement is expected within a few days.

The board agreed last November to withhold its 1,300,000 bales of stabilization supplies and not call the obligations of the American Cotton Cooperative Association, which has 2,000,000 bales, until July 31, 1932. This action followed a pledge by southern bankers to make or renew loans for holding 3,500,000 bales of privately owned cotton.

The condition also was made by the board that its pledge would be extended until July, 1933, if substantial reductions were made in the crop now going into the ground. Official reports on the 1932 cotton acreage have not been received.

Chairman Stone has recommended that congress appropriate $10,000,000 to finance export sales of both wheat and cotton as a means of reducing the prospective large carryovers and thereby increase the growers' returns for the oncoming crops.

A cheerful helper is not enough—not if you are 'run-down' physically

"Mother, I do wish you were well and strong . . . you always look tired."

It isn't fair to expect one to like work or to be happy when in a "run-down" condition.

Ordinarily you don't need to go to bed or to a distant resort to regain your strength. Usually S.S.S. will do it right at home and while you are up and going.

If you require a tonic you should by all means try S.S.S.—this long established medicine acts by stimulating the secretions of the stomach . . . reviving the appetite . . . aiding digestion . . . regenerating hemoglobin . . . restoring the red-blood-cells—and builds greater resistance against infection and disease.

Try it yourself. Get S.S.S. from any drug store. In two sizes: regular and double—the latter is more economical and is sufficient for a two weeks' treatment. S.S.S. may be the means of bringing better health and happiness to you.

46 STATES WET IN DIGEST POLL

which three states register higher wet majorities.

The balance of the middle western states show a sentiment wetter than the southern group but considerably dryer than the northeastern section of the country.

The Rocky Mountain states show a collective vote slightly less wet than the country at large while the Pacific coast states gives a majority for repeal higher than the national ratio.

Thirty-three states and the District of Columbia return wet majorities in the final tabulation ranging from 2 to 1 to over 7 to 1 for repeal.

Six states, giving a return of between 40 to 50 per cent of their total votes for the continuance of prohibition, include Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Alabama, Mississippi, and South Carolina, ranked in the order of their greater dry sentiment.

Nine states, finally voting more than 4 to 1 wet, are Connecticut, Illinois, Louisiana, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island and Wisconsin.

The nine states voting over 3 to 1 wet in the final returns include California, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Mexico, North Dakota, Washington, and Wyoming.

The 15 states returning a 2 to 1 majority for prohibition are Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Kentucky, Maine, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Indiana, Missouri, and Arizona.

Nevada heads the wet column with 88.20 per cent of its final vote for repeal while Kansas, for some weeks during the poll the only dry state, heads the column for prohibition in the final vote.

The drys showed a continuous gain during the progress of the poll, the ratio for prohibition continuance increasing from 15.85 per cent of the total vote of the first week's returns to 26.49 per cent of the final vote.

The District of Columbia vote is over 3 to 1 wet.

The tenth and final tabulation in the 1930 Literary Digest prohibition poll giving three options on the ballot instead of two showed a total tabulation of 4,806,464 votes of which 1,464,098, or 30.46 per cent, were for strict enforcement while 1,399,314, or 29.11 per cent, were for modification to admit light wines and beers and 1,943,052, or 40.43 per cent were registered in favor of an outright repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

In the poll of two years ago, five states voted majorities for the eighteenth amendment while in the current poll only two states are reported dry.

In the 1930 poll, Kansas had a dry percentage of 57.67 while in the present referendum her prohibition majority is 50.23 per cent.

North Carolina voted 50.66 per cent dry in the poll of two years ago and 50.05 per cent in the current returns.

Arkansas voted 52.19 per cent dry in 1930 as against 47.76 per cent this year. Oklahoma's dry vote of 50.94 per cent two years ago is reduced to 45.47 per cent dry in 1932. Tennessee, voting 50.37 per cent for enforcement in 1930 now shows a final dry percentage of 48.54.

"In an unforgettable year of public anxiety, controversy and political ferment but also of courage and hope," the magazine will state editorially tomorrow, "The Literary Digest offers this prohibition poll to the nation as a rounded contribution to the sum of public knowledge concerning the under-currents of national opinion and sentiment on this vital issue.

"The poll now becomes history, a symmetrical edifice of statistical data built for the whole nation and not for any party or cause, we dedicate it simply and sincerely to service in the search for wisdom by public men in their councils and conventions, their legislatures and executive mansions, at this crisis of the nation's life.

"If our offering is nothing else, it is a reflection of one special aspect of truth, as faithfully garnered as we, with much experience and good-will, could do the job."

The Literary Digest points out a close parallel between the returns of this unofficial referendum and the national plebicite taken in Finland "whereby that country, last winter, abolished prohibition after trying it for 12 years."

A total of 772,901 votes were polled in the Finnish election of which 28.10 per cent voted in favor of retention of prohibition, 1.40 per cent favored modification and 70.50 per cent favored repeal of their prohibition laws, while the current Literary Digest poll shows 26.49 per cent of the ballots returned favoring the continuance and 73.51 per cent favoring the repeal of prohibition.

SENATE UPHOLDS BANKHEAD VICTORY

the attempt to reflect upon the integrity of the Alabama election in which Senator Bankhead was elected. It is manifest that there is not the slightest reason or excuse for the charges."

The report of its elections committee, which voted 9 to 8 to recognize Bankhead, was taken up by the senate last Thursday. The committee overturned the report of its subcommittee, headed by Hastings, democrat, Delaware, which voted 3 to 2 to declare the election void.

Hastings concluded the opposition to Bankhead today in a long address in which he compared the case to that involving William S. Vare, of Pennsylvania, and appealed to the senate to "apply the same rules below the Mason and Dixon line as above."

He contended there were widespread irregularities that nullified the election, listing improperly marked ballots, unsealed ballot boxes, and charged that the state's election laws were not observed.

Twenty-two republicans and one farmer-labor voted with 41 democrats to seat Bankhead. The 18 opposing votes were all republicans.

The vote was: For Bankhead, republicans, Barbour, Bingham, Blaine, Borah, Carey, Couzens, Dale, Davis, Fess, Goldsborough, Hale, Hatfield, Johnson, Jones, Kean, Keyes, La Follette, Norbeck, Oddie, Thomas of Idaho, Walcott and White—22.

Democrats—Ashurst, Bailey, Barkley, Black, Bratton, Broussard, Bulkley, Bulow, Byrnes, Caraway, Cohen, Connally, Coolidge, Copeland, Costigan, Dill, Fletcher, George, Glass, Gore, Harrison, Hawes, Hayden, Hull, Kendrick, King, Lewis, Logan, McGill, McKellar, Morrison, Neely, Pittman, Robinson of Arkansas, Sheppard, Stephens, Thomas of Oklahoma, Trammell, Trdings, Wagner and Walsh of Massachusetts—41.

Farmer-Labor—Shipstead—1.

Total 64.

Against Bankhead:

Republicans—Austin, Brookhart, Capper, Cutting, Dickinson, Frazier, Hastings, Hebert, McNary, Metcalf, Moses, Norris, Nye, Patterson, Reed, Robinson of Indiana, Shortridge and Steiwer—18.

Total 18.

Commenting on the senate's vote, Heflin said:

"It is a rank travesty on justice. It is a triumph for crooked and corrupt practices employed in an election for a Raskob democrat against a real democrat. It is a surrender by the democrats of the senate of the sacred principles so long loved and supported by democrats in and out of the senate. It marks a sad decline in democratic leadership and control.

"The failure to decide my contest on the law and facts will not in the least weaken my courage or impair my fighting spirit for clean and honest politics and clean and honest government."

Asked some time later if he planned to run again now for the senate, Heflin said he had no immediate plans in mind, except some lecture engagements.

"I am going to rest," he continued, "and work on my book, 'Courage and Cowardice in Congress.'"

INCREASE REPORTED IN CHURCH MEMBERS

WINNSBORO, S. C., April 28.—(AP)—The evangelistic conference of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the South was told today three times as many young people were brought into the church the last 12 months than during the preceding two years.

This statement was made by L. R. Neill, of Troy, Tenn., in summing up the reports of evangelical secretary of the denomination. He also reported a large increase in family worship and tithing.

TENSION MOUNTS IN FAR EAST CRISIS

Soviet Espionage System in Manchuria, China and Japan Is Charged.

TOKIO, April 28.—(UP)—Charges of a vast Russian espionage system in Manchuria, China and Japan, coupled with continued military activity against the Japanese in Manchuria, increased tension over the Far Eastern situation today.

At Kwangchengtze, in south central Manchuria, officials of the new Manchukuo government arrested several Russians and confiscated a radio set and documents which they said indicated soviet plotters had similar headquarters at Pogranitchnaya Mancholuli and elsewhere. The stations were in regular wireless communi a tion, they said, and were plotting a general outbreak on May 1.

Advices from Changchung said further examina tion of the arrests indicated secret radio stations in Harbin, Tokio and Osaka, as well as at Shanghai and other principal Chinese cities, with which high soviet officials contacted their agents and transmitted their reports to Habarovsk, Siberia.

Sixteen additional Russians, charged with plotting, were arrested at Harbin.

The foreign and war offices here said their latest investigation revealed communist youths from Habarovsk had dynamited the Japanese troop train in Manchuria recently, with a considerable loss of life.

An unconfirmed dispatch to the Tokio Asahi Shimeun from Antung said Guerillas had captured the town of Tunghua, east of Mukden near the Korean border, making prisoners of Japanese and occupying all public buildings.

CHILE MOVES TO BLOCK MAY DAY DISTURBANCE

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 28.—(AP) The government today mobilized the 18,000 carabineers of Chile for emergency duty this week-end to meet possible disorders during the May Day celebration of extremist groups.

This precaution was taken when extremist labor leaders called a workers' mass meeting and a May Day general strike for next Monday.

BY JOHN L. COONEY.

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Stocks reversed themselves today, interrupting the mild upward trend apparent in previous markets this week.

Until the last hour prices managed to hold within easy hailing distance of the previous close, but a break in wheat finally upset the equilibrium and final prices showed an average loss that represented cancellation of gains made Tuesday and Wednesday. Second-grade railroad bonds had a flimsy market, which may have exerted some influence, while inability of carrier equities to maintain their slow advance doubtless damped sentiment.

American Can, Case and American Telephone yielded 2 to 3. United States Steel, du Pont and Westinghouse gave up 1 to 1 1-2. Sales totaled 924,700 shares.

Imminence of the Bethlehem Steel meeting was hardly regarded as a market factor, since a deficit was taken as a matter of course and declaration of the regular preferred dividend seemed assured.

Another week goes by without a cut in the New York rediscount rate, but there has been no change in the policy of controlled credit expansion. Today's bank statement showed that government security holdings of the reserve system had increased $113,000,000, making the recent weekly average increment about $100,000,000.

March railroad earnings, reports on which are now nearly complete, disclose a decline of close to 30 per cent from a year ago, although this is an improvement over the average comparison for 1931 with 1930 and also a better showing than was made in the first quarter. Operating economies, chiefly the wage cut, appear to have been responsible in the main.

Money was abundantly plentiful, with call funds again available as low as 1 per cent in the outside market.

Foreign Markets

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

LONDON—Trading was quiet and irregular although better reports from Wall Street helped American issues. Gilt-edged securities benefitted by cheaper money but others declined. Royal Dutch shares recovered on denial of Sir Henri Deterding's retirement as director general of Royal Dutch. Argentine rails were weak on dividend fears. The closing was undecided.

PARIS—Heavy selling of Royal Dutch shares by foreign holders forced a general decline on the bourse and the closing was heavy.

BERLIN—The upward movement of prices continued on the boerse today, although the closing was hesitant.

BETHLEHEM DECLARES PREFERRED DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Bethlehem Steel Corporation today declared the regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 a share on the preferred stock. The common dividend was omitted three months ago.

The company had an operating deficit, after interest charges and depletion and depreciation allowance, of $3,685,769 in the first quarter, compared with a loss of $1,776,938 in the last quarter of 1931 and net income of $1,941,942, equal to 6 cents a share on the common, in the first three months of 1931.

The corporation's first quarter income before charges was $1,431,657, compared with earnings of $3,485,700 three months ago and $7,551,977 a year ago.

Operations averaged 23.4 per cent of capacity in the first 1932 quarter against 30 per cent during the fourth quarter last year and 50.8 per cent in the first three months of 1931.

Orders on hand March 31 were valued at $35,372,318 against $41,514,877 on December 31 and $65,803,609 on March 31, 1931.

The preferred dividend is payable July 1 to stock of record June 3.

Bethlehem omitted its common dividend in January of this year.

Eugene G. Grace, president, said in regard to present business prospects: "It appears that the downward trend has been decidedly checked, and that business now is practically stationary. I don't like the term 'hitting the bottom,' but it appears at the moment that business is no longer falling."

New business and operations this month, he explained, were at about the same rate as in March. "Prices are holding very well. In fact, this is one of the encouraging features in the present situation."

Chevrolet Distributes 200 Cars Here Today

More than 200 Georgia Chevrolet dealers will be in Atlanta today to celebrate the largest "drive-away" of Chevrolet cars ever staged in the south, it was announced Thursday by C. G. Smith, zone manager, and L. S. Costley, regional manager of the Chevrolet plant. Early this afternoon 200 new Chevrolet automobiles will be driven from the Atlanta plant to various dealers in the state.

Preceding the "drive-away," the dealers will assemble at the Atlanta plant for a barbecue, at which Mayor James L. Key and Chief of Police James L. Beavers will be guests of honor. After the barbecue, the cars will be driven from the local plant and will form in parade formation and be driven through the downtown section, thence on out the various highways to their respective destinations.

In announcing the "drive-away" plans, Mr. Smith estimated that the 200 cars to be handled by Georgia dealers will represent 1,420 days' work for one man, which, he pointed out, will help the employment situation generally.

OPERA CHORUS GIRL IS SHOT BY WAITER

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—An 18-year-old Metropolitan Opera chorus girl, Geraldine Bernstein, was shot in the shoulder today as she rode in a taxicab with Charles Del Rio, unemployed waiter, who then shot himself in the head. Police said the shooting was the climax of a "lovers' quarrel."

Del Rio was reported in critical condition at the Lenox Hill hospital. Miss Bernstein's condition was "fair."

Miscellaneous Markets.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Some slight increase in inquiry was reported today for unfinished cotton goods. Finished lines are selling in moderate volume.

Silks are slow, most of the buying being in small lots. Low luster acetate rayon yarns are selling, silk manufacturers being especially interested. Wool goods are very quiet and production is sharply curtailed. Burlaps were quiet. Women's wear worsteds for fall will be opened in the next 15 days by a number of concerns.

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON.

Atlanta spot cotton closed steady, 5 points down at 6.00. Receipts, 4; shipments, 737; stocks, 166,795.

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—A somewhat irregular opening was followed by a gradual decline in cotton today, with selling becoming a little more active in the last hour owing to the weakness of the grain and stock markets.

July contracts closed at 6.12 with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 10 to 12 points. The opening was steady at an advance of 1 point to a decline of 1 point.

Eight May notices were reported in circulation. Prices worked slowly lower under scattered selling promoted by the action of the wheat and stock markets.

Near the close the sagging tendency of the market seemed to bring in additional selling which sent May off to 5.98 and October to 6.35, or 9 to 12 points net lower.

Reports from the southwest indicated a continued firm spot situation.

Liverpool cables reported local liquidation and hedging with a limited offtake in that market. Exports today 21,272, making 7,428,887 so far this season. Port receipts, 7,237. U. S. port stocks, 4,129,458.

COTTON PRICES DROP IN NEW ORLEANS MARKET

NEW ORLEANS, April 28.—(AP) The cotton market was rather dull today, particularly during the first half of the session. Prices moved slowly downward owing to weakness in stocks and grain and lack of support as traders were disposed to await the action of the farm board meeting today. Prices made the lows for the day right at the end, 12 points below the highs. The close was at the bottom, with the general market showing net declines for the day of 13 to 14 points.

The market opened dull, with no trades at the call. Liverpool came in 3 to 5 penny points worse than due.

Liverpool is due tomorrow on New Orleans, 4 to 5 penny points down.

Port receipts 7,237; for week 76,265; season 9,444,106; last season 8,694,367. Exports 18,572; for week 77,024; season 7,283,253; last season, 5,827,883. Port stock 4,173,132; last year 3,562,220. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 127,663; last year 82,549. Spot sales at southern markets 6,557; last year 4,479.

Sugar, Coffee, Rice.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Raw sugar was unchanged today at 2.63 for spots with no sales reported.

Early steadiness in futures which carried active positions 1 to 2 points net higher were lost later with the market closing net unchanged on all positions except September which was 1 point lower.

Day's transactions were only 3,950 tons.

Early steadiness was due to covering and trade buying against recent sales in the spot market. There were no May notices issued. May closed .58, July .67, September .73, December .80, January .82 and March .87.

Refined sugar was unchanged at 3.90 for fine granulated.

COFFEE.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Coffee rallied from an easier opening after May notices had been stopped and short covering and Brazilian buying came into the market.

No. 7 contracts opened 2 lower and closed unchanged to 7 higher. Sales 14,000. Santos opened unchanged to 4 lower and closed 10 to 13 higher. Sales 20,000. Brokers' Views

Stock Letters.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

NEW YORK, April 28—Washington developments cast a damper on today's market with government economy plans meeting a check in the house. The selling side was sufficiently favored to force a retracement of the bulk of recent gains, though it remains noticeable activity shows no appreciable inclination to follow prices down.

Weakness appearing in the speculative section of the railroad bond market appeared principally responsible for today's less encouraging performance of the carrier group. In view of the prevalent tendency to stress rail share action as a possible clue to general markets trading movements some further irregularity may be anticipated. We would look for renewal of support, however, on additional recessions and development of another trading rally out of such further reaction.

COURTS & CO.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The volume of trading is still very limited, but the market has been reactionary throughout the day, with special heaviness perhaps in the rails. The main adverse influence is the chaotic condition which seems to prevail in congress. There is a lack of effective leadership. All the members are irritated and frightened over prevailing conditions and inclined to be erratic and radical rather than constructive.

The heaviness in the rails is disappointing as a good many made somewhat better showing in net earnings for March, but when one or two rails are weak, as was the case today, it affects the entire list.

BEER & CO.

NEW YORK, April 28.—After some early attempts to extend yesterday's rally, liquidating breaking out in a few issues gradually spread pretty much over the entire list and the tone at the close was heavy.

There seems as yet no basis to indicate that there is any need for haste in making long pull commitments.

DOBBS & CO.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The selling which came into the stock market this afternoon appeared to be liquidation from institutions. It was quite general in character and resulted in substantial net losses throughout the list.

Once more it is liquidation that is dominating the market, and the course of prices for the near future probably depends upon whether or not it continues.

The commodity markets were distinctly weak, notably wheat, and contributed their influence to the generally reactionary tendencies.

LIVINGSTON & CO.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The reversal of the stock market tendency today more than cancelled yesterday's gains and brought the Dow-Jones closing average of industrials to a new record low. There was no news of special bearish significance, though the usual crop of rumors which accompany a decline were in evidence.

Evidently little hope was entertained for a reduction in the New York bank after the close. Should this, afte rall, occur there might be a sharp reversal tomorrow, but improvement cannot be long sustained until political influences are more constructive. Some of the special weakness today was in stocks mentioned or whose sponsors were mentioned in the recent testimony in connection with the senate investigation. Not unnaturally, there may be some nervousness in pool quarters.

Cotton Letters.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The market displayed a steady tone during the early part of the session, but later gradually worked lower with final quotations at the lowest for the day and 11 to 12 under the previous close. There was moderate price-fixing on the part of domestic spinners. Houses with far eastern connections were credited with buying on balance. There was also some demand from a house frequently handling business for co-operatives for distant months. Spot houses continued to buy May by way of transferring short hedges in that month to later deliveries.

Developments at Washington, including deliberations of the advisory council of the federal farm board, are not calculated to stimulate buying for either trade or speculative account, and for the present we would confine purchases to easy periods.

LIVINGSTON & CO.

NEW YORK, April 28.—There was a reversal of trend in today's market, influenced largely by the decline in the stock and grain markets. There was no pressure of consequence, but the demand was light and prices receded under limited offerings. The demand was doubtless restricted by a desire on the part of the trade to await the outcome of the discussion regarding the marketing policies of the farm board holdings of cotton.

DOBBS & CO.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Trading today was exceedingly small as a waiting attitude prevailed, pending the outcome of meeting of advisory committee of the farm board to determine a policy of disposition of government holding.

A little scattered liquidation appeared on ticker statements referring to the above while declines in the grain market also encouraged local selling.

On the whole, the market maintained a steady undertone. Notices for 800 bales were issued today and were apparently promptly stopped. It is thought that while spot interests lost some part of their actual cotton on first notice day, they have acquired sufficient May contracts to practically offset this loss.

BEER & CO.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28.—With lower Liverpool cables than due and heaviness in the stock market, the local cotton market opened 2 to 3 points off and continued downward during the morning, being about 10 points down from previous close by noon. A somewhat better demand for dry goods is reported in Worth Street, most of the buying coming from the bag trade.

The outlook for the crop at this time cannot be said to be as promising as it was last year. Many things can happen between now and June, and cool, rainy weather will not be good for the crop. This is the kind of weather predicted by the official forecast. The market continued quiet and soft in the final hour and closed with net loss of 13 points.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

NEW YORK, April 28.—After the usual price-fixing by the trade this morning, the market developed a slightly easier tone which was particularly noticeable after the strength of yesterday. Reports of rains scattered in various areas of Texas were looked upon as very favorable. We also had in the market today the influence of the wheat and security markets, which eased off from yesterday's high price.

We are 4 to 5 points from the old low established several weeks ago and from the action of the market today we would be inclined to feel that this old low point will be severely tested, but we repeat again that users of cotton would do well to take advantage of these setbacks on which to accumulate cotton continually.

Grain Letters.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Continued rains in the southwest brought claims of wonderful improvement in crop prospects and increased estimates of the probable yield for Kansas ranging as high as 140,000,000 bushels brought general liquidation and much lower prices, the entire advance which followed the April government report being more than eliminated.

Liquidation has been so severe that the market is in shape to respond easily to any improvement in demand, but this is not indicated at the moment, although the seaboard reported a million bushels sold for export on the break.

CHICAGO, April 28.—(AP)—Big breaks in grain prices today followed heavy downpours in drouth areas of wheat territory.

It was estimated by some unofficial authorities that as a consequence of moisture relief, the United States 1932 wheat yield would be 100,000,000 bushels or more in excess of the latest government forecast.

Corn collapsing with wheat reached the bottommost quotations since 1898 and hogs the lowest since 1899. Rye outdid the present season's low price record. Wheat took a maximum drop of 3 1-4 cents a bushel.

Wheat closed shaky, 2 5-8 under yesterday's finish; corn 1 1-2 to 1 7-8 down; oats 5-8 to 7-8 off and provisions showing 10 to 20 cents decline.

Corn, oats and rye imitated the action of wheat. A better shipping demand here for corn was more than offset by large rural sales of corn to arrive in Chicago.

Provisions went lower, influenced by downturns of hog values and of grain.

Highlights of Wall Street

BY CHARLES W. STORM, Editor, the News Service of Wall Street.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Following the establishment of some new low levels for stocks and second-grade railroad bonds, Eugene G. Grace, president of Bethlehem Steel Corporation, stated that "for the first time in a long while I can take some encouragement in the fact that the tendency downward seems to have been checked."

Considering that Mr. Grace has not made an optimistic statement on the steel industry in many months, today's utterance was considered significant in the financial district.

The steel industry always has been considered a good index to general business conditions, so that the checking of the decline in that section of industrial activity might be regarded as the forerunner to the end of contraction in general trade and industry.

In keeping with this new tone of optimism, the Bethlehem Steel Corporation declared the regular quarterly dividend on the preferred stock.

A sharp break in the price of wheat contributed to the unsettlement which prevailed in the stock market, but the chief depressing influence was the continued offerings of second-grade railroad bonds at the expense of prices.

Accompanying these offerings of bonds was a rumor that the affairs of one large system were about to be placed in the hands of the courts. This, however, is hard to believe in view of the work being done by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

PAST FAVORITES HIT.

Some speculative favorites which have astounded the street with their strength and ability to advance in the face of a declining market again came in for considerable selling and heaviness. Most notable was Auburn Auto, which suffered another sharp break and touched a new low.

Alaska Juneau, which throughout the bear market has been a speculative favorite and seemed to possess the strength to rise in the face of a generally declining market, was subjected to selling pressure today, declining to a new low for this year.

ONE KILLED, ONE SHOT BY OKLAHOMA POLICE

SPIRO, Okla., April 28.—(AP)—One unidentified gunman was killed and another was wounded in a gun battle with officers at the Kansas City Southern railroad station here early today. The slain man's companion, wounded in the back, escaped.

Cliff Hudson, Le Flore county deputy sheriff, and Charles Tobler, Spiro, night marshal, went to the station to locate two men suspected of firing on a Crawford county officer Sunday night.

Two men entered the station by the west door of the station and when they saw Hudson started firing. Hudson returned the fire, and his first shot felled the man in front with a wound in the chest. The second man turned and attempted to flee, but found the door guarded by Tobler. The gunman fired four times at the officer, missed, and fled when his gun jammed. Tobler shot the fugitive in the back, but the latter escaped in the darkness.

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—While high-grade corporate issues maintained a relatively steady tone, a sharp drop in speculative railway liens dragged the bond market average down today.

Trading volume slowed in the decline, sales totalling $9,142,000 and the average for 60 principal loans lost seven-tenths of a point. This average is now within six-tenths of a point of the year's low level.

In spite of slightly better carloading reports and substantial assistance rendered the various railways by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, holders of the lower-priced transportation loans apparently grew discouraged and, in the last hour of trading, many of them decided to "get from under."

The result was that the average for 20 selected railway bonds declined 1 8-10 points. Among the roads whose bonds gave up from 1 to around 6 points were Chesapeake & Ohio, Louisville & Nashville, Southern Pacific and Southern.

The utilities and industrials, while easing in many cases, displayed a much firmer undertone than the carriers.

The foreign section was quiet.

PRICES ERRATIC IN CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—A flurry of selling appeared in the curb market today, but was met with fairly good resistance. Most leading stocks closed irregularly lower. Sales totaled 140,000 shares.

Publication of additional earnings statements for March by utility companies disclosed a fairly sharp shrinkage in gross. Price changes were highly erratic.

Georgia Power Company's March report registered a modest loss in gross earnings, but the balance after taxes was $33,000 higher than in March, 1931.

While this was accepted as an indication that operating economies were offsetting a slight down trend in gross business, the company's preferred stock reacted 2 points on a small sale.

Standard Oil of Kentucky lost fractionally. Gulf Oil was off 1 point. Ford of Canada B moved up 1 point and Ford Limited was unchanged.

Ex-Alderman Turner Is Freed on Probation

Dr. J. E. Turner, former alderman who was sentenced to serve 12 months for bribery, Thursday won freedom from the Fulton county chain gang on an order of probation signed by Judge Virlyn B. Moore and approved by the state prison commission on the recommendation of G. Allen Maddox, probation officer. Turner had served more than six months.

Dr. Turner's probation was ordered because he is ill with organic heart trouble, complicated by other ailments, it was said. He had been serving his term at River camp. The charge against Dr. Turner involved alleged acceptance of an automobile from the Federal Motor Truck Sales Corporation for his influence in obtaining an order for repair of 10 city trucks.

Second Stay Granted To C. L. King by Court

Clyde L. King, Atlanta manufacturers under sentence to serve a year and a day in the penitentiary and pay a fine of $5,000 plus court costs on a plea of guilty to evading the federal income tax, Thursday was granted a second stay of 30 days in the execution of his sentence.

The order, allowing more time to put his affairs in order, was received in the federal clerk's office from Augusta where it was signed by Judge William Barrett. King immediately renewed his bond and will not begin service until May 30. It was stated in the district attorney's office that he will serve his sentence at Chillicothe, Ohio.

D. A. V. TO SPONSOR SALE OF PLAQUES BY JOBLESS MEN

In an effort to aid unemployed men in Atlanta, the Betty Harrison Jones chapter of the Disabled Veterans of the World War today will sponsor the public sale of replicas of a George Washington memorial plaque, it was announced by officers of the chapter.

The plaque, an exact reproduction of a wood carving executed by S. J. Schlappich from a famous portrait of the United States' first president, is to be offered to the public at $1.50 a copy, the salesmen being drafted from the ranks of Atlanta's unemployed men. A proportion of the sale price will be given to each salesman. The plan of employing jobless men as salesmen for the plaque was launched in West Palm Beach, Fla., with the result that a copy of it has been placed in every school room in Palm Beach county, and the idea has spread to 14 southern states, it was said.

The plaque has been approved by Sol Bloom, New York congressman and national head of the Washington bi-centennial committee, it was said.

NORRIS IS HONORED BY HARDWARE GROUP

R. A. Norris, of Covington, Ga., was elected president of the Southeastern Retail and Hardware Implement Association at its annual convention in Memphis. The association met with the hardware retailers of Arkansas and Mississippi in the Tennessee city.

R. A. NORRIS.

Charles A. Collier, of Atlanta, vice president of the Georgia Power Company, proposed formation of a board of arbitration to determine the truth of charges made that utilities companies are "restraining trade" in handling merchandise formerly sold only by hardware dealers. Mr. Collier pointed out he had formed a similar board in the east which was instrumental in settling differences between electrical contractors and dealers.

C. H. EWING ELEVATED TO READING PRESIDENCY

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—(AP)—Charles H. Ewing, vice president of the Reading Company, today was elected president. He succeeds the late Agnew T. Dice, who died suddenly on March 25.

New Rail Directors.

TOPEKA, April 28.—(AP)—Four members of the board of directors were re-elected at the annual meeting of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company stockholders here today. Those re-elected, S. T. Bledsoe, James G. Harboard and Myer Hurley, all of New York, and Warren E. Brown, Wichita, Kan.

DETERDING DENIES INTENTION TO QUIT

LONDON, April 28.—(AP)—Sir Henri Deterding said today that he has no intention of retiring as director-general of the Royal Dutch Petroleum Company for another 20 years.

His statement was in answer to a report current on the continent that he was leaving his post.

Wall Street Briefs.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Wall Street heard today that Jesse Lasky, vice president of the Paramount Publix Corporation in charge of production, who has taken a three-month leave of absence, may eventually become associated with the Fox Film Corporation, headed by Sidney R. Kent, a former Paramount Publix vice president. The studio and film production departments of Paramount are now in charge of Vice President Emanuel Cohen, it is understood.

The New York Stock Exchange, it became known today, has tightened its requirements for reports on charges in collateral securing listed bonds, and corporations henceforth agree to notify the exchange immediately of any change or removal of collateral deposited under any of its mortgage or trust indentures under which listed securities are outstanding. The new rule is believed to have been inspired by the situations revealed recently in the collateral behind the 5 per cent debentures of the Kreuger & Toll Company.

MAN IS FOUND SHOT IN DOWNTOWN HOTEL

Despite the wound of a bullet which went through his body in the region of the heart, William S. McLeod, 45, of 673 Kennesaw avenue, N. E., has a fighting chance to recover, according to doctors at Grady hospital, where he was taken Thursday afternoon from a downtown hotel, where the shooting took place.

Attracted by the sound of a shot, employes of the hotel found McLeod unconscious and a note said to have been written by the wounded man, asking that his sister, Mrs. W. C. Powell, be notified and giving hospital directions.

McLeod, who was registered as J. P. Adams, was believed by police to have shot himself in a fit of despondency over financial affairs.

FOUR UNDER ARREST AFTER NARCOTIC HUNT

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 28.—(AP)—A paroled convict and his three companions were arrested and a quantity of mixed narcotics was seized by federal officers on a highway near here today after a chase of several miles ended when the quartet's car was wrecked.

The officers said one of the four who gave his name as Martin Smoot was Martin Schmuck, notorious ex-convict on parole from the state penitentiary. The others said they were J. J. Harris, W. T. Parks, alias "Doddie," and E. T. Mulvey, all of Birmingham.

Rate Unchanged.

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—The New York Federal Reserve bank made no announcement today regarding a change in the rediscount rate of 3 per cent.

STEEL LEADERS DENY HUGE MERGER RUMOR

CLEVELAND, April 28.—(AP)—Prominent figures in the steel industry professed to be mystified today by reported negotiations for a billion-dollar merger involving five of the country's largest steel companies.

The negotiations were reported in the Washington Post as having been brought to the attention of the department of justice.

The Post said the merger was tentatively outlined by representatives of Cyrus S. Eaton, of Cleveland, who two years ago defeated a proposed merger of Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company with the Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

Companies involved in the new negotiations, according to the Post's information, are Sheet and Tube, the Republic Steel Corporation, the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation, Inland Steel Corporation and the American Rolling Mills Company.

Persons close to Eaton said last night, however, that they knew nothing of any such plans. A similar statement was given by Henry G. Dalton, Chairman of Sheet and Tube.

A merger, such as described by the Post, would create a steel concern with an ingot capacity of approximately 16,000,000 tons a year—second in size only to the United States Steel Corporation.

Interest of the department of justice, the newspaper said, was confined principally to the fact that the merger would organize almost all of the steel industry into three big groups, the third being Bethlehem.

EATON DENIES REPORT; WILL SEEK INQUIRY

CLEVELAND, April 28.—(AP)—Cyrus S. Eaton, of Cleveland, today denied rumors of a proposed five-party steel merger. He said he would ask the department of justice to inquire into the source of a report that an Eaton representative had asked the department to rule on the legality of a merger.

NO FEDERAL INQUIRY PLANNED, SAYS OFFICIAL

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—A report published here that proposals for a merger of five steel companies had been laid before the department of justice were pronounced "wholly without foundation" today by John Lord O'Brian, assistant attorney-general.

"The department of justice has not been consulted on the matter and it is not before the department in any form," he said.

MERGER PLAN DENIED BY JONES & LAUGHLIN

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(AP)—Officials of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation denied emphatically today that their company is interested in a merger with other steel concerns. "The present rumor contains no more truth than have those of the past," officials of the firm said.

ATLANTIC COAST LINE EARNINGS SHOW DROP

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 28.—(AP)—The net railway operating income for the Atlantic Coast Line last month totaled $389,663, compared with $1,603,230 for March, 1931.

These figures were released yesterday in the monthly financial statement of the system. It showed operating revenues of $4,336,522 last month compared $6,755,090 for March, 1931.

Other Rail Earnings.

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Railroads reporting today for March showed net railway operating income with 1931 comparisons as follows:

Louisville and Nashville, 1932, $708,048; 1931, $1,076,772.

Atlantic Coast Line, 1932, $389,663; 1931, $1,603,230.

Tennessee Central, 1932, $17,874; 1931, $12,693.

Norfolk Southern, (x), 1932, $47,177; 1931, $22,496.

National Steel Corporation.

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—National Steel Corporation covered its dividend requirement by a small margin in the first quarter of this year. Reporting for that period today, the corporation showed net income of $592,799, equal to 27 cents a share. The stock is now on a $1 annual basis. A year ago net income was $1,926,000, or 89 cents a share.

COMMITTEES RENAMED BY EPISCOPAL DIOCESE

Savannah Chosen Next Meeting Place as Augusta Convention Ends.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—The Episcopal diocese of Georgia selected Savannah for its next meeting place to be held on February 12, at which time the celebration of the bicentennial of the founding of Georgia will be under way.

Appropriately enough, the sessions will be held in Christ church, in Savannah, which was founded on the same day the state was established.

At the concluding session of its meeting here, the diocese re-elected all diocesan committees. The Rev. Francis H. Craighill, Waycross; the Rev. C. C. J. Carpenter, Savannah; the Rev. H. H. Barber, Augusta; the Rev. John B. Walthour, Waycross; Bayard Culley, Augusta, and duBignon Parker, Brunswick, were chosen as delegates to the provincial synod to be held in North Carolina next September.

G. M. Jones, Augusta; Roy E. Breen, Brunswick, and the Rev. S. B. McGlohon, Savannah, were named trustees of the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn.

Mrs. F. B. Scriven, of Savannah, was re-elected president of the Woman's auxiliary, which selected Mrs. Asbury Hull, of Augusta, and Mrs. F. H. Craighill, of Waycross, as its delegates to the provincial synod.

Mrs. T. H. Tickner, Albany; Mrs. F. L. Marshall, Augusta; Mrs. A. C. Hartridge, Brunswick, and Mrs. N. B. Wright, Savannah, were named vice presidents. Mrs. F. H. Craighill was elected secrtary; Mrs. P. A. Barr, Savannah, treasurer.

Business sessions of the convention here began at 9:30 a. m. Thursday and adjournment was in order after luncheon.

The following committees were announced with the bishop a member of each: On claims to seats, the Rev. F. Craighill, H. duBignon Parker, J. S. Bond. Admission of new parishes: The Rev. H. Scott Smith, H. H. Williams. State of the church: Dr. James Lawrence, the Rev. Jackson Harris, the Rev. D. C. Wright, the Rev. Harry Cobey, the Rev. Charles Lee. Constitution and canons: The Rev. Davis Wright, the Rev. Royal Tucker, H. D. Williams, M. Ridgely. Missions: The Rev. Hobart H. Barker, the Rev. Robb White, the Rev. F. Cousons, the Rev. F. J. Wilson, Roy Breen, E. C. B. Danforth, H. duBignon Parker. Unfinished business: The Rev. J. C. Skottowe, S. K. Ward, F. W. Batten. Corporations: The Rev. Charles C. J. Carpenter, the Rev. Joseph Burton, the Rev. H. Cobey, Fred Powers, Richard Everettt. Finance: Sullivan Bond, F. D. Aiken, J. R. Anderson, Bayard Culley, Abram Read. Memorials: The Rev. L. B. McGlohon, the Rev. J. J. Cornish, M. Pamphlin.

W.H.FOSTER RE-ELECTED ROME C.OF C.SECRETARY

ROME, Ga., April 28.—Wyatt H. Foster was re-elected secretary of the chamber of commerce at a meeting of the board of directors Thursday and Miss Susie Burkhalter was also reappointed assistant secretary.

Mr. Foster received a cut of $900 to $2,700 per year in salary, while Miss Burkhalter received a cut of from $900 to $720.

Sidney and Mary Lanier Romance Memorialized

MACON, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—The romance of Sidney and Mary Day Lanier was memorialized Thursday when a silver gray marble love seat, placed by the Macon History Club on the green elevation of Washington park, overlooked by Wesleyan conservatory, was presented to the city by the club.

On this spot Sidney Lanier, Macon's poet-soldier, courted Mary Day while she was a student at Wesleyan and later married her. Mrs. Lanier died a few months ago.

The marble seat is the culmination of the history club's efforts over a period of 20 years, begun with Mrs. A. W. Lane, as the first president. School children of Bibb county gave most of the funds with which the seat was purchased.

BIBB EDUCATION BODY TO MAINTAIN SALARIES

MACON, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—There will be no reduction in the salaries of Bibb county teachers during the 1932-33 session.

On the other hand, the county board of education Thursday afternoon voted to carry out its promise of a year ago to provide normal increases to teachers whose work during the session has been outstanding.

The board last year unanimously voted to displace the old system of automatic increases with the "merit plan."

The board of education voted this afternoon to ask the board of county commissioners to provide funds for a 1932-33 budget of $450,000.

The total is $16,000 less than the 1931-32 budget.

The board of education figures it will maintain the salaries of the teachers; provide for the carrying out of the "merit plan;" take care of the normal increase in students, said to be about 300; assume the burden of another school in Ingleside; and maintain the general efficiency of the system.

FARMER FOUND DEAD IN HOME AT SUWANEE

SUWANEE, Ga., April 28.—Gid Little, 25, farmer, residing here, was found dead in his home about 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. There was a shotgun wound in his chest and doctors said it was probably inflicted Tuesday night. A coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death at the "hands of unknown parties."

Little is survived by his wife; one son, William, age 2; his mother, Mrs. Bertha Little; three brothers, Glenn, Winfred and Willard; a sister, Vivian, all of Suwanee, and a sister, Mrs. J. C. Tiller, of Atlanta.

CHURCHWOMEN LAUD PROHIBITION LAWS

MACON, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—Resolutions in which it is stated that legalized liquor in any form "would fill our highways with broken bodies," and that war "is a curse equal to that of slavery and the saloon" were adopted by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Macon district of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, here Thursday.

About 250 women from 37 churches, representing an organization of 1,600 members, attended the meeting in the First Street Methodist church.

CONVENTION OPENED BY ART ASSOCIATION

Athens School Head Welcomes Delegates Representing Nine States.

ATHENS, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—The Southeastern Art Association opened its annual convention here Thursday with delegates in attendance from nine states.

B. M. Grier, superintendent of the Athens schools, delivered the address of welcome. A tea was given in the afternoon by Mrs. Walter T. Forbes at the studio of her sister, the late Miss Lucy Stanton, famed painter of miniatures. Miss Laura Blackshear, president of the Athens Art Association, spoke in appreciation of Miss Stanton at the tea.

A welcome program was given Thursday night at the university chapel with greetings being extended by Dr. S. V. Sanford, president of the university; Dr. Jere M. Pound, president of the State Teachers College, and Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the State College of Agriculture. Mrs. Margarette Morris appeared in a concert.

Miss Louise Teesen, of Chicago, illustrator and writer, spoke on "What the Industrial Age Is Doing for Art."

DR. D. P. NASH 81, DIES NEAR LOVEJOY

LOVEJOY, Ga., April 28.—Dr. D. P. Nash, widely known physician of Henry and Clayton counties, died Thursday morning at his home near Lovejoy after a brief illness. He was 81 years old.

Educated at the University of Louisville, and at Vanderbilt University, where he specialized, Dr. Nash had practiced his profession in two counties for more than 50 years. He was a leader in all community affairs, and was one of the most prominent members of the County Line Congregational Methodist church, where the funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Interment will be in the churchyard.

Dr. Nash was particularly interested in the church and in the schools and was responsible for much of the growth and affluence reached by the county schools near his home. He was not married.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. L. E. Butler, of Lovejoy; 13 nieces, 14 nephews and nearly 100 grandnieces and nephews.

MACONITES TO FORM TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE

MACON, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—The Macon real estate board will sponsor the organization of taxpayers' leagues in Cuthbert May 7 and in Montezuma May 10, it was decided at the semi-monthly meeting of the board at Christ church parish house Thursday afternoon. Approximately 20 members of the board will go to the two cities to assist in the organization work.

EMMETT HOUSER ILL AT BRUNSWICK HOME

MACON, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—Emmett Houser, lawyer, former clerk of courts of Peach county, former legislator, is critically ill at Brunswick, Ga., his friends here were informed Thursday. When he was in the lower house he fathered the bill creating Peach county.

NEWTON TO ADDRESS STATE LIONS CLUBS

WAYCROSS, Ga., April 28.—Ralph Newton, superintendent of the Waycross city schools and chairman of the legislative committee of the Georgia Education Association, has been invited to address the Georgia state convention of Lions Clubs in Savannah June 7.

Mr. Newton will speak on "Georgia's Educational Needs." His address on the same subject before the Waycross club is being distributed by the Waycross Lions to every Lions club in Georgia.

CONVICT IS KILLED AS TRUCK OVERTURNS

ABBEVILLE, Ga., April 28.—(AP) One of the county trucks carrying 16 convicts and three white men laborers turned over one mile west of Abbeville on the Rochelle road this morning killing one negro, Bug Lee Greene, of Bibb county. He was serving a five-year term for killing another negro. Other occupants of the truck were slightly hurt.

Georgia News Told in Brief

Port News.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—Arrived: City of Montgomery, Boston and New York; Fairfax, Baltimore.

Sailed: Lasbek (German), Cuba; Phemius (British), Cristobal; Delilian (British), Jacksonville.

Blinded by Lime.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., April 28.—Lewis Collier, cadet captain in Gordon College R. O. T. C., son of Mrs. L. A. Collier, prominent club woman of Georgia, was severely injured Tuesday afternoon at the municipal tennis courts in Barnesville, when a sack of lime emptied with such force that his eyes were filled. The young man was carried to his home and given medical attention immediately. Doctors state that though his injuries are very painful the chances are that his sight will not be impaired.

W. M. U. Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Ga., April 28.—Three hundred delegates and visitors attended the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Georgia association at Clarke's Station church in northwest Wilkes Tuesday. They heard addresses by Mrs. Benjamin Thompson, state president; Miss Hughes, of Danielsville, divisional vice president, and the Rev. W. T. Evans, of the Washington Baptist church, and named Mrs. H. C. Spratlin, of Washington, to head the union for the year.

Registration Limit Fixed.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 28.—Jesse J. Gainey, one of the Thomas county registrars, states that citizens who wish to vote in the primary election to be held in this county June 15 must be registered by May 7, on which day the registration books will close. Registration by that date is also necessary in order to be eligible to vote in the general election next November.

Faculty Re-elected.

McDONOUGH, Ga., April 28.—All members of the faculty of the Hampton Junior High school have been re-elected, it was announced here Thursday. The teachers are L. H. Davis, superintendent; H. W. Fortson, principal; Miss Nellieree Maddox and Miss Miriam Henderson, high school department; Mrs. L. H. Davis, sixth grade; Miss Annis Rowan, fifth grade; Miss Bess Rowan, fourth grade; Mrs. Joe Rowan, third grade; Mrs. Floyd Hand, second grade; Mrs. Herbert Fortson, first grade.

Fire Destroys Lumber.

VALDOSTA, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—Fire which was extinguished after a two-hour battle Thursday destroyed 40,000 feet of lumber and a dry kiln at the Georgia Lumber and Supply Company here. For a time the blaze threatened to spread, but firemen succeeded in confining it to the kiln. The owners did not estimate the damage.

Half-Holidays Declared.

SPARTA, Ga., April 28.—A petition has been signed by the merchants and businessmen of this city to close their places of business for a half-holiday each Thursday, beginning May 5 and running through the last Thursday in August.

MRS. J. B. STRONG.

NEWNAN, Ga., April 28.—Mrs. J. B. Strong died at her home here Wednesday night following a lingering illness of three years. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from the Providence church, at Welcome, and interment was in the church cemetery. The Rev. R. C. Young, pastor of the Central Baptist church here, of which Mrs. Strong was a member, officiated.

Born and reared in Bedford county, Virginia, Mrs. Strong who was 85 years of age, came to Coweta county while still a young girl. Before her marriage she was Miss Fanny Snow. She is survived by three children, Mrs. J. H. Jackson, of Corinth, Miss.; Miss Xemina Strong, of Newnan, and G. N. Strong, of Newnan; a sister, Mrs. Emily Parker Morrow, of Valdosta; 12 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

STERLING P. THORNTON.

SUWANEE, Ga., April 28.—Funeral services for Sterling Price Thornton were held from the Suwanee Methodist church Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Thornton was agent of the Southern railroad in Suwanee. He died at his home Tuesday afternoon after a brief illness.

He was 70 years of age and was born January 17, 1862, in Hart county, a son of Reuben Benjamin Thornton and Mary Jane Teasley. He belonged to one of the earliest and most prominent families of Georgia. He spent his boyhood in Hart county, graduating from Hartwell Academy. He was an alumnus of the University of Georgia, class of 1885, being an honor graduate and a member of Phi Kappa Sigma.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Early Wilbanks, Buford, Ga., and Miss Olney Thornton, Suwanee, Ga.; four granddaughters, Misses Victoria, Annie Grace, Martha and Sterling Wilbanks; three sisters, Mrs. Nora Bowie Starr, South Carolina; Mrs. Verona Adams, Atlanta, and Mrs. Meanda Williams, Hartwell, Ga.

MRS. J. PARKS BYARS.

ROME, Ga., April 28.—Mrs. J. Parks Byars, 63, died Thursday morning after a long illness at her home here. She resided here all her life. She is survived by the following children, Miss Mayme Byars and Mrs. Walter Gray, of Rome, and H. M. Byars, of Atlanta, and a sister, Miss Ida Wimpee, of Rome. Funeral services will be conducted from the South Broad Baptist church at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon by the pastor, the Rev. James P. Craft. Interment will be in Myrtle Hill cemetery.

BOYD IS CONVICTED; MERCY RECOMMENDED

Jesup Jury Deliberates More Than Hour for Verdict in Murder Case.

JESUP, Ga., April 28.—(AP)—Lonnie Boyd was found guilty of the murder of W. R. Parker, the jury returning its verdict at 3:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon with a recommendation of mercy, after deliberating an hour and fifteen minutes.

Boyd was charged with killing Parker in September, 1927, on the highway near Odum. He was tried in superior court last November and was found guilty and given the death penalty. He was later granted a new trial, but remained in the Chatham county jail until last week when he was brought to Jesup and placed in the Wayne county jail.

The trial started Wednesday morning. The morning was taken in obtaining a jury. Part of the afternoon was taken in examining witnesses. The state used only eight of its fifteen witnesses and the defense used none of its witnesses. The defense lawyers presented their arguments and one spoke for the state before court adjourned until this morning when William D. Turner spoke one and one-half hours for the state and Judge J. P. Highsmith, of Baxley, the same length of time for the defense. The judge charged the jury immediately after lunch.

Mrs. Craig Barrow Renamed Colonial Dames' President

ATHENS, Ga., April 28.—Mrs. Craig Barrow, Savannah, was elected president of the Georgia Society of Colonial Dames of America here Thursday. Discussion of proposed changes in the by-laws, reading of remaining reports, and donation of gifts to various funds were other things brought before the organization in its annual convention.

New officers, besides Mrs. Barrow, are: Vice presidents, Mrs. Francis C. Block, Atlanta, Mrs. S. V. Sanford, Mrs. Samuel Taylor Coleman, Macon, Mrs. T. P. Waring, Savannah; board of managers, term to expire 1935: Mrs. H. H. Lattimore, Savannah; Mrs. H. Warner Martin, Atlanta; Miss Henrietta Myers, Waycorss, Mrs. W. F. Bradshaw, Miss M. D. Cunningham, Savannah; Mrs. R. W. Rhodes, Savannah.

Changes in the by-laws which were discussed had to do mainly with the method of election to membership, and will be voted on at the next annual meeting.

During the meeting, a gift from Mrs. Horace M. Holden to the Colonial Dames house was shown. This was an invitation to the wedding of Mary Walter Johnston and Walter Glasgow Charlton, which had been sent to Alexander Stephens.

It was decided to join with the South Carolina society in putting some kind of marker on the site of Purrysburg, S. C., the village which was the connecting link between the colonies of Georgia and South Carolina when Georgia was being settled.

A contribution was also granted to the Robert E. Lee Memorial Foundation to the fund being raised for the purchase of Stratford house, the family home of the Lees built in the early 18th century.

Albany Bus License Is Declared Illegal

ALBANY, Ga., April 28.—(AP) The city of Albany, in a ruling made by Judge B. C. Gardner, cannot collect license fees from passenger bus line operators.

Judge Gardner's ruling held that the state motor common carriers act of 1931 was valid and the city's ordinance providing for collection of the bus license tax was illegal.

A bill of exceptions is planned by S. B. Lippitt, city attorney, who said the case would be carried to the supreme court.

Suffered Ten Years Then Found Sargon

Recommends It Because It Proved Worth in Her Case

"Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills are the most wonderful medicines I have ever used. I say this because they have brought back my health after I had suffered for ten long years. My liver was torpid and my complexion sallow. My entire system was filled with poison. I was dreadfully nervous and was losing my strength and energy. Sargon ended my troubles as no other medicine has ever done. But the greatest blessing of all was the way the Sargon Soft Mass Pills relieved me from constipation from which I had suffered for so many years."—Mrs. Alexander Malcott, 1405 W. Sixth Street, Oklahoma City, Okla. At all Jacobs stores.—(adv.)

"Thor's Vitamin Costs 50 Cents; Worth $50," Says "Bill" McKinney

Few men in Atlanta are better known or more popular than W. A. (Bill) McKinney, who recently completed 21 years of service on the Atlanta police force, during which he was cited many times for bravery. Recently Mr. McKinney was retired on pension by a grateful city government. In poor health several months, Mr. McKinney is now among the hundreds of Atlanta people enthusiastically praising Thor's Vitamin Compound for recovery of their health and strength.

"I want everybody to know what this new treatment did for me," he declared. "There must be thousands of people in the same bad shape I was in and Thor's Vitamin Compound is exactly what they need. To begin with, my stomach was in such bad condition I couldn't eat a bite without suffering from indigestion. Gas would form until it almost cut off my breath. By night my nerves would be at high pitch and I was so fagged out I could hardly drag one foot after the other. I had to take strong purgatives all the time and no matter what I did my stomach seemed to stay upset and full of poisons; and sometimes even in the mornings I hardly had strength to walk a block.

"A friend told me how Thor's Vitamin Compound had relieved him of a bad case of stomach trouble and constipation. 'It doesn't cost but fifty cents, but it's worth fifty dollars,' he said. And it's been worth more than that to me. In three days my stomach felt a thousand per cent better and I kept on getting better every day. Now my appetite can't be beat and my digestion is as good as new. This new treatment seemed to drive the poisons right out of my whole system and fill me full of the old-time pep and energy. Such a fine medicine as Thor's Vitamin Compound is bound to be a wonderful blessing to thousands of people with troubles like mine and I'm glad to let them know what it did for me."

Thor's Vitamin Compound, the new scientific treatment containing yeast vitamins, iron and copper, may be obtained at all good drug stores for fifty cents. Ask for it by name: Thor's Vitamin Compound.—(adv.)

Actual Size of Watch

Not a large size out-of-date Watch with Chromium Cases, But a 6 Ought Size 15-Jewel Movement Fitted in a Genuine 14-K Gold Filled (Guaranteed 25 Years) Case.

$1.00 A WEEK OR $1.20 DISCOUNT FOR CASH

Waltham, one of America's finest high-grade time-pieces. Many thousands of these models have been sold for $45.00. They are masterpieces of the watchmakers' art and are in successful operation all over the world in professions such as transportation, manufacture, telegraphy, telephone and other branches where the difference of a minute might mean a loss of thousands of dollars.

Last year recorded a decided slump in watch sales and a consequent over-supply. Manufacturing economies made possible by changed conditions have been adopted without sacrifice of high quality, and through a most unusual purchase we have bought 50 of these watches at a big reduction in price. In addition to the saving in cost, we are willing in order to put over the sale in two days, to cut our own usual profit margin more than half. The result is an unparalleled opportunity for men of all trades and professions to own a Waltham for the first time at such a price.

Note the terms—only a dollar a week. Or, if you have the cash, there's a discount of $1.20 so that the watch costs you only $22.80 net. This is the most attractive price ever presented on a Waltham watch and we think you will find it desirable to get one tomorrow.

These Are the Very Latest and Newest Models

Not last year's oversized watch in a cheap case, but today's $45 value in 14-k gold-filled case.

Selling them at $24.00 on terms of $1.00 a week, we set the lowest price ever offered in America on this watch, to the best of our knowledge.

Atlantans Attend Washington Meeting

Mrs. Bonita Crowe, 965 Myrtle avenue, N. E., president of Atlanta branch, L. A. P. W., Mrs. Lilla Wood Daniels, 690 Cooledge avenue, N. E., and Mrs. Hugh C. Couch, of College Park, were numbered among the Atlanta women who attended the brilliantly colorful breakfast opening the biennial convention of the National League of American Pen Women in Washington this week. They were received at the White House by Mrs. Herbert Hoover and attended a tea at the Polish embassy, where they were guests of the Polish ambassador, in addition to attending the many brilliant dinners, receptions, musicales and other social events incident to the convention. Mrs. Crowe's compositions were featured at a musical Sunday afternoon and Mrs. Daniels read one of her poems at the poetry dinner the same evening. Mrs. Couch was one of the few privileged guests outside of the Congressional circle who attended the opening of the new Folger Shakespeare Memorial library which has been called one of the architectural gems of Washington. Mrs. Couch and Mrs. Daniels returned to Atlanta Wednesday evening. Mrs. Crowe will remain in Washington until next week.

Miss Eleanor Johnson Fetes Brides-Elect.

'Merry-Go-Round' At North Ave. School

The junior class of the North Avenue Presbyterian school will present "Merry-Go-Round" this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and this evening at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 25 cents for the afternoon performance and 35 cents in the evening. This event is an annual affair featured by the junior class.

"Merry-Go-Round" might properly be termed "Around the World in 80 Minutes." This merry comedy skips gaily from the latest Paris fashions to Floyd Gibbons at the battle front; a desperate bull fight with an equally desperate matador; Sherlock Holmes at his best, and then back to the Statue of Liberty.

Following the school field day, Miss Josephine Walker, athletic director, held a track meet recently for the boarders of North Avenue Presbyterian school in the school gym. The first place was won by Barbara Willard, while Pauline Morrow and Mary Elizabeth Holcomb came in second and third. Other boarders taking part were Jane Tharin, Jane Jackson, Ruth Causey and Rosemary Causey.

Atalantans Plan Depression Ball.

Miss Darrington Weds John Vincent Devitt

An event of interest to a large circle of friends was the marriage of Miss Margaret Darrington to John Vincent Devitt, which was solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David P. Darrington, on La-France street. Rev. Father Cotter, of the Sacred Heart church, performed the ceremony.

The home was beautifully decorated, a mass of gladioli and roses banked in palms and ferns forming the background for the service. The bride was lovely, wearing a blue gown trimmed with real lace, and she carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. J. S. Pitchford, sister of the bride, rendered "I Love You Truly" and the Lohengrin Wedding March.

There were no attendants, with only the family and a few close friends of the bride and bridegroom present. Mr. and Mrs. Devitt left for a short motor trip and are at home at 972 Plymouth road, N. E.

The bride was a popular member of the 1930 graduating class at Girls' High school. Mr. Devitt after finishing the Marist College attended Georgia Tech, where he graduated with the class of 1928. He also attended the army air corps flying school at San Antonio, Texas.

Howard-Mayhew Rites Take Place

NEW YORK, April 28.—The marriage of Miss Frances Lucile Howard, daughter of Mrs. Troup Howard, formerly of Atlanta, to Charles C. Mayhew Jr., of Milwaukee, Wis., was quietly solemnized at 12:30 o'clock Thursday in New York city. The ceremony was performed at the Little Church Around the Corner, with the Rev. Randolph Ray, rector of the church, officiating.

The bride, who is a lovely brunette, was gowned in a navy blue ensemble with hat and accessories to match, and her corsage was of orchids.

After the ceremony a small wedding breakfast was given by Mrs. Howard at the Grammercy Park hotel in New York.

Mr. Mayhew and his bride motored through the Shenandoah valley, in Virginia and will reside in Milwaukee, where Mr. Mayhew is identified with business and social circles. He holds an important position with Shields Brothers in Milwaukee.

Primrose Club To Meet Today.

The Druid Hills Baptist church will hold its annual reception this evening at 8 o'clock. The honor guests will be the pastor and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Loule D. Newton, and all the members who have united with the church during the past year.

This annual reception is sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union of the church, with Mrs. Ben R. Padgett, president, in general charge. The guests will assemble in the church auditorium. Mrs. John B. Felder, church organist, and the Druid Hills choir have prepared a group of musical selections, and the remainder of the program will be a surprise.

Following the program Dr. and Mrs. Newton and the new members will form a receiving line as the guests go into the reception rooms for an hour of fellowship. All the members of the church are invited to attend.

Culbertson on Contract

The Penalty of an Underbid

BY ELY CULBERTSON.
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

Underbidding at the Contract table is a serious fault. Probably, if some mathematician were to keep a record of all the losses, visible and invisible, suffered from underbidding, the total would so amazingly overbalance the losses from overbidding as to cause the habitual under-bidder to become the rashest of players and thus cause the present army of light bidders to become even die hards in their conservatism.

This is the story of a hand, played in a recent team-of-four Duplicate match at the Deschapelles Club in New York city, in which, through North's underbidding, a match was lost which determined the club championship.

East—Dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

	♠ 9 ♡ A J 6 5 ◇ A J 9 6 5 3 ♣ 7 4
♠ A K Q 10 8 5 4 ♡ 8 7 ◇ 8 7 ♣ 6 5	N W E S	♠ J 3 2 ♡ 9 4 ◇ 4 3 ♣ K Q 10 9 3 2
	♠ 7 6 ♡ K Q 10 3 2 ◇ K Q 10 ♣ A J 8

The Bidding:

(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

South	West	North	East
			Pass
1♡	1♠	4♡	Pass
5♡	Pass	6♡	Pass
Pass	Pass

With the direct Raise to game, South's hand is fully strong enough to suggest the possibility of a Slam, provided North has anything further to say. North, under these circumstances, would have something further to say. North knows that there is but one spade loser and this South probably does not know. With this bidding, which is both safe and sane, but free from the bane of underbidding, the makable Slam might well have been reached.

TODAY'S POINTER.

Underbidding is at the root of more losses at the Contract table than overbidding. A player who habitually underbids soon finds, despite the underbidding, that he is often suffering penalties. The reason is psychological. Partners attempt to cure the underbidding by overbidding.

TOMORROW'S HAND.

The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow:

South—Dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

	♠ A J 7 2 ♡ 7 ◇ A 7 ♣ A 10 8 6 5 2
♠ 8 3 ♡ J 6 5 ◇ Q 6 5 4 ♣ K Q J 3	N W E S	♠ K 10 9 6 ♡ Q 9 8 4 ◇ 10 9 3 ♣ 9 7
	♠ Q 5 4 ♡ A K 10 3 2 ◇ K J 8 2 ♣ 4

Study the hand, decide how you would bid and play it and then compare the results you obtain with those shown in tomorrow's article.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

1—With a passing partner and the bidding opened by the opposing side, West's best course is probably to defend the hand as well as possible and seek an early Double. The direct bid of four spades would be the alternative.

2—An underbid, at the root of the subsequent trouble. If North decides that the best course is to raise hearts, the hand contains more than enough playing-tricks to justify a Raise to game at once. A bid of four hearts would shut out East's club bid.

3—With a bidding partner, East's hand presents slight possibilities and these are shown by the club bid, which, by inference, implies a willingness to see the hand played in four spades.

4—Satisfied that opponents can score game and that the set should not be more than 2 tricks.

5—Obviously, the hand requires further action. Partner's Rebid and the strength held by North in the heart suit clearly place honor strength in clubs in the South hand. This pass is a gross example of underbidding.

6—Misled by partner's inadequate Raise and by the failure to take any action after the four-spade bid. South accepts a sure penalty rather than continue the bidding.

In the play, the contract was defeated 2 tricks, a penalty of 600 points, less 100 for the honors held. As the game was Duplicate, this was an entirely inadequate compensation. As a matter of fact, North and South have a Slam available at either one of two declarations—hearts or diamonds. The Slam should not be particularly difficult to reach in the bidding, which might well have gone as follows:

FORMER NAVY MAN VICTIM OF ATTACK

A heart attack Thursday morning caused the death of Joseph Hessie, 45, ex-navy man, of Dublin, as he walked along Simpson street. He was placed in a Blanchard Brothers ambulance and carried to Grady hospital, but was pronounced dead upon arrival. The body was taken Thursday night to Dublin for funeral services and interment.

Mr. Hessie had been living at the Salvation Army headquarters. He drew a disability pension from the government for his service in the navy. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ethel H. Richards, of Dublin.

Tech Reserve Officers Hold Annual Maneuvers and Ball

Pomp and brilliancy which characterizes the military and naval formations will be reflected in the annual maneuvers which will be held by the entire military and naval units of the reserve officers training corps of Georgia Tech this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Grant field. Under the command of Cadet Colonel E. V. Hungerford Jr., the military in natty drab uniforms will vie for interest with the blue-clad navy commanded by Cadet Lieutenant Commander Thomas A. Marshall. This will be the first joint review to be given by both branches of the service and national colors, regimental standards and guidons of the various units will be unfurled under the bright floodlights as the troops pass in review.

Assembled in the boxes will be the officials of the college with their wives, the officers of the military and naval units and their wives and the girls who will act as sponsors for the different units. Parents of the cadets, friends from Atlanta's social contingents and out-of-town guests will be present to witness the drill.

Sponsors Presented.

The sponsors will include a group of lovely young members of society and they will be met by the ranking cadet officers and the separate units will be presented to them.

Gowned in pastel shaded dresses and carrying large bouquets of yellow and white roses tied with the Tech colors of white and gold, they will center interest both at the maneuvers and at the military ball which will be given by the R. O. T. C. unit of Tech at the Shrine mosque when the guests will assemble several hundred members of the younger set. The sponsors will include Misses Lucile Buchanan, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Lucile Bush, Sayoline Massett, Katharine Culbertson, Anita Murphy, Betty Susong, Betty May, Lena Mae Fariman, Sara Cooper, Harriet Henderson, Dee Coleman and others.

Dr. M. L. Brittain will present the handsome Steele trophy to the winning unit, Battery F, of the coast artillery corps, and it will be received by Cadet Captain James Walmy in the name of the battery. The battery won first place in competitive drill over other companies of the corps.

Major Olin Longino, United States army and professor of military science and tactics at Georgia Tech, will present the silver loving cup to the second platoon, Company C, infantry, as the winner of the platoon drill. The cup, which is the gift of the athletic association, will be received by Cadet Lieutenant Douglas Graydon in the name of the platoon.

Naval Award.

The naval squad will receive the trophy as the most outstanding squad in the drill held recently and the roster of the unit includes F. E. De Golian, T. N. Turner, E. G. Kilpatrick, O. P. Lee, of Hapeville; H. E. Simpson, W. R. Lyon, J. D. Slay and H. C. Blazer.

Cadet Colonel E. V. Hungerford will be awarded a medal by the Joseph Habersham chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, as being one of the two most outstanding cadets of the unit. Mrs. W. F. Dykes, a former regent of the chapter, will present the medal.

Cadet Lieutenant Commander Thomas A. Marshall, of New Jersey, formerly of Savannah, will be awarded a handsome medal as the most outstanding cadet in the naval unit, the reward being presented by the John Floyd chapter of the Daughters of 1812.

Cadet Major A. E. Patton will be awarded a saber by the Reserve Officers' Association of Atlanta for being one of the two most outstanding cadets of the military units. Lieutenant Colonel A. G. Conoley, chairman of public relations committee of the Fifth Congressional chapter of the Reserve Officers' Association of America, will present the saber to Cadet Major Patton.

Individual cadets will compete in the drill and winners will be given medals to be presented by Major Longino. The rifle team which won the corps area championship will be presented awards. The maneuvers will be brilliant in detail and the public is invited to attend this picturesque ceremony.

THE WONDERLAND OF OZ

Based on the Stories by L. Frank Baum

The Scarecrow and Jack Pumpkinhead were still playing at quoits in the courtyard when the game was suddenly interrupted by the abrupt entrance of the Royal Army of Oz, who came flying in without his hat or gun, his clothes in sad disarray and his long beard floating a yard behind him as he ran. "Score one for me," said the Scarecrow, calmly. "What's wrong, my man?" he added, addressing the soldier. "Oh, your Majesty! The city is conquered!" gasped the soldier.

"This is quite sudden!" said the Scarecrow, "but please go and bar the doors while I show this Pumpkinhead how to throw a quoit." In the meantime Tip had come up, and spying him Jack Pumpkinhead cried, "Good afternoon, dear father. I am glad you are here. That terrible Saw-Horse ran away with me." At this moment the soldier returned and the Scarecrow asked, "By the way, who has conquered me?" "A regiment of girls," replied the soldier, pale with fear.

"But where was my standing army at the time?" inquired his Majesty looking at the soldier gravely. "Your standing army was running," replied the man honestly. "For no man could face the terrible weapons of the invaders." "Well," said the Scarecrow, "I don't mind being conquered, but I hope the conquerors have no intention of injuring me." "I heard them say," remarked Tip, "that they intended to make a rag carpet of your outside." A cry made them turn. A party of girl soldiers was in the courtyard.

Immediately the little party started to run for the palace. The soldier was the fastest, having already had the experience of facing the rebels, but Tip, Jack Pumpkinhead and the Scarecrow King were not far behind. The group reached the door ahead of Jinjur's soldiers and the door clanged shut leaving our friends for a time, at least, in safety. Once in the palace the Scarecrow sat down on his throne. Tip went to the window. "The palace is surrounded by the enemy," he announced.

Miss Elsie Epstein, Of Savannah, Weds Mr. Irwing Samuels

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 28.—(AP) Marked by beauty and simplicity was the marriage of Miss Elsie Merle Epstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Epstein, to Irwing Lewis Samuels, of Atlanta, which took place this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on West Thirty-seventh street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Solomon, D. D., rabbi of Temple Mickve Israel.

Following the ceremony, which was witnessed by the family and a few close friends, there was a wedding dinner. The dining room was beautifully decorated with ferns, smilax and white spring flowers.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Samuels left for the north on their wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a suit of diagonal weave Nassau blue. Her hat was a small model of blue straw, the shade of her suit, and her accessories were of blue.

The out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Max Samuels, of Atlanta, the father and mother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris, of Macon; Mrs. S. J. Epstein, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schariff, of Augusta; Miss Mae Ware Daley, of Wrightsville; Miss Nell Patterson, of Columbus; Mrs. Horace Smith, of Atlanta; Mrs. Arthur Wolfsohn, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Sol Epstein, of Atlanta, and Dick Wharton, of New York.

Play Presented.

An enjoyable play entitled "The Old School at Hickory Holler" will be presented at Bass Junior High school auditorium this evening at 8 o'clock. The presentation is sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society and Epworth League of the Inman Park Methodist church. Music will be furnished by pupils of the Westbrook Conservatory of Music. A vibra-harp solo will be given by Miss Jewel McNair. The public is invited, and admission is 25 cents.

TWO SAFE ROBBERIES NET $240 TO YEGGMEN

Yeggmen stole $240 during the early hours of Thursday and police were faced with solving two crimes with no clues.

A mysterious entry into the offices of the Peasley-Gaulbert Co., at 537 Whitehall street, and a clever opening of the safe—evidently by experts—netted the yeggs $100.

Another gang which failed to use the subdued technique of the first employed force on two doors and to batter the hinges off a safe in the Empire theater, 42 Georgia avenue, secured $140. Detectives S. E. Woodson and D. L. Taylor are investigating, handicapped by a total absence of clues.

TRAVELING MAN ENDORSES ALL-BRAN

Says It Brought Relief From Constipation

"I want to take this unsolicited means to tell you what ALL-BRAN has done for me.

"I am on the road all the time, and this has a tendency to constipate me, or any one who travels all the time. I used to suffer a great deal from constipation, until some one told me about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating this cereal, I have been cured of constipation. I heartily endorse it to any one suffering as I did."—Mr. B. F. Pollard, Marion, N. C.

Constipation is caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN provides both. At the same time, it supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Being a natural corrective ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming.

How much better than risking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation—serious cases, with every meal. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. —(adv.)

Piano Recital.

Mrs. R. L. Stocks presented a group of her pupils in a piano recital Saturday afternoon at the chapel on North avenue and North Boulevard.

June Hopkins and Avon Smith assisted with readings, and Jane Raven, Ethel Bailey and Clarisse Robertson rendered vocal solos.

Those taking part were Emily Jacobson, Neal Jacobson, Charline Stokes, Elizabeth Patrick, Louise Clein, Yetta Greenberg, Sylvia Gantt, June Hopkins, Doris Hopkins, Frank Garrison Jr., Harold Garrard, Avon Smith, Buddy Cowgille and Pauline McClananhan.

INTIMATE THINGS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

Intimate things for the younger set show a smooth tailoring in line, as manifested by this well-fitting combination, illustrated in 306. Another feature making for neatness is the tab shoulder fastening. Notice, also the molded round neck. Designed in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 6 requires 1 1-2 yards of 36-inch material or 1 3-8 yards of 39-inch material.

It seems as if the young girl takes just as much pride and interest in her attire for the sleeping hours as she does for her waking moments—that is if one is to pass judgment on a most recent showing of pajamas. Model 303 displays an unusually pretty pajama outfit, which sponsors the square neckline and flaunts the stylish cap sleeve. Designed in Sizes 8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 of 36-inch material.

and 20. Size 12 requires 4 1-4 yards

FRIENDLY COUNSEL
BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

Is there some definite quality of personality that makes for popularity? There seemingly is. Does an attractive body, a pretty face and correct dress play any part in attracting men? From my experience I would answer no.

I have these qualifications plus the record of a moral life that is above reproach. Yet I am never asked for a date. I have had some dates, usually brought about in a casual fashion, mainly through other girls. Why do I start when the telephone rings, though it never is a call for me? Why do I expect numerous other attentions that the normal girl gets? It must be that it is natural for me to expect such things. But the problem is how to deal with these frustrated desires? If I were the only one in the world experiencing disappointments it wouldn't be a matter of moment, but the sad part of it is there are scores of girls like me. Here are, finally, the questions we need to have answered:

What attitude should the unpopular girl assume toward the popular one?

Should one try to stamp out all selfish desires and center oneself on some outside practical work, forgetting youth and beauty and the things for which youth and beauty were created?

Should one continue to hope against hope that one's turn may come or should one read the handwriting of the past as the prophecy of the future?

Does a 24-year-old girl with college education and good looks have the right to expect the normal and natural association with men and then a little fling in the world of romance? PERPLEXED.

ANSWER:

There are certainly definite qualities of personality that make for popularity. One of them is the so-called sex appeal. It is hard to analyze it. It is impossible to simulate it. Yet the woman that lacks it is not necessarily doomed to a life without romance nor to a social experience devoid of pleasant association with men.

An attractive body, a pretty face, correct clothes and an irreproachable moral record are all assets from the man's viewpoint. Youth, beauty and education are gifts that a girl should be able to use to advantage and in the answers to your final questions let's see how they can be used to advantage.

First, a great financial genius of our time says that he never accomplished anything without "kicking the sheets," which was his homely way of expressing his ideas about the necessity for concentration and tenacious effort to work out the solution of the problems he faced. No girl should forget her youth and beauty and the things for which youth and beauty were created until she has done her utmost to satisfy the clamor that they set up in her soul, always, of course, having proper regard for virtue and for the moral law that should regulate life.

Second, a girl should certainly hope against hope that some Prince Charming is in the offing waiting for her and not only ought she to hope, but to keep her eyes open to discover him, and her ears open to hear his voice. Popular girls are not the only ones that get married. Some of the best marriages come about in the most unexpected ways. Many a woman never hears protestations of love from any but the man she marries. But is not that enough?

Third, a 24-year-old girl with education and good looks does certainly have the right to expect normal association with men and if she keeps her head and uses her wits she can have it. That brings us to the point of the unpopular girl's attitude toward the popular girl. The popular one is, or should be, a model to be copied and not a rival to be snarled at. She knows how to do the trick that the unpopular girl wants to do. In her presence there are always men to be found, oftentimes more men than she can entertain easily and some that she would gladly be rid of. Friendship with her inevitably means association with the men she draws to her and if no romance buds, at least the lonely one makes pleasant acquaintances which is a lot better than nothing. No woman and no man is well rounded without something more than speaking acquaintance with the opposite sex. Convention doesn't permit a woman to be bold in seeking out the men but even convention expects her to use her wiles and to employ some strategy to bring about the desired results.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

COMMITTEES INDORSE TWO NEW ORDINANCES

Council Monday will be called upon to pass upon two important ordinances evolved Thursday afternoon at meetings of the ordinance and electric lights committees of council, respectively.

One is promulgated to curb activities of charity racketeers while the other is to revise present rules governing examination of prospective motion picture operators.

The ordinance to restrict solicitation of charitable funds, especially when done by professionals, provides among other things that a permit must be issued by the mayor and council; that a license fee of $25 must be paid; that it must show the percentage of the solicitation going to the charity and the amount going to solicitors, and the solicitors must give references. Failure to comply with the law will subject violators to a fine not exceeding $200 or 30 days imprisonment.

Revised plans for examination of motion picture operators provide for selection of three examiners each by the chief of the fire department, the building inspector and the superintendent of electrical affairs. The electric lights committee then will name one examiner from each of the groups. Heretofore, these department heads have named the examiners. Terms of the new examiners shall be for three years, and applicants who take the examination will have their examination papers numbered so that the examiners will not know whose paper they are grading.

This plan has been devised to prevent criticisms in the examining board and to provide impartial grading of papers.

Quill Club To Initiate Commercial Students

Commercial High school will hold the eighth initiation service of the Frank L. Stanton chapter of Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalistic students, in the school auditorium at 1 o'clock today. At this time 15 seniors, who are leaders in student activities, will be received into the society. J. Ira Harrelson, president of the board of education, will speak on "The Functions of Journalism in Modern Civilization."

The president of the Frank L. Stanton chapter, Miss Hilda Isakson, who graduated in 1931, will preside at the initiation ceremony. She will be assisted by Miss Evelyn Mathieu, secretary of the chapter. Walter Haney, recent winner of first place in the short story contest of the national high school awards, will be one of the students to be initiated.

JUNIOR CHAMBER HERE PUSHING COTTON WEEK

A statewide campaign to have all graduating classes of public schools wear cotton clothing at their commencement exercises as part of the nationwide Cotton Week observance plan is to be inaugurated by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Atlanta, it was announced Thursday by Dr. Rayford W. Tharpe, president.

The Junior Chamber is sponsoring the week's observance in Atlanta, and has already obtained the co-operation of Jere A. Wells, county school superintendent in placing the graduation angles over as far as county schools are concerned.

German 'Two Hearts in Waltz Time' Proves Delightful Entertainment

If you number among the vast majority of theatergoers who revel in a good operetta, we venture you will walk down a lot of aisles before you will find a more delightful screen entertainment than "Two Hearts in Waltz Time," which opened a brief run Thursday night at the Woman's Club auditorium.

This is light opera in the best Deutscher tradition. The musical score, by Robert Stoltz, is thoroughly satisfying throughout with the title song one that should live for years. The plot is just enough without being too much for this type of entertainment and the action is as sprightly as the production is smooth.

The story is of the difficulties encountered by the Viennese composer and librettists of an operetta in their search for the vital waltz tune. The sister of the librettists, on a forbidden adventure, brings the inspiration for the song to the composer but when she vanishes from his sight the song goes with her and returns only when she comes back in time to save the show from failure and the music-maker from a broken heart.

Despite the fact that the dialogue is entirely in German the action is easy to follow and we believe it would be so even without the aid of the judiciously placed English subtitles. In fact, the lingual problem is no excuse for anyone's missing this refreshing picture, take the word of one whose German was poorly learned and long since forgotten. So splendid is the acting that even the humor is apparent at many points and the action is never in doubt.

About half of Thursday's near capacity crowd apparently was familiar with German but they enjoyed the evening's affairs only slightly more than the rest of the folks.

Walter Jannsen makes a fascinating Toni Hofer while Oscar Kerlweiss and Willi Forst are immensely amusing as the temperamental Nicky and Vicky Mahler. Gretl Theimer as Hedi and Irene Eisinger as Anni Lohmeirer aren't quite up to the standard set by the male leads but are far from weak. The support in the minor characters is flawless, which means much even in an operetta.

Today affords Atlantans two last opportunities to avail themselves of this novel treat, a matinee at 3:30 and a night performance at 8:30.

New Karloff Picture Will Open at Capitol

"Behind the Mask," a picture said to be more weird than "Frankenstein," comes to the Capitol theater today featuring Boris Karloff.

Sharing the honors with Karloff are Jack Holt and Constance Cummings. Others in the cast are Bertha Mann, Claude King and Edward Van Sloan. The picture was directed by John Francis Dillon from the story, "In the Secret Service."

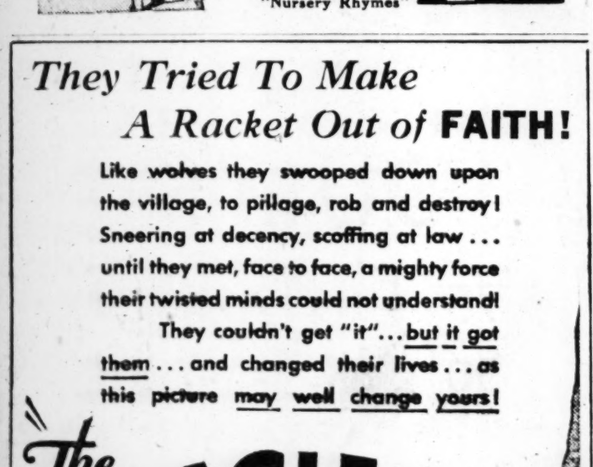

In "Behind the Mask," horrifying acts are done legally. The phantom-like person commits terrifying deeds that are baffling to all humans.

Universal newsreel with Graham McNamee, the talking reporter, and a comedy complete the program.

Congress Fails To Extend Economy To Own Precincts

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.
(Copyright, 1932, by the United Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(UP) Congress leaders are screwing down on expenses of executive departments in one of the greatest economy drives in its history.

But they are paying very little attention to the economy possibilities within their own precincts.

There are pending in the current economy bill some minor provisions for paring down the mileage graft which senators and congressmen collect but do not necessarily spend on railroad tickets.

However, nothing thus far has been done—or even said—about cutting off of the congressional pay roll the dozens of wives, sons, daughters, brothers, sisters and in-laws who are being carried at government expense, often doing no work at all in return.

The practice exists in both parties and among not only first termers but among some of the most eminent members.

One of these is Senator Joseph T. Robinson, democratic senate leader, vice presidential candidate in 1928 and a member of the American delegation to the London naval conference in 1930.

Senator Robinson has five persons on his senatorial pay roll as leader of the minority conference. There are relatives.

One of these, a nephew, works regularly in his office here.

The second is Senator Robinson's aged mother-in-law who is paid $2,580 a year. She does not work but lives with her relatives either here or in Little Rock, Ark.

The third is the senator's brother-in-law, H. Grady Miller, president of the Southwest Joint Stock Land bank. He spends most of his time in Little Rock. He made a visit here last winter. His appearance on the pay roll of the senate while living in Arkansas is explained on the ground that he is a "contact man" for Senator Robinson.

Senator Robinson is a member of a leading law firm in Arkansas, Robinson, House & Moses, of Little Rock.

Senator Robinson confirmed the information obtained by the United Press about the presence of his relatives on the senate pay roll but declined to comment.

The United Press also asked the republican leader of the senate, James E. Watson, whether he had any relatives on the pay roll. He said he had a niece on temporarily as a typist. Her husband lost his job and is ill. She is an industrious worker, Watson said, and others confirmed his statement.

Publication by the United Press of some examples showing senators and congressmen carrying members of their families and immediate households on their clerical pay rolls has stirred considerable excitement in Washington, particularly among government employes who are threatened with heavy pay cuts by congress.

It has been generally known in Washington for years that such practices existed but the detailed facts have been elusive, particularly where the employes do not bear the same family name as the member. Current information about the employment of relatives is difficult to obtain. Both the house and senate have rules against revealing their clerical pay rolls currently and the information is not available, except with the cooperation of individual members involved, until months after it ceases to be current.

OSTEOPATH JAILED IN OKLAHOMA DEATHS

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 28.—(AP) A murder charge was filed tonight against Dr. J. W. Elisiminger, Oklahoma City osteopath, as Lewis R. Morris, county attorney, investigated deaths of eight young women, including two University of Oklahoma coeds, alleged to have been caused by illegal operations.

Dr. Eisiminger, accused in the death of Miss Virginia Lee Wyckoff, 21, university student who died Saturday, pleaded not guilty and was ordered remanded to jail without bond pending preliminary hearing May 6.

Dr. Richard E. Thacker, physician and surgeon, is sought on a charge of murder in the death last week of Miss Robbie Lou Thompson, 21, a telegraph company employe. He also is accused of performing a criminal operation on Mrs. Frank Lee, 17, university student and secret bride of a university football star, who died here Monday.

Four other deaths under investigation were those of Mrs. F. S. Roach, who died Saturday; Mrs. Isobel F. Ferguson, who died April 14; Ruth Hall, of Bethany, who died April 15, and Marie Epperson, who died two years ago.

Dr. Eisiminger said in a signed statement he treated Miss Wyckoff April 3 at his office but did not believe she was an expectant mother. He said he treated her for another ailment.

The university discipline committee announced an independent investigation would be made.

WOMEN VOTERS VIEW TARIFF, WORLD COURT

DETROIT, April 28.—(AP)—The tariff, the World Court and the League of Nations were thrust before the National League of Women Voters today during the league's biennial convention in session here.

Surprise resolutions, introduced on the floor by individuals, precipitated heated debate.

The first, recommending that the league support the immediate repeal of the Hawley-Smoot tariff law, and aid in obtaining legislation for "prompt and general reduction of the tariff schedules of the United States," never returned to the convention floor.

A committee which took it under consideration reported unfavorably.

The second, recommending the league support the proposal that the United States join the League of Nations, went into committee at once and faced prolonged discussion.

Adherence to the World Court, however, met with general approval.

The tariff resolution, declared that "high tariffs are regarded as serious barriers to the economic rehabilitation of the world."

That the league would refuse to include the prohibition question in its two-year study program, was indicated today by Mrs. Marguerite M. Wells, of St. Paul, retiring vice president of the organization. The league, said Mrs. Wells, "has not felt it necessary to take up the issue."

Re-election of Mrs. Belle Sherwin, of Cleveland, as president of the National League of Women Voters was recommended in a report of the organization's nominating committee.

The nominations usually are equivalent to election.

LIVESTOCK SHOW HELD BY G. S. C. A. CLUB

ATHENS, Ga., April 28.—The Little International Live Stock Show, sponsored by the Saddle and Sirloin Club of the Georgia State College of Agriculture, was held here today, with 83 animals on exhibition. About 1,200 attended the show.

Winners of various awards were as follows:

Grand championship cup: White-faced dorsted lamb, owned by S. A. Knox, of Hartwell; champion Duroc gilt, owned by G. W. Eberhart, of Maysville; champion dairy cow, B. S. Wilder, of Musella; champion Guernsey cow, H. M. Saxon, of Hawkinsville; champion Holstein cow, J. F. McMullen, of Hartwell; champion beef cow, J. T. Breedlove, of Watkinsville.

The horse show was won by the Percheron stallion of T. J. Jones, of Wales. J. L. Berry, of Norcross, exhibited the champion dog, an Irish setter, and Barney Dobbs, of Athens, won the pony cup.

Dr. A. M. Soule, president of the college, presented the prizes.

HOWARD DAVIS NAMED HEAD OF PUBLISHERS

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Howard Davis, business manager of the New York Herald Tribune, was elected president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association this afternoon after an all-day business session devoted largely to committee reports.

George M. Rogers, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, is the new vice president; Walter M. Dear, of the Jersey Journal, the re-elected treasurer, and E. H. Harris, of the Richmond, Ind., Palladium Item, secretary.

Four members of the board of directors were re-elected: John S. Parks, of the Fort Smith, (Ark.) Times-Recorder; E. H. Butler, of the Buffalo (N. Y.) Evening News; Charles A. Webb, of the Asheville, (N. C.) Citizen-Times, and S. R. Winch, of the Portland, (Ore.) Journal. Harry Chandler, retiring president, was elected to the board.

The publishers received from the special standing committee a report criticizing the printing trades unions for failure to co-operate in necessary readjustments.

The report advocated economies, either through wage cuts of from 20 to 25 per cent or by "abolition of all wasteful and costly rules enforced by printing trades unions."

The report was accepted, but no immediate action was taken.

Line To Be Abandoned.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—The interstate commerce commission has authorized the Tennessee and Carolina Southern Railway Company to abandon its entire line in Blount and Monroe counties, Tennessee.

The road is 31 miles long and runs from Maryville to Calderwood. The decision was made yesterday.

Macy's Pleased With Showing Made by Davison-Paxon Store

NEW YORK, April 28.—Gratification over the past year's performance of the Davison-Paxon Company, and confidence in the continued steady growth of the Atlanta affiliate of R. H. Macy & Co., was expressed by Jesse Isidor Straus, president of Macy's, at the board of directors' meeting of the New York department store.

A message of congratulation was dispatched by Mr. Straus to Beaumont Davison, Frederic J. Paxon and Raymond A. Kline, constituting the executive committee of the Atlanta store. Jesse Isidor Straus not only is head of Macy's but is one of the foremost democrats in the country, is closely associated with Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, partly because they have joint interests in New York and Georgia.

In his letter to the Atlanta store, Mr. Straus tells of the early association of his family with the fortunes of the commonwealth of Georgia, and expresses satisfaction with "the result of last year's business, which despite country-wide adverse conditions, showed progress in the estimation in which the Davison-Paxon Company is held in the 'metropolis of the south.'"

The text of the letter is as follows:

Text of Letter.

At this morning's monthly meeting of the board of directors of R. H. Macy & Co., Inc., I presented the annual audited report of the Davison-Paxon Company which was discussed at some length. The board expressed its satisfaction with the result of last year's business which despite country-wide adverse conditions showed progress in the estimation in which the Davison-Paxon Company is held in the "Metropolis of the South."

My brothers and I have, from the beginning of our business connection with Atlanta, derived great satisfaction from our contact. You may not know that our father in 1862 completed his first business transaction in Atlanta. He was then 17 years old, the family was resident in Talbotton and our father, after much endeavor, part of which was the raising of a company in his home town, of which company he had been elected captain, was unable because of his youth to secure admission to the armies of the Confederacy and discouraged on his way back to Talbotton bought in Atlanta some merchandise for his father's store in Talbotton. He as well as the rest of the members of the family always had a great affection for Georgia and we therefore had not only a business objective in re-establishing our connection with the empire state of the south but had a definite sentimental motive.

Our opportunity to form a connection with Davison, Paxon & Stokes came through my own friendship and association in the National Retail Dry Goods Association with Colonel Frederic J. Paxon. After very careful study and investigation we all jointly came to the conclusion that the trend of business in Atlanta was northward and we made no mistake in choosing the present site for our new building. The move was somewhat akin to our New York move when in 1902 we transferred our store from Fourteenth street and Sixth avenue to Thirty-fourth street and Broadway, about a mile northward and approximately the same distance as the Davison-Paxon move. The growth of both businesses in point of sales is evidence of the correctness of our judgment. We have a deep sense of loyalty to Georgia and we get constant gratification out of the warmth of the welcome with which the Straus family were received back by Georgia and the Georgians. After seven years we believe that the family tree is now firmly re-established in fertile ground and will gather additional strength through the years.

Permit me on behalf of the board of directors of R. H. Macy & Co., Inc. and of my brothers and myself to extend through you to all the members of the organization our thanks for the manner in which you are conducting our affairs in Atlanta and to say to you and through you to all Atlantans that we have high hopes for the future of Atlanta and look forward to a growth of our business there at least in proportion to the growth of the city.

Very sincerely yours,
JESSE ISIDOR STRAUS.

Raymond A. Kline, vice president of the Davison-Paxon Company and executive vice president of R. H. Macy & Co., Inc. in New York, Thursday morning announced that he and his associates are highly pleased at the recognition paid the Davison-Paxon store by the board of directors of R. H. Macy & Co., Inc.

"Receipt of the letter from Mr. Straus is particularly gratifying to us," he said, "because of the fact that we are just at the opening of our semi-annual Super-Macy Sale, which passed through."

judged by the merchandise secured through our connection with Macy's promises to be the greatest in our history. We feel that this well-merited recognition to an Atlanta business institution will not only be gratifying to us, but is a source of satisfaction to Atlanta people who are watching the steady growth and development of this modern retail store in face of adverse conditions which we have

Schooner, Crew of 7 Given Up for Lost

BOSTON, April 28.—(AP)—The four-masted schooner Charles D. Stanford, long overdue on a passage from Levela De Coro, Venezuela, to Boston, has been given up for lost by the friends and relatives here of the seven men of her crew.

The schooner, carrying a cargo of 1,000 tons of fertilizer, left her loading port January 15, put into Jacksonville, Fla., her home port, for supplies and sailed from there February 17. She was sighted off Cape Hatteras 12 days later, but no tidings have been received of her since then.

MISS. SOLONS AT ODDS ON REAPPORTIONMENT

Legislative Rift Follows Effort to Reduce Number of Districts

JACKSON, Miss., April 28.—(AP)—The Mississippi legislature today split wide open on the method of reducing the state's eight congressional districts to seven under national reapportionment. The senate in heated session voted through its rules committee bill to throw Congressmen Will Collier and Russell Ellzey into the same district in southwest Mississippi before the November elections.

The bill was adopted, 32 to 11, as a substitute for the house bill which rearranged the county set-up to combine the districts of Congressmen John Rankin and Jeff Busby, in the northeast section of the state.

Petrels Open Important Series With Bulldogs at Ponce de Leon

CRACKERS SPLIT DOUBLE-HEADER WITH BARONS

PETRELS OPEN VITAL SERIES WITH GEORGIA

Oglethorpe Tied With Auburn for Lead. Mitchell To Hurl.

Dixie Standings

CLUBS—	W.	L.	Pct.
Oglethorpe	5	3	.625
Auburn	5	3	.625
Georgia	4	4	.500
Florida	4	4	.500
Tech	2	6	.250

By Jack Troy.

Coach Frank Anderson may have to send a patched-up lineup on the field as Oglethorpe and Georgia open the first game of their final two-game series in the Dixie league today, following the Cracker-Pelican game at Ponce de Leon park. The Crackers play at 2:30 and the collegians' program will go on promptly after the first game is over.

Now the series, like every series of the past two weeks, is important, for the race is so close at this stage of the season that results are vital. And Oglethorpe may have to play without Hal Martin, star shortstop, who has not been out for practice in the last three days because of a bad arch.

In the event that Martin is unable to play, Coach Anderson plans to shift Munford Whitley to shortstop and use Riggins at second. Parker Bryant, big first baseman who was unable to play in the second Tech game because of injuries, is back at the initial bag.

TIED FOR THIRD.

Georgia enters the series tied with Florida for third place and with a fighting chance to go somewhere in the league race. Coach Bill White's club has hit a great winning stride, and the pitching the club is getting is attested by the two Florida games. Florida got just eight hits in the two games.

Reports from Athens are to the effect that the Bulldogs are confident of wreaking vengeance for the two losses at the hands of Oglethorpe at Athens.

It is likely that Vernon (Catfish) Smith will be in the box for the Bulldogs against Oglethorpe this afternoon.

Florida, through for the season, is counted out of the race.

PROBABLY MITCHELL.

Coach Anderson said last night that he would probably pitch Charley Mitchell, star right-hander, in the opener today, but might use B. Clark or Lefty Dixon, both of whom are in prime form. Mitchell has been defeated in only one game this season and thus is a top-notcher pitcher in the Dixie league.

Atlanta baseball fans have never been offered a bigger bargain than today and tomorrow. For a single admission price to see the Crackers, both games can be witnessed. The collegians play real ball, particularly these two clubs. Oglethorpe is tied with Auburn for the league lead and Georgia is fast threatening the leadership of both. Oglethorpe is the hardest hitting team in the league. And Georgia has been getting some of the best pitching.

A QUESTION.

And that interposes an interesting question. Can Oglethorpe's sluggers maintain their current pace against the kind of pitching Georgia has flaunted against the opposition most of the season?

The Stormy Petrels managed to get 29 hits in the two-game series at Athens, but since then Georgia has shown remarkable improvement and the brand of pitching has reached a new high. Georgia lost both games at Athens and it naturally gunning for revenge.

Auburn, riding at the top of the circuit with Oglethorpe, meets Tech at Auburn, and the Bulldogs, like Oglethorpe, will battle to break the tie.

DODD UNDECIDED.

It is more or less problematical whom Bobby Dodd will pitch against Auburn in an effort to bring his Jackets out of the cellar position. Clifford Smith, All-American captain of the Tigers, probably will be Coach Sam McAllister's choice.

The lineups of the Oglethorpe and Georgia teams will likely be as follows:

GEORGIA.	Pos.	OGLETHORPE.
Fleming	1b	Bryant
Parks	2b	Whitley
Webb	ss	Martin
Franittas	3b	Anderson
Smith	lf	George
Moss	cf	Baker
Gaston	rf	Moore
Cooper	c	Vance

Auburn To Use Aces Against Tech.

AUBURN, Ala., April 28.—Needing to put a couple of games on the victory side of the books if Auburn remains in the Dixie league pennant race, Coach Jim McAllister probably will start his ace right-handers, Captain Clifford Smith and Ripper Williams, on the mound when the Tigers meet the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets here Friday and Saturday.

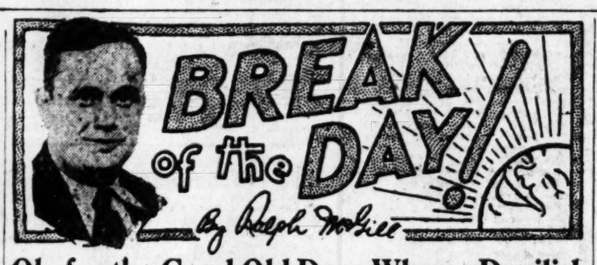

While Captain Smith and Williams are likely starters on the rubber against Georgia Tech, Coach McAllister might decide to open with Ralph Jordan on the firing line in one of the two encounters with Coach Bobby Dodd's charges, who are fully capable of upsetting the dope in any conflict.

Coach McAllister will make only one change in his starting lineup for the return series with Tech. Hamp Morris, a hustling sophomore of Geneva, will be in left field in place of Juicy Wood.

The rest of the team will take the field as follows: Duck Riley, second base; Ike Lewis, third base; Jimmie Hitchcock, shortstop; Harry Lloyd, first base; Sam Mason, right field; Charles Kaley, catcher, and Porter Grant, who is always trying to improve, center field.

CHICKS FIRST.

The Memphis Chickasaws were the first Southern association baseball club to win more than 100 games in a season.

Oh, for the Good Old Days When a Devilish Wink Meant Something

We were standing at the top of the baseball stadium where the sun was warm on our backs, watching the Crackers come up and go out ingloriously in a futile effort to snatch the first game from the Birmingham Barons.

There was a tall, handsome officer standing with us, indulging in the symphony of moans as some Birmingham fielder managed to get in the way of each Cracker batting effort.

Uniforms catch the eye. A gentleman clad in tweeds or the latest woolens or spring weaves, has no chance at all if there is an officer of the law or the army or the marines present.

And so, as we stood there, moaning, there came tripping up the aisle a tall lissome young lady in a floppy hat. She swept the group with a pair of snapping eyes. She ignored utterly your humble reporter, Mr. Chickademus Roos, the business manager, another newspaperman or so.

But she gave the officer and his marital accouterments a dazzling, bewildering smile that put all the dental ads to shame.

"Heh," she said, and was gone.

This brought on a sudden silence in the group. Age descended. The sun wasn't warm any more. We all looked at the officer, who was trying not to blush, and went away to the press box.

Something was wrong with this modern age. And it wasn't until the office was reached and we heard someone humming an ancient melody that the idea came. This modern age is all wrong. The brazen young things—the idea of walking by and saying "Heh," with a dental display that dazzles.

What has become of the old-fashioned, devilish wink?

What has become of the age which considered the wink the acme of daring? What has become of the days when a wink could produce a thrill? The very idea, "Heh! Heh!" Indeed.

The tune was the old Victorian ballad, one that Jeff Kelly down at Columbus tried to hum at Hollywood last fall when Anita Page was in the offing, "The Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo." Remember:

"As I walk along the Bois de Boolong
With an independent air,
You can hear the girls declare
'He must be a millionaire!'
You can hear them sigh and hope to die,
You can see them wink the other eye
At the man who broke the bank at Monte Carlo."

A wink, this day and time, passes as a mere attack of the tic, or ticdouloureux, a sort of neuralgia of the face with muscular twitchings. Another fine old Victorian custom gone by the boards. Strike up the band, professor. Heh! Heh! Are you listening?

BOWLING FOR 16 HOURS.

While it has always been my opinion that people who go in for marathon dancing and marathon golf and that sort of thing are a bit daffy, one cannot escape the fact that the boys have some sort of driving power. The old gas in the tank is ethyl or some other high test power.

Up in Nashville, Tenn-O-See, a couple of gentlemen bowled for 16 consecutive hours, eating their lunches between frames and taking no rest other than that afforded by the natural turn at the alley. They bowled ten pins and the winner scored 18,641 pins for an average of 175 2-3 pins per game.

At the conclusion the fingers of both contestants were worn almost to the bone and bleeding badly. This didn't beat the endurance record. The record for individual performance is held by Tommy Franza, of Solvay, N. Y., who bowled for 51 1-2 hours.

THE NEW QUALIFYING ROUTE.

Mr. Lowry Arnold, the perennial president of the Southern Golf Association, seems to have pleased his wide constituency by his decision that the qualifiers shall play 36 holes instead of 18, as formerly.

There has been agitation for some years to have this changed. Because after 18 holes many an excellent golfer is left with the also-rans. The 36-hole distance gives them all a better and fairer chance.

The southern is to be played in June at the Birmingham Country Club. And indications are that the greatest tournament yet will be had. The 36-hole qualifying test will make the first day more interesting.

MARKING TIME.

While those Crackers are marking time—going neither forward nor backward with anything approaching rapidity—replacements are on the way. Buster Chatham, a shortstop, is on his way to Atlanta.

Chatham started with the Kansas City Blues, says Mr. Leo Farrell, one of the young men about the shop who is interested only in the Blues and their products. He went from there back to a lower league, playing with Pueblo. And looking good enough there to get a try with the Braves.

The infield will be revamped a bit. And with Tom Nash at first base as a sort of fixture, the Cracker infield will start booming. It requires just a few changes to start the club clicking.

ARE YOU LOOKING?

The Constitution, which brings you your baseball news first, shows this morning that the Cardinals, champions last year, are in last place. Some day Sam Breadon, the owner, will learn that he can't kick over his idols just because they are demanding more money. The fans aren't coming out and the club is losing. While the Cardinals were in Atlanta two of them told me that if they did not get Chick Hafey they would not go far. And they didn't get him.

WALKER RULES FAVORITE OVER 'KING' TONIGHT

Bout in Chicago Means Contender Role for Winner.

By George Kirksey,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, April 28.—(UP)—Mickey Walker, the stout-hearted little Jersey Irishman, and King Levinsky, the awkward, hard-hitting Chicago Hebrew, will meet in an important 10-round heavyweight bout in the Chicago stadium tomorrow night which is expected to attract 20,000 customers and $70,000.

The winner will join Ernie Schaaf, of Boston, as the leading heavyweight challengers and will be in a position to fight his way into a match with the victor of the Schmeling-Sharkey bout in June.

Walker, apparently in first-class fighting shape despite little activity since he held Jack Sharkey to a draw last July, continued to rule a 7-5 favorite despite the many physical handicaps facing him.

Levinksy, weighing about 198, will have a 28-pound pull in the weights, 4 1-2-inch advantage in height, an inch and a half longer reach and is almost 11 years younger. Walker will be 32 in July and Levinsky has just turned 21. Walker probably will weigh 170.

OLD STORY.

Battling physical handicaps is an old story to Walker, and he will rely on his fighting heart, experience and bulldog tenacity to wipe out the pounds, inches and years in Levinsky's favor once they get inside the ropes.

One of the few men bigger than Walker ever to lick him was Tommy Loughran, who successfully defended his light-heavyweight title against Mickey here in 1929, although the referee cast his vote for Walker. That was the last fight lost by Walker, who in his climb up the pugilistic ladder has held the welterweight and middleweight championships and fought most of the great fighters from 147 pounds up during the past 10 years.

KING'S REP.

Most of Levinsky's reputation is built around a victory over Tommy Loughran in New York last December, when he had his foe on the canvas three times and his 4-round newspaper decision over Jack Dempsey in an exhibition bout with big gloves here in February.

Last year Levinsky engaged in 16 bouts, won 9 lost 6 and engaged in 1 draw. He was beaten with ridiculous ease by Jimmy Slattery, Tuffy Griffiths and Ace Hudkins. One of Levinsky's best fights was put up against Primo Carnera, losing a disputed decision after having the giant Italian wobbly and running for cover in the last round.

Since he boxed Sharkey to a draw, Walker has fought only five rounds, but during the past month has trained religiously and apparently has himself back in fighting trim.

Emory Beats Maryville Netmen

Emory University's varsity netmen added another victory to their list of conquests Thursday afternoon on Dobbs courts at Emory when they defeated the Maryville (Tenn.) College netmen, 4-2. This was the second loss in two days for the Maryville team. The visitors dropped their match to Tech Wednesday, 6-0.

Jack Boykin gave Emory the first victory by overcoming George Fischback, 6-2, 7-5. Fincher McDaniel, Emory, added the second victory with a long three-set win over Blundon Ferguson, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5.

Emory won the third of the four singles matches when Nick Polites trounced John Phay, 6-0, 6-4. Polites played good tennis throughout. Johnny Mullin turned in a brilliant 6-0, 6-0 victory over Ed Hurst for Emory's fourth straight point.

This was the last match won by Emory, as the Maryville team took both doubles matches. In the first doubles Ferguson and Phay formed an invincible combination to defeat S. R. Bridges and Eugene Griffin, Emory, 7-5, 7-5. George Fishback and Ed Hurst won Maryville's second point by overcoming a one-set lead to defeat Ed Jones and Pierre Howard, Emory, in the last match, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2.

Power Club Plans Fight Card Tonight

The Athletic and Social Club of the Georgia Power Company will feature another of its regular monthly wrestling and boxing cards at 8 o'clock tonight in the auditorium of the club, 36 Piedmont avenue.

In the main attraction on the wrestling card "Whittie" Patterson meets Young Richards.

A mixed bout will feature a wrestler and boxer, bringing together Frankie Allen, popular Atlanta fighter, and Al St. John, champion wrestler of the Georgia national guard.

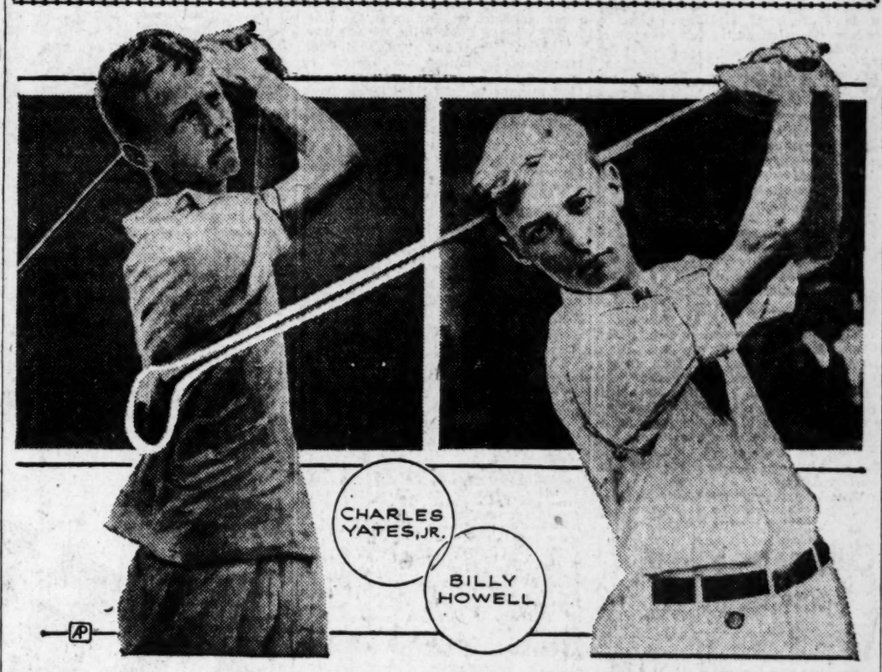

Hugh Winn will wrestle John Mauldin in a one-fall, 15-minute match.

Bobby Newman, local fighter from the power company, will meet Joe Hall in the main bout on the boxing card.

SINGLE G.

Single G, famous race horse, is owned by H. F. Burk and is spending his last days at Burkdale Place, near Newcastle, Ind.

They Qualify Together

Charlie Yates Jr. (left) and Billy Howell (right), two of the outstanding young golfers in the south, who will qualify together for the southern amateur, June 14, at Birmingham, Ala. Yates holds the Georgia and Atlanta titles, while Howell is the Virginia champion and was the sensation of the 1931 national amateur, when, in his first attempt, he reached the semi-finals.

AUBURN TRACK ENTRY STRONG

Tigers Leave Today for 'Bama To Defend 1931 Title.

AUBURN, Ala., April 28.—Auburn's 1932 track and field team, 18 strong, including Coach Wilbur Hutsell and Manager Pat O'Rourke, will leave here Friday afternoon for Tuscaloosa, where they will defend their 1931 southeastern A. A. U. championship Saturday. The Plainsmen will enter the Tuscaloosa track carnival with a perfect season's record, having downed Tulane, Southern conference champions, and Georgia in dual meets, 70 1-2 to 41 1-2 and 77 to 49.

The Tigers will have an outstanding record to uphold in attempting to win the S. E. A. A. U. first-place trophy for the third successive year—they have won this meet five of the last seven years.

One of the features of the 1932 southeastern A. A. U. meet will be waged in the discus. Captain Jeff Beard, a senior who hurled the platter 147 feet 7 1-8 inches against Georgia, and Primo Coleman, alternate-captain of the Bengals' 1931 track team who is now a graduate student at his alma mater, will stage a real battle. Coleman, however, is the favorite to win both this event and the shot put because he also has excellent form and more power in his shoulders than Beard. In practice Coleman has thrown the saucer over 150 feet.

Auburn's entries Saturday at Tuscaloosa will be: 100 and 220, Casey Kimbrell and Sterling Dupree; 440, Felix Creighton and Alternate-Captain Hem. O'Hara; 880, Clay Jones and Zach Huff; mile, Ross McQueen; two-mile, Jo Plant, Emmett McQueen and Marshall Caley; 120-yard high hurdles and 220-yard low hurdles, Lloyd Richey, Jack Stewart and Clarence Killebrew; discus, Captain Jeff Beard and Killebrew; shot put, Captain Beard; high jump, Richey; broad jump, Kimbrell; javelin, Allen Rogers; pole vault, Robert Rutland. Coach Hutsell said that his relay team would be chosen from Rogers O'Hara, Huff, Creighton, Jones and Killebrew.

Richey is undefeated this season in the high and low hurdles and high jump, Kimbrell in the century and furlong, Captain Beard in the discus and Creighton in the 440.

Boys' High Netmen Defeat Cadets, 4-2

In preparation for the state high school tennis championship next week at Athens, the Boys' High netmen defeated G. M. A., 4 to 2, on the College Park courts.

G. M. A.'s team was strengthened by the return of Elrod, who defeated Tarrance, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4, for one of the Cadet points. The other was won when Elrod and Boulware defeated Tumlin and Tarrance, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2, in the doubles.

Tumlin defeated Boulware, 6-2, 6-3; Rainwater defeated Silva, 5-7, 6-1, 6-3, and Carlson won from Lamb, 6-4, 6-1, to give Boys' High three points. The other Purple point was won when Carlson and Rainwater beat Lamb and Silva, 6-3, 8-6.

Tech Tennis Team Plays Chattanooga

Georgia Tech's undefeated tennis team left the city last night for Chattanooga, Tenn., where it meets the University of Chattanooga team today. The Jackets will end a two-day trip in Knoxville Saturday afternoon against the University of Tennessee netmen.

Coach George Griffin will accompany the team to Tennessee and the players will include Jack Conniff, Randolph West, Nelson Maynard, H. M. Jackson in the singles, and Morgan, Robertson and Pinder in the doubles.

Charlie Yates, Howell To Qualify Together

Stellar Young Golfers To Hold Opening Day's Interest in Southern Amateur.

By Roy White.

Charlie Yates Jr., of East Lake Country Club, and Billy Howell, of Richmond, Va., two outstanding young golfers in the south and who won national prominence by their phenomenal play last year, will qualify together in the southern amateur championship at Birmingham, Ala., June 14, it was learned Thursday.

Yates, just out of high school after winning the southern interscholastic medal honor last year, began his spectacular rise to southern prominence by turning back Emmett Spicer, the defending champion, in the quarter-finals of the southern amateur, but lost out in the semi-finals.

The 19-year-old East Lake blond was not dismayed and came back even stronger in the Georgia amateur tournament two weeks later and won. His road again was beset with many obstructions and he was forced to eliminate both the defending champion and the Atlanta champion the same day to reach the finals. The gangling youngster was forced to come from four down to beat Dean Smith, of Savannah, for the Georgia title.

He continued a consistent pace and after winning medal honor, won the city title by a surprisingly large score, to become the first player ever to win the Georgia and Atlanta titles the same year.

Yates attempted to qualify for the national amateur, but in a drenching rain during the last seven holes of play, he failed by one stroke.

Howell has a record even better than that of Yates, although it was made over a longer span of years.

The Richmond blond after winning many major and minor titles in Virginia, crashed through to national recognition when he went undheralded to the semi-finals of the national amateur, only to lose out, 2-1, to the veteran Francis Ouimet, who the next day won the championship.

It was Howell's first attempt to qualify in fast company and he set the golfing world to talking about his spectacular rise.

Today those two youngsters loom as the cream of the south's golfing talent and certainly will be heard from before the year is over.

Their qualifying together in the southern amateur will be the outstanding feature of the first's day play.

Montgomery Fielder Is Much Improved

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 28.—(AP)—Clinton Richbourg, Montgomery outfielder, today was recovering in a hospital from injuries suffered yesterday when hit on the head with a pitched ball.

Richbourg attempted to duck one of Al Fisher's fast balls in the ninth inning of the first game of a doubleheader with the Mobile Warriors, and the ball struck him near the base of the skull.

The Montgomery outfielder was in semi-conscious condition for several hours but today was reported as much improved.

Four-Day-Old Son Of Wynne Dies

AUBURN, Ala., April 28.—Chester Allen Wynne Jr., 4-day-old son of Coach and Mrs. Chet Wynne, of Alabama Polytechnic institute, died suddenly at his home here Thursday.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday morning at 9 o'clock either at the home of his parents or at the Catholic church in Opelika. Father Thomas P. Corrigan, of Opelika, will officiate. Interment will be in the local cemetery.

LOSE FIRST, 7-3, BUT GOFF'S HIT WINS SECOND, 8-5

Chapman Hits Seven Straight Times; Pels Here Today.

By Jimmy Jones.

After failing to blast young Henry Shoaf off the slab in the immediately-after-lunch game of yesterday's double-header, the heavier guns of Red Barron's hitting order turned loose on big Bob Hasty in the seven-inning finale and kept booming away until the Crackers had literally hacked out a victory, 8 to 5.

Andy Messenger, the slim submariner, ran the gamut of Baron base hits and Cracker misplays in the first game of the afternoon's jamboree and finally buckled under a 7-3 score.

The second game, while ending triumphantly for all Fulton county taxpayers, had its gloomy moments. The Barons kept hustling uphill against the sturdy shooting of Climax Blethen until they tied the score at 5-all with a four-run flurry in the sixth inning.

CLIMAX BEARS DOWN.

It looked like the ubiquitous men of Milan just weren't going to be placated at all, the way they rushed those runs over, but old Climax—who doesn't chew that quid so assiduously since his trusty molars were replaced by doctor's orders in the spring—bore down and finally subdued them with the score even-stephen.

Realizing that there wasn't a very long time to do what needed to be done, the Crackers got busy and started clubbing the ball around in their half, also, and finally won the game.

Blethen himself ignited the rally by getting on base via a walk after Rowland, first up in the sixth, had bounced out to Bancroft. Emile Barnes, who looks the cat's pajamas or mickey mouse's muffler—whichever you choose—when it comes to doing a good lead-off job, also walked and that put two on when Bobby Goff, the Cracker shortstop, came up.

GOFF SINGLES.

Abe White, the young Atlanta street car motorman, who twirls for Birmingham during the summer, got two strikes on Goff after the latter had sliced at a couple. Then Bobby dropped a single into right field that scored Blethen with what proved the deciding run. If that hadn't decided it, Johnny Chapmen very likely would have for he busted one into center after Rosenthal had rolled out, to score Barnes and Goff.

Incidentally that was Chapman's seventh consecutive hit of the day. He made three in a row in the first game and four for four in the second. Si Rosenthal, who has been the grim reaper to opposing pitchers all season, had five safeties out of the two-game imbroglio.

Gomez Allows Only Three Hits as Yanks Beat Red Sox, 5 to 1

THE SPORTLIGHT
By Grantland Rice

Mickey and the King.

The battle in Chicago tonight between Mickey Walker and King Levinsky should be one of the scenics of the slugging season. The main point is that both are willing to tear in and mix it. Both are willing to throw a lot of leather, which is not a common trait along the pugilistic mart. Both are aggressive and this always makes a busy evening.

This will be no easy evening for Mickey, but he should win in spite of the big weight handicap. He will have to spot the King about 25 pounds, height and reach and youth. But Levinsky is usually wide open to a body attack and Walker will keep inside where the target is easy to hit. Knocking Levinsky out is something else. More than one good puncher has had an open shot at the King, but he hasn't been stopped yet.

Walker is a keen sharpshooter and he can hit far above the average, despite his lack of weight. He should be too smart to absorb any of Levinsky's wild swings, but he will have to face a busy barrage all evening. Levinsky is one of those constant swingers who likes to keep firing, whether he lands or not.

If the casualty list keeps piling up along the big league highway, the team able to put nine men on the field at one time may grab a pennant by default.

Mr. C. B. Mills, a warm rooter for Minnesota, arrives in town to report that Bierman will have one of the best backfields of many seasons when the football curtain rises next fall. And Bierman proved at Tulane he knew how to handle backfield talent in the way of a fast and baffling offense.

The Convention of the Relay Runners.

For 38 years the University of Pennsylvania has been running its own little Olympic carnival on Franklin field, bringing the best of track and field campaigners together for what amounts to the opening of each outdoor season, and giving the hopes of everyone a fighting chance by emphasizing relay racing. It takes more than a star or two to succeed in team sports, and while track and field turns out more individual stars than it does great teams, nothing compares to the thrill felt by four young mercuries when they have cracked a world's record. They have a real partnership there.

Perhaps the Olympics on the horizon are keeping up the volume of interest in track. At any rate, there has been no falling off in entries for this week-end's jamboree in Philly. From gangly, spindly-legged grammar school kids to the massive candidates for the decathlon championship, the invading army includes all classes of school and college runners, jumpers and heavers to the number of 3,000. They'll be under your feet all day today and Saturday.

The feature event of this carnival, in so far as there is any one outstanding test, is the one-mile relay, a mad rush of straining quartermilers, elbowing each other from start to finish.

No More Berlinger.

Twelve months ago the big excitement of the relays was Barney Berlinger's challenge for a third consecutive decathlon victory. He made the grade, and made it gracefully, stamping himself as the outstanding all-event specialty act, with only Jim Bausch, former Kansas star, as a challenger.

Folks have been comparing Berlinger to the great Sac and Fox Indian, Jim Thorpe, and the indefatigable Pennsylvanian doesn't come off badly in the rating. This year he's gone, and a new champion must be crowned.

The southland, represented by relay teams from Florida, Virginia, Duke and North Carolina, may turn up the winner in Joe Hall, of Florida, who is a candidate for the Olympic berth. Berlinger is eligible for the Olympics, as is also Bausch, so whoever carries off the laurels in Philly this week-end has all his troubles yet ahead of him before he lands in the Olympic arena at Los Angeles.

BULLDOGS BEAT FLORIDA, 9 TO 2; SWEEP SERIES

Hut Parks Leads Georgia To Victory in Last Game.

ATHENS, Ga., April 28.—Georgia's Bulldogs assaulted two Florida hurlers for 11 hits and 9 runs here this afternoon to sweep the two-game series with the 'Gators and assure themselves of a percentage of .500 in the Dixie College league. The score was 9-2.

Led by Hut Parks, Georgia second baseman, who gathered a home run and two doubles in three times at bat, the Bulldogs hopped on the 'Gators in two big innings to take their fourth straight Dixie league game. Parks' home run with nobody on in the first inning opened the scoring for the day.

Jimmy Nicholson, slender Bulldog right-hander, limited the 'Gators to six hits and kept them scattered over four innings to hold the Florida team well in check most of the time. The 'Gators went down in order in four of the nine innings.

Brilliant fielding by Hut Parks featured today's game. Parks jumped high into the air in the sixth to make a one-handed catch of Galuzian's hard hit line drive. Parks handled nine chances without a miscue. Webb, of Georgia, was also a fielding star, handling 11 chances. Galuzian played brilliantly afield for the 'Gators.

SENATORS 10; ATHLETICS 4.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Walter Johnson's flashy Washington Senators pushed the subdued Philadelphia Athletics further downward today with a 10-to-4 victory hammered out over one of Connie Mack's aces, Rube Walberg.

Fifteen hits, including a homer into deep center field by Heine Manush, rattled from the Washington bats. The big, left-handed Walberg gave up 11 of them before he was pulled in the seventh inning in favor of Deshong, a rookie. The Senators then rapped Deshong for four more bingles.

Carl Fischer, youthful fire-ball southpaw, got credit for downing the Athletics, but Fred Marberry was sent to his assistance in the seventh.

It was the Senators' third victory over the Athletics against two defeats.

BROWNS 5; TIGERS 4.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—George Blaeholder allowed the Detroit Tigers 11 hits today, but the visitors were able to make them count in only one inning and the St. Louis Browns won, 5 to 4.

Three Tiger hurlers held the Browns to two less safeties, but concentrated hitting gave the Killifermen scores in two frames and the series opener, after they had lost three in a row to Cleveland.

Bruce Campbell, outfielder obtained from Chicago White Sox, made his first appearance in a St. Louis uniform, but he failed to connect in his four times at bat.

MERGER TO BE TOPIC OF ADDRESS TONIGHT

Opening what DeKalb county citizens announce will be a determined campaign to obtain for the voters of that county the opportunity to express their wishes on the merger of DeKalb with Fulton county, William D. Thomson, prominent resident of DeKalb and president of the Atlanta Bar Association, will speak at 8:45 o'clock tonight over WSB.

Assistant United States District Attorney Hal Lindsey, who was prominent in the fight a year ago to get through the legislature a bill calling for an expression on the merger, said Thursday that Mr. Thomson would discuss the consolidation from the right of the voter to pass upon the question. "We are asking only that our DeKalb delegation permit us to vote," Mr. Lindsey said. "It is an American principle and we do not intend to sit by and let our representatives decide this question for the minority. A realignment is necessary and it will come in the primary this year."

Lou Also Singles To Drive in Two Runs for Day.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Vernon Gomez, Yankee southpaw, pitched a brilliant game today to defeat the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 1, for his third straight victory.

Gomez set the Sox down with three hits, struck out six and tossed out five more at first. He also drove in the final New York run with a double. Lou Gehrig drove home the first two Yankee tallies with a triple and single off Danny McFayden.

SPALDING INTRODUCES
the first golf shoe DESIGNED

Spalding--convinced that shoes could be improved in design, just as clubs and balls have been improved--took the thing in hand. The result is a definite advance in golf shoe construction--the new Spalding Full-Swing Shoe.

This shoe actually helps you to pivot correctly. The inside edges of the sole are beveled to facilitate an uninterrupted roll, and the wider heels act as sway checks.

Notice the flange on the outer edge of the heel as indicated by the shaded portion. On the right foot this flange stabilizes the back swing and encourages a fuller movement because balance is better. On the left foot it adds firmness against the force of the blow and tends to correct the premature sway of the body.

Compare the inside edge of the sole of the ordinary golf shoe (indicated by the shaded portion) with "Full Swing." The sharp-cornered extending edge of the ordinary sole may be likened to a brake on the free, easy roll of the foot. The Full-Swing actually promotes and accelerates the proper foot movement.

This new Spalding Shoe comes in the four most popular golf shoe styles—and asks no premium for its pivoting features. $10 and $12

STEPPED UP 70%

Quicker pick-up in traffic—more power for the hills! You pay nothing extra for this $18,000,000 gasoline improvement—the new SINCLAIR REGULAR GASOLINE stepped up 70% in anti-knock (superior to some premium gasolines)

We've cracked the depression in the gasoline business—cracked it wide open by offering the public a new Sinclair Regular Gasoline stepped up 70% in anti-knock—a gasoline which is actually superior in anti-knock to some premium gasolines selling at several cents more per gallon. It cost us $18,000,000 in new refinery equipment to do it—but how the public likes it! Sales on the new Sinclair Regular jumped 30% the first month in the first city where this new ace of high-test motor fuels was announced!

Try this bargain in gasolines. Rely on it for flashy pick-up in traffic. Depend on it for a surge of power on the hills. Count on it for real surprising fuel economy. Ask for the new Sinclair Regular Gasoline, stepped up 70%.

NOTE: For best results use either SINCLAIR OPALINE MOTOR OIL or SINCLAIR PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR OIL. Both of these oils have not only been de-waxed, they have also been freed from petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero.

Vines Rallies To Win in Davis Cup Play; Allison Also Victor

SINGLES CHAMP PRESSED HARD TO TOP WRIGHT

Ellsworth Drops First 2 Sets But Comes Back Strongly.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—America's 20-year-old tennis champion—Ellsworth Vines—rallied from the verge of defeat today to beat the ace of the Canadian team and give the United States Davis cup forces a clean sweep of their first two matches.

Pressed to the limit in a surprisingly close five-set encounter, the heavily favored California youth beat off the challenge of the Canadian champion, Dr. Jack Wright, by scores of 8-6, 3-6, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2, after Wilmer Allison, the Texan, had trimmed Marcel Rainville, of Canada, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

A distinguished gallery of 1,800, including members of the diplomatic corps and other notables, watched the matches of the red dirt courts of the Chevy Chase Club.

With two victories already stowed away, the United States needs to win only one of the three remaining matches to be played tomorrow and Saturday to clinch this opening battle in the American zone eliminations.

PREP LEAGUES TO WAR TODAY

Six games will be played this afternoon as members of the two prep baseball leagues start on the homeward stretch of the 1932 pennant drives.

Tech High plays Riverside Military Academy, on the Henry Grady field in the feature of the Big Six. The Smithies are undefeated, while Riverside is making a determined effort to oust the leaders from their perch. Boys' High plays Monroe at Monroe for their third place in the standings in the other Big Six game.

University and Russell will furnish the major attraction of the North Georgia Interscholastic conference race at Piedmont Park.

Other games of the N. G. I. C. are: Decatur and Marist on the Ivy street diamond, Commercial and Marietta at Marietta and Fulton and Gainesville at Gainesville.

CUBS 12; CARDS 7.

CHICAGO, April 28.—The Chicago Cubs today produced enough hitting power in two innings to defeat the world champion Cardinals, 12 to 7, in the opening game of the series, and run their winning streak to six victories.

Bob Smith started for the Cubs and with a five-run rally in the fourth to lean on, sailed along until the sixth. In that inning the Cards broke out with a five-run splurge to tie the score at six-all. Smith was replaced by Charlie Root, who held the champions to one run.

The Cubs batted Dizzy Dean off the hill in the fifth, and started a six-run assault on Bennie Frey in the seventh. Jess Haines also was mistreated and Tex Carleton finished.

Riggs Stephenson's home run in the fourth with the bases loaded gave the Cubs their first lead, and Lance Richbourg's double in the seventh was the important blow of the inning.

The victory gave the Cubs a lead of one full game over the idle Boston Braves.

ROBINS 11; PHILLIES 5.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The Brooklyn Dodgers broke a five-game losing streak today by pounding four Philadelphia pitchers for 14 hits and an 11-to-5 victory.

Home runs by Johnny Frederick in the first inning and by Max Rosenfeld with two on in the eighth aided the Brooklyn cause but the big factor in the triumph was a six-run rally in the third, in which Ed Holley and Roy Hasen were driven to the showers. Babe Phelps steadied after the first three innings and went the route for the Dodgers.

REDS 7; PIRATES 6.

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—The Cincinnati Reds made their season's bow in Pittsburgh today by defeating the Pirates, 7 to 6.

Ray Kolp and Larry French opened the game on the mound, but found the going too tough. Loose fielding by French, which included a fumble and a wild throw in the fourth inning, hastened his departure.

A Corsair rally in the eighth and ninth innings fell one run short of tieing the score at 7-all.

Hermon got a home run in the sixth.

HALL COMPETES IN PENN RELAY EVENTS TODAY

Florida Ace Entered in Decathlon at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 28. (UP)—Three thousand of the country's best high school, prep school and college athletes tonight anxiously awaited the starting gun of the thirty-eighth annual Penn relays, due to open tomorrow on Franklin field.

The relays, official opener of the eastern 1932 track and field season, will serve as a tryout for many of the Olympic aspiring youths who came here to compete in the two-day meet.

The decathlon, which has drawn eight all-around track and field stars, will open the carnival. In this event Fred Klauer, of Colgate, who finished second last year, and George Munger, of Penn, who finished third, are expected to fight it out for the title with Joseph Hall, of Florida, third two years ago. Other entries in the decathlon include Ray Moncus, of New Mexico; C. H. Saxe, of Colgate; H. Pohl, of Delaware; J. Delaney, of Villanova, and H. Brownlee, of Westminster College.

The outstanding event will be the one-mile relay championship of America, which will bring together the same four eastern teams which thrilled a capacity arena at the annual indoor intercollegiate championships this past winter.

Bill Muldoon, 86, Adopts Secretary

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 28. (AP)—William Muldoon, 86-year-old "czar" of New York boxing, has adopted his secretary, half his age, as his daughter, and named her heir to his vast estate and fortune. This was revealed today when it was learned that Surrogate George A. Slater had signed an order approving the adoption by the state boxing commissioner of Miss Margaret V. Farrell, 43, his secretary for the last 12 years.

BRADLEY 'DOWN' ON TOP FLIGHT AS CONTENDER

Will Bet $20,000 to $10,000 Favorite Doesn't Finish in Money.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 28.—(AP) In the opinion of Colonel E. R. Bradley, master of Idle Hour farm and twice winner of the Kentucky Derby, Top Flight, winter book favorite for the $50,000 classic to be run at Louisville May 7, won't even finish in the money.

And the Blue Grass turfman said he has $20,000 to bet against $10,000 to back up his prediction.

"Top Flight will be beaten in the Derby," Bradley said. "I am willing to bet $20,000 to $10,000 she doesn't finish among the first three. It's open to the world."

Bradley, who has five of his own thoroughbreds eligible for the classic, bases his assertions about Top Flight on his belief the C. V. Whitney filly is "too much of the light or effeminate filly type to do what Regret did."

Regret, he recalled, was the only filly ever to win the Derby. She came in in front of a field of 16 in the 1915 renewal of the classic.

Twenty Grand Retires From Racing.

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—Twenty Grand, three-year-old champion last year, has been retired from racing for this season and may never run again. The middle tendon he ruptured while training at Havre de Grace last fall has weakened and Mrs. Payne Whitney has ordered him sent to her Kentucky farm and turned out for a year.

Twenty Grand won the Kentucky Derby, the Belmont Stakes, the Wood Memorial and the Saratoga cup last year and was figured to lead the handicap division this year if in shape.

CRACKERS SPLIT DOUBLE-HEADER

of the first game and it cost Andy Messenger a run.

Nash got two nice hits in the first game. The heavy Cracker sticking, however, was done by Chapman and Rosenthal—who accounted for 12 safeties between them. Carlyle, pinch hitting in the first, got a double and added a single in the second, while Barnes and Goff collected three hits apiece.

"Shine" Cortazzo, the lil' Eye-talian, again was a tough customer for the Cracker hurlers to solve, poking out six hits in seven times up with that short bat of his.

EVEN BREAK.

The even split yesterday made it an even break in the Cracker-Baron stand of four games, each team bagging two victories. Atlanta won the opener Tuesday 5-4, and then lost that wild 15-inning whirligig of Wednesday, 15-14.

The scene shifts today. The New Orleans Pelicans, under their brand-new skipper, Jakey Atz, of Texas league fame, are here for a game today and tomorrow, playing starting at 2:30 p. m. on each day so as to allow a collegiate skirmish of the Dixie league between Georgia and Oglethorpe to follow. There will be no extra charge for the latter game, and patrons at the park are invited to stay and see it.

Bunny Hearn, the short-pint southpaw, and the only Cracker pitcher who hasn't gone the 9-inning route this season, will toss the opener against the Pels. Bunny has been off-color, but Barron believes he will find himself and get a well-pitched game out of his system today. Clyde Milan says Hearn is the toughest left-hander in the league to beat when right.

Barron in Class Quandary Again.

A sequel to Red Barron's pre-season class problem has bobbed up again with the acquisition of "Buster" Chatham, infielder, from the Boston Braves.

Barron would like to stick Chatham in at second and have a solid Class A infield, but if he does, he must dispose of another Class A man to make room for him. There are now 12 active Class A players on the roster and that is the maximum allowed by the league.

"The whole thing went wrong when I failed to get Paul Gregory from the White Sox; I could have used him in place of an A pitcher," Barron said. He must do something about it before the team leaves on its 11-day trip.

Freak Ball Abundant In That 15-Inning Tilt

Speaking of freakish baseball, what about Wednesday's 15-inning game played by Atlanta and Birmingham?

A check-up on the hectic contest reveals that—

Atlanta tied the score four different times during the game.

Carlyle and Rosenthal, two left-handed Atlanta hitters, and first batters up in the tenth and fourteenth innings, respectively, each led off with a home run off a left-handed pitcher.

Atlanta scored five runs in two different innings—the first and the ninth.

Billy Bancroft, Baron second baseman, went to bat nine times and made five hits.

Birmingham played errorless ball.

There were 16 extra base hits made by the two teams, including 11 doubles, two triples and three home runs.

The two teams together collected a grand total of 35 hits—in one of the league's biggest ball parks!

CRACKERS BUY NEW INFIELDER FROM BOSTON

Charles Chatham Expected To Add Strength To Club.

The Atlanta Crackers, moving to add some needed strength to their infield, have acquired Charles (Buster) Chatham from the Boston Braves in an outright cash deal. He can play third, short or second, his record shows.

Chatham, a diminutive but versatile player—according to advance reports—was sold to the Braves by Tom Turner, of the Portland (Coast league) club in 1930 and took part in 112 games at short and third, batting .267. He was in only 17 games last year at Boston, finishing out the season in the International league with Jersey City and Montreal, where he batted .259 in 101 games.

He batted .312 with Portland in 1929.

Manager Barron isn't yet sure where he will use Chatham, but chances are he will start him at second.

Bunk!

AT the Ritz-Blitz—at the Costmore—at the Woolworth-Castoria—at the Brokers—at all hostelries favored by that gay galaxy known as the four hundred—King Edward is the instinctive choice of the real connoisseur of fine see-gars!

Truth.

KING EDWARDS are smoked by millions of men and—presumably—by a few men of millions. You occasionally find King Edwards on sale at stands where a dollar's worth of cigars scarcely bulges a vest pocket. And they're right at home—wherever you find them.

An excellent cigar.
Five cents—everywhere.

TARZAN AND THE ANT MEN No. 83

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan worked a little longer in silence. "Come!" he said presently, "we are ready to go. I choose tonight for our dash to liberty because tonight is our last one above ground. We will make a bold attempt down the central shaft."

Carrying the iron rods Tarzan had wrenched from the window, the two men crawled toward the mouth of the embrasure. Each rod had been bent into a hook by the ape-man. Then Tarzan said, "Wait a moment. I am making a hole in the ledge. Pass along the rods."

Tarzan dropped into the black shaft, clinging to its ledge with one hand. "Come to the ledge here," the ape-man said. "When I whistle once, follow me." "Follow where?" asked Komodoflorensal. "Down the shaft to the first embrasure that will give us foothold," replied Tarzan.

"I have hooked the rods together," explained Tarzan, "the upper end is hooked into that hole I just made." Below him dangled the slender linked chain of iron bars, and below its end, four hundred feet of pitchy darkness hid the stone flagging of the inner courtyard.

TURK PREMIER PAYS VISIT TO MOSCOW

MOSCOW, April 28.—(AP)—Ismet Pasha, premier of Turkey, accompanied by a party of 34 Turkish dignitaries, arrived here today on a visit of friendship and good will.

The Turkish visitors were welcomed by Premier Molotoff, Maxim Litvinoff, foreign commissar, and other high soviet officials. An impressive military ceremony was held at the station.

The party expects to remain here until after the May day celebrations next Sunday, inspecting the various industrial developments around the capital.

DR. C. M. PAINE, 72, DIES AT HOSPITAL

Funeral Services This Afternoon for Widely Known Physician.

Dr. Clarence Mann Paine, prominent Atlanta physician for nearly 40 years, died early Thursday morning at the Georgia Baptist hospital. He had been ill only a short time, and was 72 years old.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Spring Hill chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son. Dr. J. Sprole Lyons and Dr. William T. McElveen will officiate. Burial will be in West View cemetery.

The following well known Atlantans will serve as pallbearers: Dr. George Noble, J. Wallace Hoyt, John Miller, W. E. Mansfield, George Steffner, Willis Everett, Dr. James Crawford and Dr. H. R. Donaldson.

Dr. Paine, a native of Clinton, N. Y., was a member of a famous family of physicians. He was graduated from the Albany High school, Hamilton College and the Albany Medical College, class of 1889. Moving to Atlanta after serving for several years as a surgeon in the Albany hospital, Dr. Paine accepted the position of general examiner for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Atlanta, a position which he held for 39 years.

He formerly was president of the United States board of examining pensions surgeons, and also president of the Atlanta Medical Club. During his residence here he was a member of the First Presbyterian church, the Knights of Pythias, and of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He was also a Mason.

Surviving Dr. Paine, who resided at 395 Piedmont avenue, are his wife, the former Miss Louise Root Averill, of Perrysburg Ohio; two daughters, Mrs. Ralph A. White, and Miss Louise Paine; a son, Averill Paine, a student at the University of Georgia and two brothers, Dr. N. Emmons Paine, of Boston, and Dr. Howard S. Paine, of New York and Miami. Both of the brothers are well known specialists.

Rain Set to Break 'Winter' Spell Today

Rain today wil break the spell of "blackberry winter," the usual last fling of winter before summer actually arrives, in Atlanta and though the temperature will not be as low as that recorded on Thursday the maximum will not be as high due to the effect of the intermittent showers which are slat d, according to the weather bureau here.

Thursday there was a low mark of 48 degrees in Atlanta and a high temperature mark of 66 degrees. Today's low should be in the fifties, stated Meteorologist C. F. von Herrman, while the maximum will get above 60 degrees but possibly not as high as 66 as of Thursday, lacking a degree or so. Weather that had all of the ear arks of winter was general over the northwest and southern parts of the United States Thursday with New York and Boston reporting low temperatures only two degrees above freezing.

MONUMENT HONORS DECLARATION SIGNER

EDENTON, N. C., April 28.—(AP) A monument to Joseph Hewes, signer of the Declaration of Independence and sponsor of the nation's first navy, was unveiled on the courthouse green here today.

Speaking to an audience of several thousand from many states, Rear Admiral W. D. McDougall, commandant of the naval operations base at Norfolk, traced the life of Hewes and his part in the colonies' struggle for independence in the principal address of the ceremony.

M. L. Hewes, of Hartford, Conn., a descendant of Joseph Hewes, unveiled the monument which was erected by congress. The ceremony was part of the Washington bicentennial celebration.

MACONITE CONVICTED OF ROBBERY CHARGE

MACON, Ga., April 8.—(AP)—Blanton P. Webb, 25, laundry truck driver and former pugilist, Thursday was convicted on five counts of an indictment in connection with robberies here, by a jury in Bibb superior court. He was sentenced to two years on each count, or a total of ten years.

Two others indicted with Webb, A. H. Brown and R. S. Purse, though not on as many counts, are to be tried later.

STATION L-O-V-E

BY CRAIG CARROLL

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE: Judy Allison had been in Chicago six months without finding work when Richard Mason, radio announcer at WAOA, got her a $40 a week talking position at his studio on A. A. Jenks' new Beauty Builder program. Lona Burdette, who wanted the position Judy got, told her the audition had not been conducted fairly. "You got away with it this time. But you'll wish you hadn't," she said to Judy. Judy spoke to Elton Day, continuity writer, who, without her knowledge, had arranged for the audition to result in Judy's favor. He answerd mysteriously and intimated that Dick Mason might be blamed. Dick had told Judy he loved her but couldn't ask her to marry him as he had dependent relatives to support. Day also had fallen in love with Judy and told her so. He got her a year's contract for $100 a week. Judy was discussing her fears that Dick would lose his job with her friend Elsie, when they heard that Dick and Billy Townsend, a radio operator, had been discharged. Before Dick and Billy left the city, presumably for Cleveland to look for jobs, Dick refused to see Judy. "Of course you didn't know anything about it. Of course not," he had said earlier by phone. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

"He was always on time."

"Then I don't care if the station likes him or not. He ought to be here right now. I want him here. You hear me?"

Nobody said anything. Jenks, chewing vigorously on his cigar, growled in his throat, stamped his feet a little, like a small animal about to jump over a fence. Then he said sharply, "I'm going to find out about this. Right now. Day, I'll see you later. Miss Allison, you're fine. Just keep it up the way you were today and you'll be wonderful. Good-bye."

He bustled away. Almost, Day went after him. But not quite. He grinned instead and moved closer to Judy.

"Too bad," he said.

"What's too bad?"

"Too bad he had to notice about Dick Mason."

"Why?"

"Because if he'd missed it for a couple of days he'd have forgotten there was any difference. Then we'd have been all right."

"We?"

"Yes, Judy. We. Because Dick is through, and we both know it. And that's all there is to it."

"We don't both know it, and Dick isn't through!"

"Maybe not. But they'll never let him work here again. No matter what Jenks says about it."

"You mean they'll never put him back on the staff?"

"Of course not."

"But suppose—" Just in time she caught herself.

What was it the man Flavin, the advertising salesman, said? If an announcer could sell himself and his voice direct to the client, instead of to the station, he could make a lot more money and he wouldn't be responsible to the station at all; they'd have to use him whether they wanted to or not? That was it. Then if Jenks wanted Dick Mason and nobody else?

"I'll have to go," Judy said quickly. "I'm meeting someone."

"Not Dick?"

She shook her head. "No, not Dick. You know it wouldn't be Dick."

"That's right. He's gone, isn't he?" Elton asked, innocently.

That was too much.

"Yes," she said, "he's gone. And you're the one who sent him away."

"I?"

"You. You know you did. You let him take the blame for what you did about the audition. You let them fire him without saying a word about it."

"Judy, I give you my word that isn't so."

"Your word!"

"My word. And for once, it's good. Because I didn't even know what was going to happen. Listen, Judy, I did a rotten trick. There wasn't any need for cheating. You'd have got the job anyhow. Only I wasn't sure what Lona Burdette might have said or done. I had to make sure. I was doing it for your sake. Not for anything else. And I made a mistake. I didn't need to do anything. I've found out since that Jenks would have insisted on having you, no matter what anybody else said. He just put on the second audition to keep everybody happy around here. But about putting Mason on the spot like that. . . . I didn't do it, and I wouldn't. I'm not that low, anyhow."

"You're not?"

"No. And you know I'm not. I heard about it yesterday. . . . Heard that somebody had been talking and that Dick was likely to get in trouble. I tried to square it. Couldn't do a thing. I came up to see you and tell you about it. But I lost my head and said a lot of other things instead. And I," hastily, "meant every word I said. Judy, I love you."

She drew away from him as far as she could, back against the wall, her face eloquent with distaste.

"Please don't say that again," she said.

"But I will. I'll keep on saying it. It's the most important thing in my life. Nothing else matters but that. I love you. Don't you believe it?"

"No!"

"But how can you doubt it? Haven't I proved it?"

"You think you've proved anything? When you let a man I really care for take the blame for something you did?"

He started. His lips tightened. His eyes, which had been tender, were hard all at once.

"You care about Dick Mason, eh? That much?"

"That much and more. More than you could ever understand. I love him. You understand that, Elton Elton Day? I love Dick Mason, and I'll always love him, and I hate you for hurting him! I hate you!"

Day clicked his heels in an ironic gesture of surrender.

"The queen has spoken. All right. That's the end of it."

"Elton!"

"What? What now?"

"Aren't you going to tell them what really happened? It can't hurt you any. You can't lose any job, because you don't work here. You've got your contract. Aren't you going to be fair enough to make them give Dick Mason his job again? He didn't do anything. You know he didn't. Won't you—"

"Won't I go in and say 'I'm a terrible crook and Dick Mason's a lily-white lamb and please give him his job back? Won't I say that?"

"Not that. You know what I mean. Just—"

"Just enough so Dick will be here again and you and he can walk around and laugh at me. Hah!"

"But you said—"

"I said I loved you. I didn't say anything about anybody else. What happens to anybody else is his own hard luck. If Dick Mason couldn't look out for himself, that's too bad. But it's nothing to me."

"And you said you love me!"

"I do. My own way. And that's the best way I know. And it's not good enough for you. You make that plain enough. So that's all there is to it."

"But Elton—"

"Let's not talk any more, Judy. This stuff is too good to waste out here in the hall. I'll put it in a script instead and put it on the air. Great True Love Romances of Great Announcers. That's a grand idea. I can sell it. To the Happy Home Laundry, maybe. Or the Oomph-Oooomph Groceries. Swell! I've got to get busy on it while I can still remember the lines. I'll see you later. So long!"

Quickly he disappeared, shouldering through the crowd that filled the main lobby.

Judy signaled a page boy who stood near by.

"How do I reach Mr. Flavin?" she asked.

"Call him on the house phone. Right there. I'll get him for you."

He rang, waited, rang again. "Here you are, Miss Allison."

"Mr. Flavin?"

"Yes?"

"This is Judy Allison."

Work of Red Cross in Storm Area Highly Praised by Georgia Editor

Warm indorsement of the work of the American Red Cross in prompt and effective efforts to relieve suffering in the north Georgia storm area, was contained in a telegram from Milton L. Fleetwood, editor of the Cartersville News-Tribune, to Atlanta Red Cross roll call headquarters, and made public by Frank Carter, general chairman, Thursday.

Fleetwood, familiar at first hand with the work done by the Red Cross, and with the fact that an appeal is being made by the Atlanta and DeKalb county chapters for members, stated in his telegram:

"Every need in the tornado storm area has been met generously, and with a care to the future welfare of the storm sufferers. Of that fact the public may rest assured, for we know whereof we speak.

"While all of its work for humanity never will become public property, the people of this section have learned enough about the Red Cross to know that it is a humanitarian organization of surpassing abilities."

Rapid progress is being made with the various departmental organizations in membership enrollment, Carter reported Thursday. Organization for the membership effort has been completed in two important branches, the federal employes in Atlanta, under the leadership of John M. Slaton Jr. and the cities outside of Atlanta under the direction of Walter C. Hendrix.

Roswell, newest Fulton county city, already has exceeded its membership quota, according to Mayor C. P. Vaughan, who has demanded "as many again" of membership cards and buttons. "We don't propose to have the rest of Fulton county feel that we have to be urged to support such an organization as the Red Cross," he said.

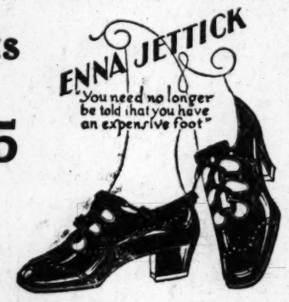

Committee chairmen for federal employes are: Postoffice, E. K. Large; collector of internal revenue office, Josiah T. Rose; district attorney's office, Clint E. Hagar.

Chairmen for municipalities outside Atlanta, under Walter Hendrix are: C. P. Vaughan, Roswell; C. H. Gullatt, Union City; Guy Hearn, Fairburn; Dr. P. P. Bullard, Palmetto; Carl Milner, College Park; B. A. Bishop, Hapeville, and Walter Dillon, Buckhead.

Cross Sections of Life In Gate City of South

Rev. D. Witherspoon Dodge will speak before the Jewish Open Forum in ballroom of Henry Grady hotel at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. His subject will be "Our Country's Plight: What Are We Going to Do About It?" Afterward Dr. Dodge will lead a general discussion. Music will be furnished through the courtesy of Professor Boris Duneff, Atlanta Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. Sallie Queen's $50,000 damage suit against the Patent Scaffolding Company of Georgia was dismissed Thursday by Judge Hugh Dorsey in city court of Atlanta after hearing evidence presented by the plaintiff. Mrs. Queen sought recovery for the death of her son, George M. Queen, killed in a fall during construction of the new Union Station.

Atlanta alumni of Georgia Tech, class of 1912, will meet at Piedmont hotel at 12:30 today to elect committees and make plans for the twentieth class reunion which will be held on the campus in October, it was stated.

Use of the name "F. J. Cooledge & Bro." in competing with the paint and glass business of their brothers and sisters, F. J. Cooledge & Sons, has been temporarily denied Fred J. Cooledge Jr. and Aurelian H. Cooledge in an order signed by Judge John D. Humphries, of Fulton superior court, returnable Saturday morning. The two stores are within a few doors of each other on Forsyth street.

Attaches of federal district court were back at their accustomed places at the postoffice building here Thursday after attending three days of court in the Gainesville division. Judge E. Marvin Underwood left directly from Gainesville for New Orleans to attend a meeting there Thursday and today of all federal judges of the fifth circuit.

Twenty forest fire patrolmen, employed at a cost to the state of $5,280.92 during the first three months of the year, prevented the burning of 511,500 acres of forests and saved $500,000 in potential fire damage, B. M. Lufburrow, state forester, said.

C. W. Westbrooks, 26, of 25 South Elizabeth street, a teamster employed by Fulton county, was seriously injured Thursday when a wagon he was occupying slipped down an embankment, pinning him beneath it. He was taken to Grady hospital for treatment.

W. E. Lovely, of Leesburg, Fla., appealed Thursday to police for aid in finding a pair of eyeglasses in the pocket of a top coat stolen from his automobile while it was parked downtown Wednesday night. The glasses were specifications of a man now dead and cannot be replaced. A suit case containing other things of sentimental and monetary value was stolen.

C. D. McCorkle, well-known Atlanta attorney and court commissioner, who underwent an operation at the United States Veterans' hospital here Wednesday, was reported as in serious condition Thursday.

New members of the Georgia Tech student council elected Monday and Tuesday are: Senior members, Hugh Gooding, Ivan Allen Jr., Charles Wagner, Harold Guggenheimer and Corbin Neblett; junior members, Bob Mattingly, James Slocum, Wink Davis, C. C. Bach and Charles Galloway; sophomore members, Billy Glenn and Jerry Perkerson.

Atlanta Federation of Trades resolved to request Georgia senators and representatives to support the federal home loan bank bill, now pending in congress, stating that the bill provided a helpful form of organization for home financing institutions.

John E. Smith, Hugh A. Bowen and William Frank Bowen, charged with murdering a man by the name of Kingston to obtain insurance money, will be tried in federal district court at Rome on May 18, it was learned here Thursday at the district attorney's office when the case was placed on the court calendar for that date. The case is in the jurisdiction of the federal courts due to the fact that the alleged murder took place on a government reservation, Chickamauga park.

Fourteen hundred schoolchildren selected from more than 60,000 Atlanta schoolchildren will give a program of choral music at the city auditorium at 8:15 o'clock tonight under direction of Charles G. Nilson. The concert will climax the year's work of the music department of city schools.

Druid Hills Baptist church will hold its annual reception at the church at 8 o'clock tonight. This reception is in honor of the pastor and his wife and all members uniting with the church during the past year. Members of the church are urged to be present.

G. M. Roberts, 986 Washington street, Confederate veteran of the 19th Georgia Colquitt brigade, is exhibiting to friends two freak chicken eggs laid by a Rhode Island Red hen belonging to him. In many years of experience with poultry he never has seen chicken eggs greater in size, Mr. Roberts said Thursday.

Junior Chamber of Commerce membership drive is to continue until the goal of 200 new members has been reached, it was announced Thursday by Robert Whatley, chairman of the drive. Approximately 150 new members have already been enrolled, he stated.

David L. Hall, of 804 Newnan avenue, East Point, was elected over a field of eight candidates as first ward councilman to fill the vacancy left when Dr. R. B. Callahan was killed at a railroad crossing several weeks ago. News items Thursday gave the new councilman's name incorrectly as "Samuel D." Hall. Mr. Hall will be sworn in Monday night.

Fire of undetermined origin Thursday morning caused damage of $15,000 or more to a general store and warehouse at Chamblee owned and operated by P. E. Hyde, dairyman. Whipped by a high wind, the fire for a time threatened to spread to nearby gasoline filling stations but quick aid from the chemical apparatus at Chamblee and a unit from the Atlanta fire department held the flames in check.

SOUND LEADERSHIP IS URGED BY SLOAN

Cotton Textile Institute Head Addresses Students of N. C. University.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., April 28.—(AP)—George A. Sloan, president of the Cotton Textile Institute, Inc., in an address here tonight said a new kind of business leadership which "will conduct its affairs with due regard for wholesome and economically sound policies for all units engaged in the same line of endeavor," is needed for this country to win back prosperity.

Sloan, who addressed a meeting of students and faculty of the University of North Carolina, said only bankruptcy and ruin face an industry whose "would-be leaders find the mainsprings of their business conduct in policies of isolation."

"Enlightened businessmen," he continued, "are individually asserting themselves to discourage the old belief in self-sufficiency and to encourage in its place a freer exchange of views regarding measures of the greatest common interest.

"The country at large will unquestionably gain from this new type of business leadership which slowly but surely is clearing out the underbrush of our basic industries and which is pointing the way to sound and profitable merchandising and greater happiness and security for the everyday citizen."

"Co-operative efforts to bring stability to the cotton textile industry were traced by Sloan, who told of the movements sponsored by the Cotton Textile Institute for a shorter working week and for elimination of the night work of women and minors.

Russell Honors Georgian In Planting Memorial Tree

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 28.—(AP)—Governors of more than a score of American commonwealths today joined in a tribute to Mary, the mother of George Washington, praised by Governor Henry S. Caulfield, of Missouri, as typifying the finest example of American motherhood.

A wreath was placed on the tomb of the mother of the first president by Governor Ibra Blackwood, of South Carolina, at the conclusion of the memorial services.

From the memorial exercises the governors went to Kenmore, home of Betty Fielding Lewis, sister of Washington, for luncheon as guests of the Kenmore Association. There Governor Richard B. Russell, of Georgia, planted a tree on the lawn of the old mansion in honor of Mrs. Vivian Minor Fleming, a native Georgian, and president of the Kenmore Association since it was founded in 1922.

The governors arrived in this historic city, known to the boy Washington, at 10:30 o'clock and were received at the old law offices of President James Monroe by Mrs. Gouveneur Hoes and her son, Lawrence, descendants of the former president and owners of the shrine.

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt showed great interest in the offices where Monroe toiled as a young lawyer and asked a number of questions of his guides.

Henry Ford, who, with Mrs. Ford, was here today on a tour of historic gardens, did not accompany the governors, but was extended an invitation to attend the luncheon at Kenmore.

Governor Roosevelt was given an ovation at the Monroe shrine where he placed a wreath on the Monroe tablet and participated in the cutting of a cake to mark the 174th anniversary of the former president.

"This is very interesting to me," the New York governor said, as he examined the relics in the little one-story building.

Governor Pollard, of Virginia, read a telegram from President Hoover expressing the president's admiration for Monroe and saying the "Monroe doctrine had a very benign effect on the whole western hemisphere and was a service to our own country of far-reaching value."

Twenty-five governors stood before the tomb of Washington today and heard one of their number—Gifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania—plead for a "rebirth of liberty in America."

"As Washington and Lincoln and Roosevelt understood liberty this nation is not free today," Governor Pinchot said, adding:

"How can a nation be free when the policies of its government are dictated by a handful of Midas-men at whose touch everything of ours turns into gold for them?"

Continuing, he said Americans had lost the liberty gained by Washington, made sure by Lincoln and applied to modern problems by Roosevelt.

"But today," he said, "there is no Washington to lead us against autocracy—against the suffering that goes with tyranny—against government without consent of the governed. There is no Lincoln to free modern slaves. Theodore Roosevelt is not here to warn us of the tyranny created by concentrated wealth—a concentration our government had the right and the means to stop, but which, instead, it has promoted by every means in its power."
